LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, FEBRUARY 12, 1891.

THE 6 PER CENT. INTEREST BILL

Somebody wants to borrow money at 6 per cent. or less, and hence he asks for the law. Now suppose the law is past, so that no man dare to loan his dollars at more than 6 per cent.; cannot the owner carry his money to a better market? Yes; will he not do it? The millions in the past forty years that have been flowing to the great west and that have so developed it, were attracted there by the high rate of interest obtainable, and driven from the older States by the low rate established by laws. There are two sides to every question, and the other side to this question is, that money will be driven to other parts. Six per cent. is as much as any man can ordinarily afford to pay, that is true, but any law limiting the rate to what is generally regarded as reasonable, will drive money elsewhere for investment. Just at this time when northern capital is disposed; to flow south, any such law will be damaging. Don't bite your nose to spite your face.

All Sorts.

An old gentleman was robbed of $1.000 recently in Chicago while pass ing through the Washington tunnel on a street car.

Nellie Burdock, cook at the Waverley restaurant, New Haven, Conn., was suffocated by a slight fire which broke out in her room.

A HORRIBLE DEATH.

Burnard A.Stuckenberg Dragged to Death Near San Antonio.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Feb. 11.-Beruard A. Stuckenberg, who lives nine miles east of this city, met a horrible death while returning home last night. After leaving the city Stuckenberg whipped up his horses and in some unaccountable way fell over the dash board and was dragged for over a mile, his head and shoulders being reduced to a mass of raw flesh.

Women Employed by Uncle

Sam. When Gen. Spinner became Treas urer of the United States, a quarter of a century ago, Uncle Sam employ ed no women, except as charwomen or room cleaners. "This is not right," said Spinner. "This is work a woman can do as well as a man. The women shall have a chance." Gen. Spinner opened the doors, and now see the result. Uncle Sam employs in Washington five thousand women, or one-third of his entire force. The women make just as good clerks as the men, and some observ ers say a little better. They waste less time in talking politics or reading newspapers, do not go out in the corridor to smoke during business hours, and in summer do not ask to get off thirty minutes before time in order to attend the base ball games. To this day Gen. Spinaer is the hero, the idol, the patron saint of the "department girl." While he lived they helped to make life pleasant for him. They loaded him with presents on holidays and birthdays. They surrounded him with their love and adoration. Every summer they took him to a picnic, all in his honor, and carried to him the best fish, the choicest flowers and wreathed garlands for his brow. Those were happy days for General Spinner, and it is not surprising that he said, a short time before his death, that the act of his which he was proudest of, which gave him most satisfaction, was opening the doors of government emplyment to women.
