NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Jack the dog, grabber will soon be abroad in the land.

The mayor this morning sent several parties to board at the hotel de Page until March term of court.

Rip Van Winkle next Thursday night; they will bring an elegant band.

Mr. John P. Beck this morning qualified as executor of the late Wesley Keith.

We understand that the new street railway is to be extended to the National Cemetery.

Jas. S. King, of San Francisco, has been appointed a Commissioner of Deeds for N. C.

One more pair made happy this morning. A marriage license and a magistrate did the work. They were slightly colored; in fact, they were very highly colored.

All men are cordially invited to attend the Young Men's Prayer meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock which will be held in the Bible class rooms of Edenton St M E Church.

The Loan of a Lover, and a fair Rebel, at Metropolitan Hall tonight. Give them a crowded house, and you will not regret going; it is a splendid troupe.

Steps are being taken to widen North Salisbury Street. This will be a great improvement. There is scarcely room for two vehicles to pass.

Mrs. C. H. Lambeth, we are informed is thought to be something better to day. She has been quite sick for some time and we trust may prove really better.

Sheriff T. P. Wilcox, of Pasquotank county, settled with the State Treasurer this morning, paying in $4,727.92. Sheriff, H. McEachern of Robeson county paid in $10,763.29.

The exhibition at the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind tonight is open to all citizens as well as the members of the Legislature. It will be an interesting occasion, and we hope there will be a large attendance.

London.

The lecture delivered last night at the Baptist Tabernacle, by Rev. J. J. Hall was a treat rarely given in our city. Dr. Hall portrayed in the most life like manner all the great localities in the metropolis of the world to the intense delight of his hearers. One could really imagine himself over the water in the British Capital as he followed the lecturer in his vivid descriptions. A long residence in London has rendered Dr. Hall perfectly familiar with all phases of life in the great city. Last night was an inimitable one, and a great many persons who earnestly desired to hear the lecture could not attend. We hope it may be repeated.

Blood In His Eyes.

A man by the name of Neville who lives on north Salisbury street, imbibed too freely yesterday in mountain dew and got blood in his eye. He went home searched for and found his trusty four barreled revolver. He wanted to fight. It occurred to him that there was a man up stairs sick with measles, by the name of Ed. Moore. He forthwith went for Moore with the said four barreled revolver, Moore was dragged from bed and backed up in a corner, and the said revolver poked into his face, when Moore knocked up Neville's hand and said revolver was discharged, tearing off the plastering from the ceiling. Moore forthwith wrenched said revolver from Neville and proceeded to take his scalp, using said revolver as a club. Neville is in that hole under the market house which is used for a station house.

Died.

In Panther Branch Township, yesterday between 12 and 1 o'clock, Mr. Isaac B. Myatt, of dropsey, aged 73 years. He was a good citizen and much esteemed by his neighbors and friends. Mr. Myatt was a brother of our much esteemed friend John Myatt of this city.

East Lynne.

This popular play was presented by The Mile Arne Company last night at Metropolitan Hall as never seen in Raleigh before. Mile Arne, a young, pretty and talented little actress appeared as Lady Isabel and Madam Vines, in which character she was faultless, all the other parts being well rendered by the other members of the company, and altogether, it was an excellent rendition of this popular play. Tonight they will present two roaring farce comedies, entitled "Loan of a Lover" and "The Fair Rebel" and the lovers of fun should not miss it. Reserved seats at Mac Rae's Drug Store without any extra charge.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. J. A. Jones on Hillsboro street is quite sick, also two of her children.

At the Yarboro: Messrs. W. H. Miller, of Balto; W. O. Knight, of Richmond; E. W. Timberlake, of Louisville; A. C. Miley, of Norfolk; G. M. Harden, of Durham; A. R. Lyons, R. M. Dillard, of New York; A. C. Jones, of Philadelphia.

Hon. H. A. London, of the Chatham Record, is in the city looking hale and hearty.

Mr. A. S. Davis, of Oxford, is in the city.

A. Horn, Esq., is looking in on the Legislature.

Mr. W. D. McIver, of Troy, N. C., is looking over the city.

Mr. W. C. Glover, of Elizabeth City, is taking in the city.

J. L. C. Bird, of Marion, is looking over the Legislature.

Mr. John W. Scott, of Sanford, is at the Moseley House.

We are glad to see Mr. Henry M. Cowan on the street again, after a severe attack of grippe.

Late News Items.

Judge Warden, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who killed his son recently, is reported dangerously ill and hopelessly insane.

The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided that barbershops cannot keep open on Sundays, that shaving is not a work of necessity.

The Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. is reported to have received two new locomotives this week; the first the road has received since 1857.

The Wilmington Messenger is to be sold at auction on March 24th. In the announcement it states that over $50,000 has been expended in placing the paper where it is, and that all its machinery, contracts, subscriptions and franchises aggregate in actual inventory $25,000. This is not very encouraging to newspaper advertisers.

Tom Jones' Rabbit Ranch.

Atlanta Journal.

Tom Jones, a worthy colored man, living near the Northeastern depot in Athens, has domesticated a large colony of the old field gray rabbits. Tom has about twenty five breeders, and says that rabbits are raised as easily as chickens. They run at large in the yard, and become as tame as house cats. They increase very fast, and sell readily at ten cents each for pets or cooking purposes. There are always orders ahead for them. They grow very fast, and from one pair he can raise more rabbits in a year than the best hen will raise chickens.

Mrs. Henry and four children were burned to death in the Henry residence on the Delmonico Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., Wednesday and two others fatally injured.

Raging Waters.

JOHNTOWN HAS ANOTHER FLOOD—LUMBER FLOATING DOWN THE SUSQUEHANNA TO THE CHESAPEAKE.

JOHNTOWN, Pa., Feb. 17th.—The people of the town did not sleep last night; it was an all night watch of the encroaching waters.

A large portion of the town is now under water, and communication with separated points of Johnstown is very difficult. The water in the threatening streams is 17 feet high and still rising amid a pouring rain.

The railroad companies contrived to battle with the encroaching waters yesterday, but today, the flood has become too much for them. A portion of the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad at Conemaugh have been swept away, and washouts are also reported at Bellwood and Tipton.

The waters in the South Fork and Conemaugh creeks are higher than they have been at any time since the great flood, and though the cheering news was given out early this morning that they had fallen 17 inches they are again on the rise.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Feb. 17th.—For 48 hours warm rains have fallen, and though the river is but four feet lower than the memorable flood of June 1, 1889, in many respects the damage caused by the flood will exceed that of two years ago. That flood caused great loss by carrying away nearly all the bridges, but then our lumbermen had marketed all their lumber and none was left on the banks of the streams to be carried away. The flood of today found all the timber and logs in the county piled upon the river bank ready to be rafted.

As early as midnight last night thousands of dollars' worth of timber and logs broke away and went down the river. All day the river has been filled with lumber. No boom has yet been hung at either Lock Haven or Williamsport, and this timber cannot be secured before it reaches the Chesapeake Bay. This flood will badly cripple many of our lumbermen, as they have invested all their money in the products of their winter's work. Many of our citizens have moved out of their houses and are preparing for higher water.

Free Railroad Passes for 1891.

We will give to any person who wants one a free pass over any of the roads leading to Raleigh, good for 90 days only. These passes are not transferable to your relations, but will pass the holder free of cost provided he walks and carries all his luggage, counts all the ties on the road, swims all the creeks and when he arrives in Raleigh spends all his money at D. T. Swindell's Dry Goods Emporium, the only place in Raleigh where unusual value is given for your hard earned money. Should you walk far you will need new shoes. These you will find in endless variety. Socks to go with these shoes, 8 cents; pants to go with these shoes, 75 cents; shirts (white) to go with these pants, 60 cents; drawers to go with these shirts, 25 cents; undershirts to go with these drawers, 45 cents neckties to go with these under shirts, 25 cents suspenders to go with these neckties, 10 cents; carpets to go with these suspenders, 25 to 90 cents and a still greater concession made to all itinerants, such as traveling shows, circuses, organ grinders or the Salvation Army.

—AN ADDITION—

LACE CURTAINS

We have added to our special sale of Chenille Curtains, Chairs, and Tables, a line of Lace Curtains. This is also a line that we wish closed out before the new stock arrives.

The success of our special sale of Curtains and Furniture during the past week, was even greater than we expected, and the lot being now replenished with better values in LACE CURTAINS makes this sale doubly interesting.

These Curtains have been taken from the regular department, 2nd floor and are displayed near Fayetteville street entrance, and the prices all marked in plain figures.

To secure the best values from this sale purchases should be made at once as the space these goods now occupy belongs to another department, from which new Spring stock will soon be shown.
