NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Meeting of A. O. U. W., at B. R. Jolly's jewelry store tonight.

Yancey & Stronach's drum corps gave another grand parade today.

Cotton wagons are beginning to roll in. Good middling is bringing $1.

The Chamber of Commerce meets tonight at the Mayors office at 8 o'clock.

The office of the Register of Deeds is being white washed and fixed up generally.

The Mayor gave two parties 12 hours each in the station house today for being drunk on the streets.

For a week or more the electric light at the corner of Person and Polk streets has failed to dispense its luminous rays. Why, wherefore?

A large flock of wild geese passed over the city this morning about 8 o'clock. They came from south easterly direction and were heading north.

Mr. Phil King, whose death is mentioned elsewhere, was a member of the United Workmen, and was insured for $2,000. His is the first death the order has had in the State.

Governor Fowle this morning pardoned W. P. Derhong. He was sent from Goldsboro to the "pen" for ten years for receiving stolen goods. He had served six years.

Rev. R. H. Whitaker is the representative from North Carolina to the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Good Templars, which meets in Edinburgh, Scotland in May next and thinks of going.

Mr. Geo. P. Pell, late reading clerk of the Senate has accepted the position of Associate Editor of the State Chronicle in this city. We welcome him to the "brotherhood" and predict for him a brilliant career.

Read the announcement of Mr. D. S. Waitt in this issue. He is receiving a new and splendid stock of clothing, gents furnishing goods &c., which he is offering to the public on the most reasonable terms. Call at his emporium of fashion No. 305 Fayetteville street and examine the stock.

A newly married couple entered one of our leading business houses the other day and requested to look at a carpet. Several patterns were shown her; finally the gentlemanly clerk, turning toward the groom and pointing to the bride said, "your mother here thinks this one the prettiest." The clerk don't understand yet why the lady turned and walked out so suddenly. You had better not say carpet to that young man unless you want to fight.

The Improvement Club.

Our suggestion about the organization of an Improvement Club met a hearty response, and we feel sure that great good will come of it if Mayor Thompson will pick his men and call them together. The Chamber of Commerce has done very well, but a new organization is needed now. A hotel of modern, broad gauge must be built; the auditorium is a necessity, and an electric railway can be had if only fifty of our leading men will take hold of it.

A Careless Nurse.

Yesterday a girl went into a store on Fayetteville street, leaving a baby sitting in the carriage on the side walk. The carriage began to roll toward the gutter. The nurse made a start for it, but too late. Down came carriage, baby and all. The child was thrown a considerable distance in the street, but by some means was not hurt in the least. The girl, in the scramble, had her nose skinned.

New lot of Corn and Tomatoes at same prices. Uzzle's, 12 East Hargett.

Attention Odd Fellows.

Seaton Gales Lodge No. 61, I. O. O. F. will confer the first degree tomorrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. Candidates will present themselves promptly at that time. Every Odd Fellow cordially invited.

Mass Meeting Tonight.

A meeting of the citizens of Raleigh will be held at the Mayor's office tonight for the purpose of considering matters pertaining to the proposed great Southern Exposition as well as other matters of great interest to our people. Let there be a rousing turn out.

New Volume.

Our contemporary, the Daily State Chronicle, has entered on a new volume and we are pleased to learn it is meeting with gratifying success. It is an able journal and conducted in such a manner as to keep pace with the progressive spirit of the times.

The Direct Taxes.

Precautions have been taken in the act passed by the General Assembly to prevent our people from being imposed upon by agents in the way of excessive charges for commissions, &c. The claims are to be paid, as soon as possible, to the persons entitled to the money, or their legal representatives. This is just as it should be.

Died.

This morning at his residence on Dawson Street, of a congestive chill, Mr. Millard F. King, aged 31. The funeral services will take place tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from Edenton Street M. E. Church and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon. The following are the pall bearers selected: Messrs. E. B. Barbee, Jas. Boylan, W. W. Parish, H. H. Roberts, J. M. Dye and C. D. Arthur.

Morning papers please copy.

Mr. John R. Brown, of Earpsboro, at his home this morning. He was the father of Mr. J. Floyd Brown, of this city.

Chamber of Commerce.

An important meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry will be held tonight. The committee on matters touching the exposition are expected to be present, that necessary action may be taken. Every member of the chamber is urged to be present. Unless the members take active interest the city of Raleigh will suffer loss. There is no time to be lost in getting ready for the coming exposition. Be at your post gentlemen.

The McGibeny Concert Last Night.

The concert last night was a splendid entertainment. We understand the St. John's Hospital fund was increased by about $101.10. Thanks to that noble gentleman, Mr. A. P. Bryan, for securing such an entertainment for the people and such opportune aid to that noble institution at the same time. Friend Bryan, by the way, is particularly gifted along that line. It seems he is frequently, in a quiet way, doing things of the same sort. Such a man in a community is valuable. But in addition to this Mr. Bryan is one of the solid business men of Raleigh. The express company have long since found that out, as indicated by his continued stay with them.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

CHEVLOTS, OUTFIT CLOTHS AND PARCALES.—We have a particularly full line of these goods, both in dress styles and shirting patterns. We also have a new shirting for boys waists &c., it is a heavy printed cotton stuff—in patterns similar to percales, but is much softer and a stronger goods. Mothers will do well to see what we are showing in this department.

AN OLD MATTER TO THE FRONT

Hon Josiah Turner, Jr., Causes Depositions to be Taken to Have a Certain Judgment Satisfied if Possible.

A little ripple in judicial circles was caused here today by the introduction in Justice Barbee's court of proceedings looking to the taking of depositions in a somewhat noted case. It will be remembered that some years since, Hon Josiah Turner Jr., of Orange, caused proceedings to be instituted in the Superior Court of that county against Ex-Gov. W. W. Holden for alleged false arrest, Mr. Turner being charged with participating in the Klu Klux outrages during Gov. Holden's administration. The case was removed to Chatham county where a judgment was rendered in Mr. Turner's favor for $8,000. Execution was ordered to issue, and the matter was placed in the hands of an officer for collection who returned the papers with the endorsement that no property could be found in the defendant's name. The judgment has therefore remained unsatisfied. From some cause, of which we are not informed, Mr. Turner, today, caused certain parties to be examined among them Marshall J. B. Hill, Col. Shaffer, Mr. G. Rosenthal, Judge E. G. Reade, Mr. W. S. Primsrose and others for the purpose of finding out whether or not certain property cannot be levied on to satisfy said judgment.

We have given the matter hurriedly, just as we have been informed. The case was occupying the attention of Justice Barbee at the time we go to press. Fuller proceedings will probably be given hereafter.

The Exposition

We do not like to take the position of an alarmist, but unless something vigorous is done in Raleigh and in Wake County, not only will Raleigh and Wake County suffer loss, but the entire State will be placed at a disadvantage. The exposition is not going to get itself up and take care of itself, but it will require men and money and effort and perseverance and a good deal of time to do what is necessary; and unless somebody takes hold at once and gets the thing started it will not go. Other States are now at work preparing to make a grand exhibit at Raleigh, and a number of towns are vigorously engaged in the same, one in this State (New Berne) we are glad to see is also getting up a fine collection of manufactured fabrics. There is, however, a great deal for Raleigh and Wake County to do beside get up and arrange an exhibit. It will be the duty of the city and county to entertain the thousands and thousands who come. We must feed and lodge them. We must do something vigorous or we will have a shortage of table supplies about that time. Raleigh must make large provisions for entertaining the people who come. The exposition will be the biggest thing that Raleigh has ever dreamed of, and it will be necessary for Wake county to help. The legislature failed to do any thing looking to the settlement of northern people among us, so that the other States through their Immigration Commissioners will be apt to carry all interested in buying lands or establishing manufactories from North Carolina, unless Raleigh and Wake county can supply the deficiency. Let the county make an appropriation, a liberal one, and let the city do likewise, and let there be a man appointed whose business it shall be to see to it that North Carolina be not left.

We have added to our business a nice line of penny cakes.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

A Great Change, and one That will Interest Every Person That Visits Raleigh.

We have made a great change which is a matter of vital importance to every person who visits or lives in Raleigh, at least to every one that wants to save money. This great change is in the shape of a great reduction on certain lines of goods that we have made up our mind to sell at the following prices: We will sell you 3 large white handkerchiefs for 5 cents, a large lot of men's wet undershirts at 20 cents each, worth 40 cents; a big lot of men's white laundry shirts at 60 cents each, also a big lot of men's 4 ply linen collars 5 cents each. This is only a few of the real bargains which are now being offered at

SWINDELL'S.

A Terrific Rain Storm.

CANTON, Miss., March 6.—A most terrific rain and thunder storm prevailed here last night, overflowing creeks, washing away fences and causing considerable damage to low lands. The farming interests in this county are three weeks behind.

The grand jury of Norfolk, Va., is after the Sunday sellers of liquor, and the investigation discloses that the police are not only inefficient in enforcing the law, but are law breakers themselves. Two are under suspension for drunkenness.

A Suggestion.

Correspondence of the Visitor.

The names of a large number of our citizens have been mentioned in connection with the mayoralty of the city. In order that there may be a fair expression of the sentiments of our people in this matter I would suggest that when the primaries are held that every democratic voter of the city be allowed an opportunity to deposit a ballot with the name of his choice for mayor. By this means the people will indicate to the aldermen elect their wishes in the matter, and the aldermen will be relieved of a responsible burden and no offence given to any.

VOTER.

Worth of a Human Life.

LEXINGTON, VA., March 9.—A trial of much interest has been in progress in the Circuit Court here for the last few days—John T. Jarman's administrator against the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for $10,000 damages. Mr. Jarman was a brakeman in the employ of the Chesapeake and Ohio Company, and was killed at Goshen, Va., on October 7, 1889, in a collision of two freight trains. The defendant was represented by R. L. Parish, Esq., of Covington, and the plaintiff by Messrs. T. T. Glasgow, of Lexington, and Micajah Weeds, of Charlottesville. The jury decided in favor of Jarman, giving his administrator $7,500.
