

Good News for the Ladies and Children.

Every child in this city should be taken to see Mrs. Tom Thumb and company at the opera house next Friday. This will, it is announced, be the little lady's farewell visit to this city. Her company includes the Count and Countess Magri (the latter being Mrs. Tom Thumb) Baron Magri, Smith's bell ringers, Harry Clark, harp and banjo soloist, Mlle. Garretta, with her troupe of trained ponies, dogs, cats, doves, pigeons and chickens. It will doubtless be a most pleasing entertainment for women and children. A matinee will be given on Friday at 3 o'clock. Popular prices will prevail. The Ogawas troupe of Royal Japanese are also with the company.

Supreme Court.

The following opinions of the Supreme court have been rendered:
 Turner vs Williams, from Alabama; new trial.
 Siler vs. Dorsett, from Chatham; affirmed.
 Rouse vs. Bowers, from Durham; modified.
 Waller vs. Bowling, from Granville; no error.
 Barnes vs. McCullers; from Johnston; error in plaintiff's appeal; no error in defendant's appeal.
 Harrison vs. Ray, from Wake; reversed.
 Cole vs. Laws, from Orange; affirmed.
 Hopkins vs. Bowers, from Orange; error.
 Browne vs. Railroad, from Warren; error; new trial.
 D. and N. Railroad vs. R. and D. Railroad, from Durham; no error.
 Long vs. Hankin, from Halifax; affirmed.

Have we any Rights?

In giving the Raleigh Electric Railway a thirty years franchise on our streets, did we reserve any rights to ourselves? If so what are they? The tracks occupying the center of our best streets are a nuisance and we suggest to His Honor the Mayor that the Company be notified that operations must begin in a reasonable length of time or he will order the Street Commissioner to have the whole thing torn up as obstruction to our highways. Why should we sit idly whining about what THEY are going to do, and will they do anything at all, and all that?

Personal Mention.
