

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXV.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, MARCH 2, 1891.

NO. 128

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Raleigh Weekly Visitor.

The undersigned will, in addition to the DAILY EVENING VISITOR, issue the first number of a Weekly Thursday, March 5th.

THE RALEIGH WEEKLY VISITOR, like the Daily, will be independent in matters of politics and religious denominations. It will not hesitate, however, to assail the wrong wherever found, when there is a reasonable probability of correcting it.

In the publication of the WEEKLY VISITOR, as in the Daily, we shall seek to furnish a journal that will be acceptable in the home circle of the refined. The Weekly will advocate the interest of North Carolina, in whatever department of thought and action such interests may appear; whether in the school, on the farm, at the dairy, in the factory, or down in the mine.

The price, per annum, for a single copy, is 75 cents in advance. In clubs of five copies or more 50 cents per copy in advance. Advertising rates will be furnished on application.

Believing that by issuing the RALEIGH WEEKLY VISITOR as a non-partisan secular newspaper from the capital of the State, we fill a place that needs to be occupied; we respectfully solicit the patronage of a generous public.

Now that Raleigh has the exposition, let's go to work for the big hotel; bound to have it.

Gov. Fowle has appointed J. H. Barnette of Pineville, Mecklenburg county a notary public.

We know a citizen of this city who is 47 years old, yet he has had only 11 bona fide birth-days. How is it? Let the young ladies guess.

Who will be the Railroad Commissioners! This is the all absorbing question just now; there is a very long list to select from.

The Mayors court was a lively place this morning. The usual drunk and down, and drunk and disorderly of Saturday night and Sunday came forward and paid the usual amounts.

This is a hustling week in Legislative circles. There is much to do, and a little time left in which to perform it. Some of the most important measures of the session are yet to be acted on, prominent among which is the revenue bill.

Affairs are again disturbed in Rio de Janeiro and President de Fonseca and the government are at variance. Troops are held in the barracks to suppress any outbreak, and no vessels are allowed to leave the harbor after 10 o'clock at night.

Funeral of Mrs. Helen McDowell.

The funeral of Mrs. Helen McDowell took place from Central Methodist church at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The congregation was very large and Dr. Nash preached a very excellent sermon.

Our Roads

We hope the Legislature will not adjourn without passing some better laws than those now on our statute books concerning the public roads of the State. As the matter now stands the law is little better than a farce as the condition of our thoroughfares shows. Let us have a change of some sort; we cannot be worsted in any event.

Police Report.

We are indebted to Maj. Chas. D. Heartt for the following list of arrests for the month of February:

Affray 9; assault and battery 5; assault with deadly weapon 1; disorderly conduct 14; drunk and disorderly 10; drunk and down 6; drunk in market 1; drunk on street 10; failure to pay tax 33; fast driving 3; disorderly house 4; larceny 1; passing counterfeit money 1; violating city ordinances 4; f. and a. 2. Total 104. White 43; colored 62.

The following are the deaths: White 9; colored 7. Total 16.

Why Not Improve It?

Something should be done to prevent people from walking over the graves in the old cemetery. There are numerous paths directly over the graves. In fact it is a hard matter to tell where there is a grave. Mr. Seth Jones, the sexton, doubtless does the best he can under the circumstances. It is some one's duty to see that it is put in proper condition. If some member of the Board of Aldermen will make a move on this line he will gain the good wishes of a big majority of the citizens of Raleigh.

Funeral of Mr. J. D. Lee.

The funeral of the above named gentleman took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Baptist Tabernacle, the very impressive services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall. The large crowd following the remains to the grave showed the popularity of "Dunn," as he was familiarly called. The Raleigh Typographical Union turned out in large numbers. The following were the pall bearers: W. C. Uzzle, F. H. Reaves, C. G. Koonce, D. H. Andrews, E. B. Freeman, E. W. Wishart.

Personal Mention.

Mr. J. M. Brady, of Bingham School is in the city.

Prof. E. A. Alderman, of Goldsboro spent yesterday in the city.

Messrs. P. B. Ruffin and Jno. W. Graham, of Hillsboro, are in the city.

Col. Paul B. Meanes, of Concord, was registered at the Yarboro this morning.

Dr. O. L. Murphy and S. McD. Tate Esq., of Morganton, are looking in on the Legislature.

Mr. J. S. Manning, of Durham, and Hon. John Manning, of Chapel Hill, were at the Yarboro yesterday.

We were glad to meet Mr. H. E. Leeman, the book and job printer, of Durham in the city yesterday.

Mr. H. H. Crocker left today for New York and other northern cities on business.

Senator Morgan's wife returned home this morning.

Maj. W. H. Martin has three children sick with measles.

Collector E. A. White returned Saturday from a week's business trip to Eastern Carolina.

Rescue Fire Company.

The above company will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock. It is important that every member should be present.

Our Churches Yesterday

CENTRAL M. E. CHURCH.
At Central M. E. Church yesterday morning Dr. Nash preached the funeral of Mrs. Helen McDowell. The church was crowded.

At night the services were interesting and largely attended. The communion was administered at night.

BROOKLYN M. E. CHURCH.

At Brooklyn M. E. church, the pastor, Rev. C. O. DuRant, preached at 11 a. m. a good congregation. Sunday school was well attended at 3 p. m. Rev. J. A. Cunniggin, D. D., the Presiding Elder, preached at night and administered the communion. Both services were enjoyed by large and appreciative congregations.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Rev. J. L. Foster delivered two very strong and instructive sermons yesterday morning and evening at the Christian church to very appreciative congregations. His evening sermon deserves special mention. The subject was "Hard Hearted, Faint Hearted; Half Hearted, True Hearted." Text found in the parable of the sower.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Carter's sermon was on the seventh commandment: "Thou shalt not commit adultery." He handled this delicate subject in an able manner, using strong, forcible, meaning and inoffensive language, condemning this sin as one so often committed and more mildly treated than most other sins—generally being a double sin and often in copartnership with murder. He dwelt upon polygamy, the law of divorce, licentious conversation, imprudence of conduct, impure thoughts, etc. After the sermon the Lord's supper was partaken of. Singing good, congregation large.

At the evening service he took his text from the book of Acts 3:6, giving a glowing account of the temple called "Beautiful," and the healing of the man who had been lame from birth; also, giving encouraging words to christians and showing that it was in the power of all to do something for Christ.

To Begin Work in Earnest.

Work will begin next week on the Southern Inter-state Exposition at the fair grounds. The present buildings will be repaired and fitted up and exhibits will begin to arrive as soon as the electric car line is extended to the grounds. The Exposition will be held next October and November, but the collecting of non perishable specimens will be pushed forward as rapidly as practicable from this time on, and the offices of the clerks &c., of the Exposition will be moved to the fair grounds as soon as the street car line begins to run to that point.

Mr. Jno. T. Patrick leaves in a day or two for Florida for the purpose of a conference with the commissioners of Immigration of that State and from there will probably go to other states. The establishing of this Southern Inter-states Immigration Bureau is not only a good thing for Raleigh but a grand thing for the State of North Carolina. It will give the State greatly the advantage over other States in securing the location of men and capital from the great north and west. It will be greatly to North Carolina's advantage to appoint a State Immigration Commissioner in full harmony with the Inter-states work and its advance methods.

The McGibney Family will appear here on the night of the 10th, for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. The following is what the Marshalltown (Ia.) Times Republican says of them: A magnificent audience in character and numbers greeted the McGibney Family last evening. The house was literally packed with our very best people, and many were turned away. Of the entertainment given too much cannot be said. Every member of the family is an artist, from the oldest to the youngest.
