NO. 111

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Where is that new bridge for Hillsboro street? Echo answer: "Where?" Oh, for more sunshine, and the new Union Depot.

Fashionable marriage at Christ Church tonight at 8 o'clock.

Another batch of offenders was cared for by the Mayor this morning.

Don't forget the Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight at the Mayors office.

The Governor this morning issued a requisition on the Governor of Tennessee, for Thos. Littrell an escaped convict.

A gift social, is to be held tonight at Swain Street Mission. Everybody invited; a gift for all. The Rev. M. A. Adams will be with us; a rich treat for all.

An entertainment complimentary to the members of the General Assembly will be given at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind next Thursday night.

The reception given last night by Governor Fowle and his accomplished daughter Miss Helen, at the executive mansion, complimentary to C. M. Busbee, Esq., and his bride, was a most enjoyable occasion. A large crowd was in attendance, and everything passed off in the happiest style.

Mrs. Hunt, of Washington, D. C., will be here this week to appear before the committee on education in behalf of the proposition to introduce special instruction in physiology and hygiene. It is thought that she will be invited to address the General Assembly as a body.

The tobacco warehouses seem to be doing a thriving business; large breaks every day. The farmers will carry their tobacco where they can get fancy prices; that accounts for the crowded warehouses in this city. Farmers bring your tobacco to Raleigh.

Manteo Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F., meets in regular session tonight at 7 o'clock. Work in the second degree. Candidates will please be on hand at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Visiting Odd Fellows in the city should not miss this opportunity of seeing this degree rendered as specially dramatized for this Lodge.

GEO. L. TONNOFFSKI, Recsec.

Mr. James Boylan passed up Fayetteville street this afternoon having in his train a pack of hounds and a large sized fox, the result no doubt of a most exciting hunt. "Jimmie" was blowing his horn hugely in honor of his victory. There is no sport more exciting than a fox chase, and "Jimmie" comes to it by inheritance. Much luck to him in this, and all other respects.

A Splendid Selection.

The Ladies Memorial Association of New Berne have extended an invitation to Hon. G. W. Sanderlin, to deliver the annual address on the 10th of May next. This is an admirable selection, and the citizens of New Berne can expect a rare treat.

A Paying Enterprise.

Raleigh should build a large furniture factory. Come together gentlemen and lets have one, 'twill give employment to a large number of people as well as being a paying investment. The one already located here can't begin to keep up with orders. What say you gentlemen of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sculptor James E. Kelly has just completed a bronze figure of Columbia calling her sons to arms. It is 17 feet high and costs $17,000. It is to adorn the soldiers monument at Troy, N. Y.

Legislative Notes.

The health of the members of both Houses seems to have much improved during the last few days. The coughing and sneezing process has about ceased.

The act to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh was introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Greene. Printed copies were laid on the desks of members.

An application has been made for a charter to build the Oxford and Coast Line railroad. It will run from Oxford to Springhope. (This looks like a bid for the Albemarle and Raleigh railroad to give this city the go by.)

The committee having the matter in charge, have unanimously reported in favor of a Geological Survey. This is a step in the right direction and will add much towards placing the resources of North Carolina before the world at large. The bill is pending in the Senate and proposes to expend $10,000 annually.

Personal Mention.

Col. Walter L. Steele, of Richmond county, is in the city.

Ex-Senator P. H. Winston, of Bertie, is in the city.

At the Moseley House: B. B. Pullen, M. V. Perry and T. W. Hawkins, of Smithfield.

Squir M. A. Angier, of Durham, is stopping at the Moseley House.

Mr. Frank O Landis, of Richmond is in the city.

Mr. Wm. L. Austio, of Philadelphia, is registered at the Yarboro.

Mr. Hugh B. Scott, of Reidsville, N. C., is in the city.

Mr. H. E. Fries, of Salem, is in the city, shaking hands with his numerous friends.

Mr. C. M. Corpening, of Marion, N. C., is stopping at the Yarboro.

Prof. John F. Crowell, of Trinity College, is in the city.

Mr. J. E. Robinson, of the Goldsboro Argus, is in the city.

Mrs. M. J. Allen has returned to Raleigh, and will make her future home with her sister, Mrs. Alvin Betts, North Person street.

M. Hedrick, Representative from Davidson, went up to Hillsboro and spent Sunday with friends.

Did you know that the curtains, chairs and tables that we are now making a special sale of, is a most desirable line of goods that we intend to sell before the new stock arrives. Of course some of the curtains are better styles than others, but no matter which pair you buy, they will be much below value. A few of the chairs, and very few at that, are slightly store worn, but you would scarcely notice that except from the low prices they are offered at.

Over One Million Negroes.

The Ledger of Atlantic says: "Over one million negroes are now being educated in the public schools of the South. Georgia herself proposes to devote one half a million dollars this year to the experiment. She proposes to pay out of her treasury more for the education of the negroes than the whole machinery of the State Government costs beside."

A cablegram received on the 7th by Jesse Seligman from Baron Hirsch, the rich philanthropist, of Paris, authorizing Mr. Seligman to draw upon him for $3,500,000 for the benefit of the unfortunate Hebrew immigrants of America, was welcome intelligence to the thousands of that persecuted race who are struggling for an existence in this country. For the past year Baron Hirsch has sent monthly to Messrs. Seligman, Isaacs and Solomon, the president, treasurer and secretary of the Hirsch fund $10,000 to be invested for the benefit of poor, deserving Hebrews.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

The Keystone Egg Beater is a success and is sold by Hughes.

The Largest Fool and the Biggest Bargain.

Both of these things arrived at our store today—the fool just a little in rear of the big bargain. A gentleman walked into our store late Saturday—about night. Said he: "I have a case of men's socks made at the Oxford knitting mills. I have these goods stored at Crowder & Rand's." Asked me to go and look at the socks and make my own price. I went, I saw, I conquered (bought), and today we have these socks on sale at a sacrifice price—8c per pair. They are seamless and solid, a little imperfection in the knitting, otherwise as good as any 15c goods.

The big fool came this morning. He bought pearl buttons of us at 10c per dozen. In a few moments he came back, stating he could buy pearl buttons at 5c per dozen, and pearl buttons are pearl buttons. When told by our bouncer that pearl buttons ranged in price from 2c to $1.75 per dozen. Said he: "I don't care a d—n. I will never buy anything else from this store." This peacock went off shaking his head as much as to say: "You will have to quit business now; you have lost my trade," when we all began to weep and sell socks at 8c, at D. T. SWINDELL'S.

Buy the New Home Sewing Machines; old machines taken in exchange. W. S. Uzzle 12 E. Hargett.

CURTAINS.

We are just through taking our inventory and find in the furniture and curtain department several lines of goods that we wish sold.

These we have taken from the usual place, (upstairs) and now show them on our first floor, near Fayetteville street entrance. In the lot will be found Tureoman and Chenille Curtains, odd pieces of Furniture for parlor, hall and sitting rooms.
