NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Two marriage licenses were issued by the Register of Deeds this morning.

Have you discovered that the cold wave has arrived?

The city is well filled with strangers from all sections of the State.

Don't forget the mass meeting tonight at the court house.

Cotton is coming in slowly on account of the rough roads.

The wood market is poorly supplied. Bring the wood, the cold wave is here.

The prize drill by the Governors Guard, at their armory tonight will be an interesting occasion.

The painters seem to be reaping a harvest, from the number of newly painted residences in the city.

Work on the new round-house at the yard of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad depot is being rapidly pushed to completion.

There was a large turnout of the ladies in attendance at the Senate yesterday, during the passage of the Soldiers' Home bill.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Raleigh Real Estate Agency in this issue. They have several residences to rent.

Tobacco seems to have captured the city; you would be surprised to see the quantity of it sold here. Pay the warehouse a visit.

The small boys are greatly interested in the proceedings of the House today. They are in the gallery and lobby in abundance.

The Harry Lindley Company played to another crowded house last night. Mr. Lindley as the member of the Legislature, together with Mr. Sol. Walters did their parts to perfection; they are as good as the best. Miss Allie Halford and little Miss Mable carried the house by storm.

Subscribers are coming in and our advertising patrons are showing that they appreciate this fact. Send in your ads gentlemen, the VISITOR reaches more people and is read with more interest through and through than any other Journal in the city.

North Carolina State Library.

The Biennial report of the State Librarian for 1889 to 1890 is on our table. The report seems to be very full and explicit as it should be. Librarian, J. C. Birdsong makes some admirable suggestions looking to the unloading of the shelves of the Library of surplus and unnecessary books.

Biennial Reports.

The reports of the Board of Directors and officers of the State Penitentiary is gotten up in good style, and from the examination, we have been able to give it, it seems to be very full. It is a matter of congratulation that the institution was self-sustaining during the last year. This is right; these criminals should be used so as to be self-supporting. The number is multiplying too rapidly for them to be supported at the expense of the State Treasury. The report is a good one.

Reception Last Night.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cole gave a reception to their son, T. Emery Cole and his beautiful bride and a few invited guests, at their residence on North Blount street, last night. The bride was received by her class which graduated at Peace Institute in 1885, several of whom were present. The reception was very gratifying to those present and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. An elegant supper was served and everything the appetite called for was in abundance. The occasion was an enjoyable one. We wish the happy couple a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.

Tonight.

Go to the mass meeting at the Court House tonight. Remember that matters of the greatest interest to Raleigh will be discussed. Let every one who wants the Southern Exposition held in Raleigh, be on hand.

I. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge meets tonight at 7 o'clock sharp. Initiatory Degree and other matters will be transacted. Candidates will present themselves promptly at 7:30 o'clock for initiation. Every Odd Fellow is cordially invited.

A Deserved Tribute.

For some years past our fellow citizen, Rev. W. J. W. Crowder, has from time to time visited the work and poor houses of Wake county for the purpose of religious instruction to the inmates. These visits have been made by Mr. Crowder at his personal expense in the matter of buggy hire, &c. These facts have been known to the board of county commissioners, but at no time has Mr. Crowder made any appeal or even suggestion for remuneration. Yesterday the board of county commissioners very generously ordered a warrant to be drawn on the county treasurer for $50 in favor of Mr. Crowder, and the same has been sent to him. This is a well deserved tribute to a most worthy man.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. D. T. Johnson is very sick at her residence on Hillsboro street.

Mr. F. B. Arendell, of Salisbury, is in the city looking happy.

Mr. R. Percy Gray, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer, of Henderson, is in the city.

Dr. J. W. Vick, of Selma, is in the city.

Mr. W. T. Hughes, of Louisburg, is at the Yarboro.

Maj. W. A. Lea, of Durham, is stopping at the Yarboro.

Legislative Notes.

The resolution offered by Dr. Stancill, which passed the House of Representatives yesterday tendering thanks to Col. W. L. Saunders for services rendered in editing the Colonial Records, was but a graceful and deserving compliment. Col. Saunders had added a bright epoch to the History of North Carolina, which will commemorate his name to the rising generation. Long life and complete happiness to him.

While the debate on the Soldiers' Home appropriation in the Senate yesterday, was animated, yet it was pleasant to note that everything passed off in the best humor. There was of course, some difference of opinion on the method for carrying out the provisions of the bill, but none whatever on the main object in view. All agreed that the small appropriation asked for should be made. It was a noble act, and voiced the sentiments of all true lovers of North Carolina.

Want of patriotism is not a characteristic of the present General Assembly. Judge Schenck, of Greensboro, who has done so much in aid of the Guilford Battle Ground Association, has been in the city, for several days, urging the passage of a bill for the small appropriation of $20, to place the remains of Gen. Jethro Sumner, in the field of the battle of Guilford Court House. The measure promptly passed the House of Representatives yesterday.

IN SIGHT.

The Committee Report $8,500 for the Immigration Bureau.

There was another meeting of citizens at the Mayor's Office last night called for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed to solicit subscriptions in aid of the scheme to obtain the location of the Southern Immigration Bureau in Raleigh. Maj. R. S. Tucker was chairman. Mr. J. N. Holding, on the part of the committee, reported that the sum of $8,500 had been subscribed mainly by the principal business men of the city, and he thought that the remaining $1,500 could easily be obtained by energetic exertion on the part of the canvassers.

A committee consisting of Messrs R. H. Battle and W. W. Upchurch were appointed as a committee to solicit aid from the city banks.

The collecting committees met at the Yarboro House this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and a meeting will be held at the Court House tonight at 8 o'clock. All interested are invited to attend.

Attention!

Ruth Lodge, No. 4, Daughters of Rebekah, I. O. O. F. are hereby notified that our meeting night has been changed from the 1st and 3d Monday, to the 1st and 3d Friday nights in each month, and that next Friday night (Feb. 6th) will be our regular meeting, at which we most earnestly request your presence.

Attention Sir Knights.

The Yancey & Stronach Parade.

Fayetteville street was enlivened to day by the passing of Stronach the indomitable auctioneer, with his drum corps, with his cavalry for sale. The kettle drum and red blanket always attracts the crowd, even the printer stops sticking type to look at the passing caravan.

A Building for the Use of Legislative Committees.

Correspondence of the VISITOR.

Your article in yesterday's paper suggested the right idea. The State should have ample room for their legislative committees to do their work. In Colonial days when not much legislation was necessary and the number of lobbyists so numerous, the committees could meet and transact their work in the legislative halls, but now with the multitudinous bills to consider they should have a room where they can meet and consider measures for the good of the State without being subjected to all manner of interruptions from outsiders. I do not second your notion to erect a building on the capitol square. There is ample room in rear of the Agricultural and Supreme Court buildings where a building of sufficient dimension can be erected that will give necessary room for all the committees to have a regular place of meeting. At every session of the Legislature, after the committees are appointed, they have to skirmish around to find a room in which to hold their meetings. This should not be so. It is hoped that some member will read this article and then introduce a bill looking to that end. The Supreme Court and Library building was erected at a very small cost, (about $10,000) and a building necessary for the purposes named might be erected for about half that sum. It is hoped that you will keep agitating this matter until steps are taken for the building. XXX.

We continue to offer a large line of ladies' and childrens' wraps in as good styles as has been shown this season, and the prices we have put them at will allow you to buy now, even if you use the garment but little before next winter. It is needless for us to add that we are opening up new spring goods in several of our departments, and those most likely to attract your attention right now, are the new styles in gingham, Satteens, etc.

That Pretty Foot of Yours

should be incased in a nice fitting shoe. The matter of shoes is quite an item in the affairs of every family. Now we would like to sell you one pair of shoes if you have never bought of us, and I am sure you will be well pleased with what you get. If you get a pair of shoes from us and pay as much for them as you are in the habit of paying, you will get a shoe that will last you twice as long as those do which you have been buying. Now we will say to you without the fear of contradiction that there is no store in this city that carries a larger or nicer stock of shoes than is kept at Swindell's. We make a specialty of L. M. Reynolds' fine shoes for men. Reynolds' shoes are three kinds, only $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00, and we think all men who know anything of the makers of fine foot wear know what Reynold's shoes are. This make of shoe is superior to any shoe made for the same price. In ladies' fine and medium shoes in any style we can surprise you and warrant the shoes. D. T. SWINDELL.
