

Bereaved.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

Let me come in where you sit weeping—aye,
Let me, who have not any child to die,
Weep with you for the little one whose love

I have known nothing of.

Those little arms that slowly, slowly loosed
Their pressure round your neck—the hands you used

To kiss. Such arms, such hands I never knew:
May I not weep with you?

Fain would I be of service—say something

Between the tears that would be comforting;

But ah! so sadder than yourselves am I,

Who have no child to die.
—The Century.

THE GILT EDGED TRUTH.

A Seven-Foot Reptile Attempts to Swallow a Baby.

Yakima Herald.

George Whorton, of Brown county, tells a blood-curdling snake story. Mrs. William Huxelly, living in a log cabin, was making soap in a back yard, having kissed her sweet little six months-old baby to sleep in the cradle. Presently the baby screamed and she rushed in and was horror-stricken to find a hideous black snake of enormous size trying to swallow the child. It had engulfed the hand, swallowed it to the armpit and was writhing in its contortions and efforts to make further progress. Grasping the hideous reptile in the middle it seemed to relax its hold and disgorge the child's arm, then turned upon its mother. She dashed it upon the floor and in her wild frenzy stamped it to death. It proved to be of the black racer species, seven feet two inches in length and measuring six and one-half inches in circumference. The baby lived, and the only inconvenience it suffered from its terrible experience was that its arm and hand were blistered as if scalded in hot water.

130 Men Killed by a Mine Explosion.

An explosion occurred in the H. C. Frick Coke Co's mine in Pennsylvania on the morning of the 27th by which 130 sturdy miners were ushered into eternity, and a number seriously injured. It is estimated that there are more than sixty wives and families left wholly dependent on charity as the result of the fearful explosion. The work of redeeming the bodies of the unfortunate miners is still going on, and it is more than probable that the number found to have perished will be greater than now estimated.

A Dry Line.

Charlotte News.

One by one the counties and towns along the Carolina Central railroad, between Charlotte and Wilmington have gone dry, until now nothing except a temperance drink can be secured along the whole length of the line, a distance of nearly 200 miles. The conductors used to have tough times with "loaded" characters, but now all that is changed, and it is a rarity to see a disorderly character on the train. Occasionally a border ranger with breeches in his boots gets on with a supply secured from some town off the railroad but he instinctively feels himself in good company and behaves himself. Times are really changing for the better.

Castoria

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice and find it specially adapted to affections of children." ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D., 1037 2d Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children." DA. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.
