THE TRIALS OF JOURNALISM.

So few people in the world have any adequate idea of the trials in attempting to run any sort of a newspaper. You want to write what the people will read, or your paper won't go, but right there comes the rub.

Recently a wonderful discovery has been made. A beam of sunlight is made to pass through a prism so as to produce what is called the solar spectrum or rainbow.

A lawsuit involving many millions of dollars is on the tapis. The heirs of Anneke Jans have met in New Albany, Ind., and decided to bring suit for sixty-two acres of ground in the heart of New York city.

An order has been issued from the War Department authorizing the enlistment in the army of not more than 2,000 Indians.

Latest News Items.

The tin discovered at Millwood, Clarke county, Va., is said to be the richest in the United States, and the development of the mines will be vigorously pushed.

The flood in the vicinity of Bellaire and Wheeling, W. Va., has caused the stoppage of the window glass works in that neighborhood, and many of the workers have returned to New Jersey for a time.

For the past three weeks the Lower Potomac fisheries have been almost coining money. It is estimated that more fish have been caught on the Virginia shores of the Potomac since the 15th of December than during the whole season for the last twenty years.

A collision occurred on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railroad at Remington, Ohio. Passengers were thrown in a heap and it was found that five persons were injured, but no one killed.

The British steamship Craigside, from Galveston for Liverpool, with 5,000 bales of cotton, went ashore near Ocracoke, North Carolina, in the recent storm. She was on the way to Norfolk for coal.

The Salt River Valley, in Arizona, is suffering from the severest flood in its history. The damage is estimated at $125,000. Five Indians are known to be drowned, and it is rumored that a white family have met the same fate.

The British ship Jesomene, which narrowly escaped destruction near San Francisco, was taken in tow by the tug Relief. The captain of the tug charged $12,000 for the service. As the vessel and cargo were worth $175,000 the price was paid.

A house in Perry, Wisconsin, occupied by Marcus Holgarson and family was entirely destroyed by fire a few days ago. The oldest child was cremated and another has since died from its injuries, while the mother, who rushed into the fire for her little ones, has become blind from the effects of the fire.

A despatch from Aspen, Colorado, says that the heavy fall of snow in the mountains has made travel very dangerous, and a slide caught a train of mules within a few yards of the Little Rule Mine, carrying nine of them down the mountain and killing six of them. The mules were loaded with valuable ore from the Little Rule, which cannot be recovered.

Thomas Hall, inventor of the turbine water wheel, was struck and killed by a train in Rahway, New Jersey. Mr. Hall, who was about 70 years old, was walking on the railroad track near his home. He stepped from one track to another to get out of the way of a freight train, and was run down by the fast express. The body was horribly mangled and death instantaneous.

The rear coach of the Limited Pan Handle train jumped the track at Hagerstown, Indiana, and rolled down an embankment. The cause is yet unknown. O. F. Deal, engineer of maintenance of way, of the Pan Handle; George Needham, attorney of the Road; C. R. Case, conductor of the train; Arthur Reeves, a passenger of Richmond, were killed and twenty injured.

A Monte Carlo Tragedy.

MONACO, March 7.—Monte Carlo has again been startled by a sudden death. This time it is an English physician, Dr. Seegart, who had been winning enormous sums at the gambling tables. The unfortunate physician fell dead as he was seated in front of a croupier at one of the gambling tables. Apoplexy is announced as being the cause of Dr. Seegart's death.

ANDREWS & GRIMES, Coal Dealers.

We call special attention to the Coal we propose to handle this season and which we are receiving daily. Kanawha, West Virginia, Splint.

Superior to any in the United States for grates and open fire places. NEW RIVER LUMP for grates and stoves. It is the equal of any and surpassed by no other (save Kanawha Splint), be it under any name whatever. It has been upon the market for the last ten years, this is the first season for Raleigh and North Carolina. We have the New River for steam also, which we will put by the side of any other coal and guarantee equal, if not better results. We are the agents for this coal and can ship for domestic and steam users to Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Winston, Oxford and other points direct from the mines. Give it a trial, is what we ask. We have also a very choice lot of Red and White Ash for grates and stoves, which we screen before sending to our customers. Buy now and save money. Write for prices. Oak, hickory and pine WOOD, wood, long or cut, on hand all the time. ANDREWS & GRIMES.
