NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight.

The Harry Lindley Company scored another success last night. They play Hazel Kirke tonight.

The Governor this morning appointed Thos. M. Dobbin a Commissioner of Deeds for the state of Maryland.

Mr. Jos. Crowder the champion of the State Guard, won the medal at the Governor's Guard drill last night. Joe is a good one.

There will be an entertainment at St. Mary's tonight, complimentary to the members of the General Assembly. It will no doubt be an enjoyable occasion.

All men are most cordially invited to attend the Young Men's Prayer meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock, which will be held in the rear basement of Edenton St. M. E. Church.

A female was bound over by the Mayor this morning for an assault on her husband with a deadly weapon. She fired three shots at him, and in return got a good choking for her trouble.

Prof. Nye, the well known optician, will again be in Raleigh for one day at the Yarboro House, Saturday, Feb. 7th. Will visit Henderson, N. C., Monday, Feb. 9th.

The new evening daily newspaper, "The Evening Capital," which has been announced by the press as an additional publication for Raleigh, appeared yesterday evening. It presents a neat attractive appearance and is well gotten up.

Another Bank.

Raleigh is to have another bank under the title of the Merchants and Farmers Bank. The following are the incorporators: Ex Judge Fred Phillips, J. N. Holing, B. S. Jerman H. W. Jackson, A. F. Page, R. B. Rainey and Alf. A. Thompson.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Jno. Gatling took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Christ Church and was numerously attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Dr. V. E. Turner, Dr. P. E. Hines, Messrs. T. H. Briggs, A. Syme, F. H. Busbee, Wm. Boylan, J. A. W. Haywood, S. A. Ashe.

Personal Mention.

Mr. H. G. Stegal, of Philadelphia, is in the city.

Mr. W. C. Erwin, of Morganton, is registered at the Yarboro.

Mr. Lec. Froman, of Wilmington, is stopping at the Yarboro.

Messrs. J. S. Meadows and W. T. Hu, of Louisa, are looking over the city.

Rev. J. F. Butt will leave today to start a large camp meeting at Grifton near Kinston, N. C.

Mr. C. G. Latta, one of our foremost business men, is, we are sorry to learn, confined to his home with sickness.

Bursted His Suspenders

The latest thing we have been able to get at a sacrifice is a lot of men's suspenders, and a dandy it is; just the same goods you have been paying 25 cents or more for and we have placed the entire lot on sale at the ridiculously low price—10 cents per pair. These suspenders are on exhibition hanging across the front part of our store so as to be seen just as you enter our store, and are labeled 10c per pair. Do not fail to get a pair of these suspenders at 10c.

Those white shirts are still on sale at 60c for men's sizes; 50c for boy's sizes. We will continue this sale during this week at SWINDELL'S.

Legislative Notes.

The remarks of Senator Lucas, yesterday in asking to have his name recorded in favor of the Soldiers' Home bill, were beautiful and touching. It was a noble tribute, and there were many moist eyes, among those who heard it.

The health of the members seems to have somewhat improved, and there are fewer empty seats than during last week.

The discussion on the proposed amendment to the constitution, electing solicitors by a vote of the people of the State generally, caused a wide discussion yesterday, which seemed to run into strict political lines. The spat was principally between Senators Turner and Aycock, Democrats, and Senator Waiser, Republican. Good humor prevailed, generally, with but a rifle of temper.

The outlook now is that the merchants purchase tax will be repealed or modified. It seems probable that a license tax of from $1 to $4 will be substituted.

One of the most important matters to be considered before the present General Assembly, is that of the extension of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, which is now under serious discussion by the committee to whom it has been referred. That an extension of the line will prove of advantage to the State's interest in the road, is conceded. There are three routes proposed, one to Charlotte, one to Sanford and another direct to the Tennessee line. Mr. J. E. Robinson, the State proxy, and Mr. W. S. Chadwick, president of the road, have been in consultation over the matter. It will come before the Legislature at an early day.

Slashed by Sam Jones.

Last November Rev. Sam P. Jones conducted a series of meetings at Palestine Texas. He paid his usual respects to Lukewarm church members, easy-going preachers, tattling women and gossiping men. All of these took their doses with a seeming meek recognition of the truthfulness in the harsh epithets; but when he touched the tongs, there was blood in the air.

The reverend gentleman arraigned the laxness in the enforcement of the laws and the faithlessness of public officers. The men who sold liquor as well as those who drank it were roundly denounced, and the mayor of Palestine along with other officers of the law came in for his share, though absent from the city at the time. Mr. Jones was at Palestine again on Tuesday last, and while bidding adieu to some friends as he was about to take the train for La Grange, the Mayor Hon. John J. Word advanced toward Mr. Jones and began caning him; they grappled a moment, and when they released each other, Jones had the cane which he proceeded to use in good Georgia style upon the head and face of his antagonist. The latter awoke to the fact that the tables had turned. "I always did despise a coward," said Jones as he turned away from the thoroughly chastised Mayor.

He dictated a telegram to some friends in Georgia, which read: "The one-gallus mayor of Palestine tried to cane your Uncle Jones this morning at the depot. I wrenched the cane from him and wore him out. I am a little disfigured, but still in the ring. I criticised his official career last November. It needed criticising."

THE PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

Though Mr. Jones left immediately for La Grange, the sensation remained behind him. The people were indignant that the mayor of the town should be guilty of such an act, and a meeting was at once called for tonight to take action. The principal mover in the meeting said it would demand the resignation of Mayor Word and his brother officials. He says—though the friends of Mayor Word deny it—that the mayor at tempted to draw a revolver on Mr. Jones. Word says that he carries a revolver, as a public officer, but that he did not attempt to use it. Both combatants bled profusely.—Durham Sun

SETTLED.

The Full Amount Necessary for the Great Southern Exposition Raised.

A meeting of the citizens of Raleigh was held last night, called for the purpose of hearing a further report from the soliciting committee for the establishment of the Southern Immigration Bureau and ensuring the Exposition in our city.

The meeting was called to order by Maj. Tucker and Mr. Holding. The chairman of the committee submitted a report showing that the full amount of $10,000 had been secured, with the exception of about $300. Upon this announcement, Messrs. Matthews, O'Kelly and Hamlin, colored, volunteered to raise one sixth of the balance, provided the committee would pledge the balance. This proposition was accepted. It can be said to the credit of the colored people of Raleigh that their efforts have been nobly exerted, they having raised, thus far, about $770.

After a few well timed remarks by Maj. Tucker, the meeting adjourned. We congratulate our people upon the bright outlook before us. Our duty has been performed and it should confidently be expected that the object in view has been achieved.

Another Collision.

It is reported that Messrs. Josephus Daniels and Capt. S. A. Ashe came to blows in the capitol about 10 o'clock this morning. It seems that they met on the lower floor of the building each having a cane. They were tussling when separated by Senator Ardrey and Mr. Cooper.

We, like all right minded citizens, regret the occurrence of these unpleasant meetings between these gentlemen. They should remember that the results of such collisions prove nothing except that one got the advantage in that particular conflict.

The case came before Mayor Thompson this afternoon at 4 o'clock for investigation, but the lateness of the hour prevents us from giving the details elicited on the examination of witnesses.

Sidney Moring Dunn.

Whereas, since the last meeting of this board the Register of Deeds, ex-officio clerk of this body, has been called from his official duties by death—duties which he had well performed, and which reflected credit upon the county and her people; therefore, be it.

Resolved by this board, that in the death of Sidney Moring Dunn, Wake county loses an upright, efficient and courteous officer, humanity a friend, and this community a citizen who possessed all the noble characteristics of a good man, whose kindness of heart, integrity of character, and honesty of purpose endeared him to all.

Resolved, That in expression of regret this board desires to place in an enduring form their evidence of that regret, it is ordered that the notice of Mr. Dunn's death, together with these resolutions, be spread upon the minutes of this board, and the clerk is directed to assure the family of the deceased of its deep sympathy with them in their bereavement, and that the city papers be requested to publish the action of the board.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect for our late clerk, it is ordered that a memorial page of the minute docket be dedicated to his memory.

For Committee.

Very finest apples, 50 and 60 peck, at W. S. Uzzle's, 12 E. Hargett street.

Fine Hotels.

Throughout the South the demand for elegance in hotel structure and appointments is on the increase. The great hotel which Millionaire Plan has just built at St. Augustine, Fla., will have telephone communication with the main office and also with each room. The telephone will be used instead of the electric button so that guests will not only be able to communicate with the office and their friends in other rooms, but the great orchestra which was one of the marvels at the Paris exposition, is to be played in the large music room of the hotel, and any guest can by merely telephoning to the office be connected with the orchestra and have the music transmitted to him in full volume. In fact, he can put in actual practice one of the most wonderful of Bellamy's conceptions, and every night, if he likes, go to sleep listening to the most enrapturing music.
