

The Daily Evening Visitor.

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON, [Except Sunday.] THE VISITOR is served by carriers in the city at 25 cents per month, payable to the carriers in advance.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Raleigh Weekly Visitor.

The undersigned will, in addition to the DAILY EVENING VISITOR, issue the first number of a Weekly Thursday, March 5th.

THE RALEIGH WEEKLY VISITOR, like the Daily, will be independent in matters of politics and religious denominations. It will not hesitate, however, to assail the wrong wherever found, when there is a reasonable probability of correcting it.

In the publication of the WEEKLY VISITOR, as in the Daily, we shall seek to furnish a journal that will be acceptable in the home circle of the refined. The Weekly will advocate the interests of North Carolina, in whatever department of thought and action such interests may appear, whether in the school, on the farm, at the dairy, in the factory, or down in the mine.

The price, per annum, for a single copy, is 75 cents in advance. In clubs of five copies or more 50 cents per copy in advance. Advertising rates will be furnished on application.

Believing that by issuing the RALEIGH WEEKLY VISITOR as a non-partisan secular newspaper from the capital of the State, we fill a place that needs to be occupied; we respectfully solicit the patronage of a generous public.

BROWN & WILLIAMS, Owners and Publishers.

Local notices in this paper will be Five Cents per line each insertion.

MADE A MISTAKE.

The Senate evidently made a mistake yesterday in driving the people out of the lobbies and galleries of the Senate chamber. The action is without a precedent. When any great and grave question is being considered, and the public good demands that it be not discussed publicly, secret sessions of such bodies are sometimes held, but in this case only a portion of the spectators were objectionable while the others were quiet and dignified, yet they must be rudely ejected from the building and thereby be accused, tried and convicted of an offence with which they had no connection and against which they had as much right to protection as the President of the Senate himself.

Just a day or two since an officer of the Senate went whirling through the lobbies throwing his commandatory remarks promiscuously in everybody's face, with an air of as much authority as if commanding convicts. Many of those who were present are refined, dignified gentlemen, incapable of meriting his rude and unbecoming manner. It will not do to condemn by wholesale.

THE DEADLOCK IN ILLINOIS.

The Illinois legislature is having a hard time. They have already cast 142 ballots with 101 for Palmer, the democratic candidate, 98 for Streeter, the Farmer's Mutual Benevolent Association candidate, (Republican) and 5 for Oglesby. They have about reached an agreement by which the defecting republicans will come into measures and Streeter will be elected U. S. Senator.

Seven valuable horses were burned to death in the stables of N. L. Osborn, Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday morning.

A NOBLE ACT.

A Race for a Baby Won by a True Hero who Risks His Life.

New York World.

The fastest train on Long Island is the Sag Harbor express. It tears through all the smaller towns at forty five miles an hour, with never a stop. Pearsalls, just beyond Jamaica, is usually one of these towns, but recently the train slowed up there as suddenly as a train can slow up with a frightened engineer clinging to the throttle. As the train came sweeping down the engineer saw right in the middle of the track a little child waving its arms and smiling cheerily at the onrushing mass. The baby was the son of Henry Powell, proprietor of the Pearsall's House, across the way from the station. He had wandered in between the rails and was delightedly waving to the pretty locomotive that was shrieking out its protest in wild whistling.

George B. Watts, passing near by, heard the whistling and wondered carelessly what it was all about. He glanced down the track and saw the little fellow waving and smiling in the path of the train. There was one bare chance of reaching him before the engine, and the young man took it. He ran as he never ran before. The train was still going at terrific speed in spite of the engineer's efforts and to the onlookers the two seemed to reach the child at the same moment. Watts was the quicker by a shadow, and he caught up the child and rolled out of the way as the train swept by with the engine shrieking a shrill recognition of the heroism that had saved the little one.
