NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Register of Deeds made two more couples happy this morning.

You should take a peep at the attractive windows of the Messrs. Berwanger.

Sheriff L. F. Wright, of Camden county, brought in two convicts this morning.

It is time you were getting your fishing tackle in shape Easter is most here.

Sheriff A. H. Rix, of Nash county, settled with the State Treasurer this morning paying in $7,829.52.

It is only six months before the exposition. Time the big hotel was being put up.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. Dr. Cordon is indisposed and thinks he is about to have the measles.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh up to March 20th were 14,818 bales in excess of the same time last season.

Sheriff Page was yesterday called upon to escort Mrs. Sallie T. Richardson of 317 East street to the Insane Asylum.

A large number of people from the country were in the city today. The merchants seem to have done a good business.

A large crowd is in attendance on Y. M. C. A., Convention at Durham. The meetings so far are largely attended and much interest manifested.

One colored man was killed and two white men were injured by the premature explosion of a dynamite cartridge yesterday in Greensboro.

Rev. J. S. Watkins, D. D., will begin a series of talks to young men on Sunday night in the First Presbyterian Church. All young men are cordially invited.

A number of road hands passed in review before Squire Barbee this morning. They were arrested upon complaint of Supervisor of roads W. C. McMackin. The squire gave them to understand that the red mud had to be kept on top. He forthwith had them put to work.

Wake Superior Court convenes Monday for the trial of criminal causes only. Judge Winston will preside.

We welcome the return of our friend Mr. Eugene G. Harrell, from the "Queen of the Antilles." We would just like to see his photograph in that linen duster and palm leaf fan.

Rev. J. A. Speight, for sometime past associate editor of the Biblical Recorder of this city, has purchased the Western North Carolina Baptist, and will revive its publication about April 1st.

Rev. Dr. Hall will preach a special sermon to young men on Sunday night and Mr. Reynolds, the International Sunday school man, will conduct Sunday school services in the afternoon at the Tabernacle.

The office set apart for the Railway Commission in the Agricultural building, is being fitted up so as to be ready for occupancy April 1st. Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. have the contract for carpeting.

The Inter States Bureau people are busy getting matters into shape.—Charleston has subscribed $500; Augusta $520; Jacksonville over $300 and 34 other towns and cities in Florida and other States are contributing.

We clip the following from the Goldsboro Argus: "The well known traveling salesman, who is popular everywhere 'on the road,' Mr. Will M. Russ, is to be married on Tuesday, March 31st, to Miss Hennie Williams, of Greenville, N. C., the ceremony to take place in St. Paul's church, in that town at 7 o'clock in the morning of the above date. The Argus wishes our congenial friend the fullest need of life's pleasures and property for himself and bride.

A Good Selection.

The annual address, on Wednesday of commencement week, at Chapel Hill, June 3d, before the alumni association, will be delivered by Col. John M. Galloway, of Rockingham. It is a most admirable selection.

Our Exchanges.

The Oxford Day has entered on its fourth volume. It is a splendid little paper, brim full of the spiciest news. Long may it prosper.

"Every Evening" is the title of a new little paper, published at Henderson, by Aycock & Jenkins. It is a spiky little journal and we wish it great success.

Electric Street Railway.

There seems to be nothing definitely settled yet in regard to the street railway. We look forward to a combination between the bond holders and the Construction company, which will finally result in giving us electric cars on our streets, but those connected with it have no definite information up to the time of going to press.

An Address by Mr. Wm. Reynolds.

At the Tabernacle Baptist Church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, Mr. Wm. Reynolds, Superintendent of organization of the International Sunday School Association, will deliver an address to the Sunday Schools of this city on "The Field, its Needs, and Our Duty."

Mr. Reynolds has visited our city before, and we are sure our people will be glad to hear him on this topic, as there are few men with his experience in the great Sunday School work.

The Retail Grocers Protective Association.

This is an association formed of the Retail Grocers of the city for their mutual protection and the protection of their customers. The association does not propose to regulate prices, for by so doing they would lay themselves liable to the charge of having combined against the people, but they claim that there are in every community those who buy all they can on credit and never pay when they can avoid it; that the loss on this class of customers has to be borne by the merchants first, but the paying customers ultimately have to pay it in that much increase in prices. This is a move in the right direction and when this organization gets in full operation, by comparing notes they will doubtless find by comparing notes that their night trade don't pay for lights, and we will have early closing established.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. J. A. Jones did not rest so well last night. Her physician is not alarmed, but entertains hopes of her early recovery.

Mr. J. L. Ludlow, of Winston, is in the city.

Messrs. James A. Moseley and I. Rosenthal have returned from the northern cities.

Solicitor Pou is in the city ready for court on Monday.

Messrs. Edmund Kenney and W. R. Luke, of New York, are registered at the Yarboro.

Mr. A. P. Conelly, of Durham, is in the city.

Messrs. Geo. Home and W. S. Roms, of Richmond, are in the city.

At the Yarboro: J. M. Biggs and G. S. Griffith, Baltimore; S. B. Fitch, Boston; H. A. White, Buena Vista, Va.; C. J. Weldon, Chicago.

Capt. B. Cameron, of Stagville, is in the city.

Dr. J. B. Dunn is reported not so well today.

Col. John Robinson, we are sorry to learn, is confined at home with the grippe.

Mr. E. B. Thomas who has been complaining for several days was compelled to go home and to bed yesterday but is better this morning we are glad to learn.

Murdered by Moonshiners.

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 21.—Special Barnwell and Brem, revenue officers under Rollins, were killed near Mt. Alry this morning by moonshiners. One of the deceased was a member of the legislature, just adjourned.

[Upon receipt of this news, just before THE VISITOR went to press, great excitement was felt among the revenue officials here, by whom the dead officers were known.]—VISITOR.

Confederate Encampment.

When the Confederate Veterans Association was formed here about two year ago, there was also formed an association called "Association of Pensioners." It was proposed to have an annual reunion at the Encampment.

Mr. W. H. Hamilton, of this county who is totally blind is at the head of the matter and he and his associates have appointed Col. Ed. D. Hall, of Wilmington, their Adjutant General and the colonel proposes to have the annual encampment at the Encampment Grounds near Wilmington, if possible. The Wilmington Review says that "the object of this proposal reunion is to give to the old disabled and destitute heroes of the war a chance to mingle freely with one another for a week, to fight over their old battles and to take a recess from the care and tear and worry of the week a day world. It is thought that about 1,000 of them will be here and that 5,000 of their more fortunate comrades will be on hand to see them.

Municipal Affairs.

Correspondence of the VISITOR.

I have been very much interested in the discussion which has been going on in regard to municipal affairs in the VISITOR recently, and I hope it may be continued. City government is a matter of great importance to every man, woman and child in the city. There is a large amount of money collected from our citizens, and expended by the city government, and the government of the city is a matter of the first importance.

I am glad to see there is a disposition to condemn the practice of "slating" Aldermen with an understanding that they are to select certain men for officers of the city and no others. I believe we ought to select men for Aldermen who will be free and untrammelled. There is no doubt the practice has been heretofore to bind up candidates for Aldermanic honors in pledges, and then bring them forward for nomination. Men so elected can hardly be called free agents; when they ought to be untrammelled and unbiased and free to select any one who offered for city honors. If I mistake not there is a strong and growing disposition to have matters this way instead of labelling a candidate for Alderman so that he must run about as the proverbial canine to say, "I am Mr. so and so's dog, whose dog are you?"

There is no necessity for pledging or "fixing," because every man who will run for Alderman, is acquainted with every man who may be offered for office and knows his record and qualification, and when there is a disposition to "fix" there is opposition to unbiased judgment.

We have run on the fixed schedule long enough; let us have an unpledged ticket this time. A. B.

From all indications the exposition in this city next fall will be the biggest thing ever held in the south. Everything is being planned on a large scale, nothing small about it. Every section of the State should be at work, so that Old North Carolina will have the grandest display of them all.

Reidsville is measles.
