NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Does not this weather make you feel like going fishing?

Has anything been done to secure the colored Agricultural College for Raleigh?

There will be another baby show in the capitol grounds this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Quite a number of our citizens have gone to the Newberne Fish and Oyster Exhibition.

A very interesting meeting is in progress at Brooklyn Methodist Church; services each night this week.

The tobacco breaks continue very large and the prices very satisfactory to the farmers. This is as at it should be.

The sunshine of the last two days seems to have put new life into the business men of Raleigh. Everybody to work and keep things moving.

What a treat the sunshine is after so much gloom in the elements. It is like a sense of resting to a tired man. Oh! how nice well, we'll have lots of it next July.

Why pay $25 for a suit, when for two or three dollars you can have your old clothes made new. Go to Harris' Dye Works. Read his advertisement in this issue.

Don't fail to look over the advertisement of Messrs. A. Williams & Co. 'They are worthy and well qualified,' to furnish you with just such books stationery &c., as you need. Try them.

A requisition was issued this morning by his excellency Gov. D. G. Fowle, to the Governor of Virginia for Samuel Har-ton, who is in jail at Danville, Va., for larceny.

The bill appropriating the sum of $15,000 to the Agricultural and Mechanical College, passed its 3rd reading in the Senate last night, all amendments to cut down the appropriation being defeated.

Now that the bad weather is about over, cotton and tobacco are pouring in. We noticed trains of tobacco wagons yesterday that reminded us of a circus procession. They would do credit to Danville. Verily Raleigh do move.

The galleries and lobbies were crowded to overflowing last night. The speech of Senator Williams on the Agricultural and Mechanical College, was a grand effort. The college has a staunch friend in the Senator form Pitt.

A called meeting of the Board of Al men was held last night to consider the question of making an appropriation for securing the location of the proposed new Deaf and Dumb Institution at Raleigh. $5000 was appropriated for this purpose conditioned that it be located in or near the city. A committee of three were appointed to confer with the Legislative committee on the matter.

The funeral services of the late Mr. J. G. Habel took place this afternoon at the Good Shepherd Church at 3 o'clock, Rev. I. McK. Pittinger officiating. The pall bearers were: Capt R T Heflin, Capt Elgir, Messrs D C Royster and Frank Brannon, on the part of the family and those on the part of the Grand Army Post were: Messrs John T Ross, C H Beine, A B Forest and Col A W Shaffer.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F.

Will meet this evening at 7 o'clock in regular session for work in the initiatory degree. Candidates will please be present at 7.30 o'clock, sharp. An improved change in the conferring of this degree makes it desirable for every member of the degree staff to be present. Resident and non resident members of sister lodges earnestly requested to come.

Geo. L. Tonnoffski, Sec'y.

A fearful snow storm has been prevailing northwest for a day or two and the weather is extremely cold.

A marriage will take place at Edenton street Methodist Church tomorrow evening after service.

Don't forget to read the advertisement of Mess. Montgomery & Grimes, which appears in this issue. These two young men are worthy of a full share of the patronage of the city, and we have no doubt it will be accorded them.

The New Berne Fair people propose to have a real fox chase on the grounds this week, by procuring a five fox turning it loose with 100 first class hounds after it. If they had half dozen foxes the thing would last longer.

Mr. J. R. Wyatt can undoubtedly outwash any Chinaman in the State, if not in the United States. Read his advertisement in this issue and give him a trial. But if you don't want washing done, just see what else he has Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. A. G. Rhodes & Co., furniture dealers which appears in this issue. This is a live furniture house and they keep a well selected stock of nice furniture on hand. Go and see them.

Another spelling contest in Lexington, Ky., recently, Charles E. Johnson, a North Carolinian, was allowed to enter, upon conditions that he would not be a contestant for the prize, Charlie accepted the condition, went in, and "trotted over the track" without a blunder; the next to him, took the prize, having misspelled one word. Charlie is the acknowledged champion speller and glories in his nativity.

A Chicago man named Todd has invented a cotton picker, which, it is said, works to perfection. If he can just guarantee it not to run the cotton off at night and sell it, it will be an unqualified success.
