

The Young Widow.

She was modest, but not bashful;
Free and easy, but not bold;
Like an apple, ripe and mellow—
Not to young and not to old.
Half inviting, half repulsive;
Now advancing and now shy;
There is mischief in her dimple,
There is danger in her eye.

She has studied human nature,
She has schooled in all the arts;
She has taken her diploma
As the mistress of all hearts,
She can tell the very moment
When to sigh and when to smile;
Oh, a maid is sometimes charming,
But a widow—all the while.

Are you sad? How very serious
Will her handsome face become!
Are you angry? She is wretched,
Lonely, friendless, fearful, dumb!
Are you mirthful? How her laughter,
Silver sounding, will ring out!
She can lure, and catch and lay you
As the angler does the trout.

Ye old bachelors of forty,
Who have grown so old and wise;
Young Americans of twenty,
With no love looks in your eyes;
You may practice all the lessons
Taught by Cupid since the fall—
But I know a little widow
Who would win and fool you all.

—New York Mercury.

Detective O'Malley.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 23.—The much sought for detective, O'Malley, of New Orleans, is at a hotel in this city. He is accompanied by his wife and child. He was seen at midnight by a reporter and said: "I was present at the Clay statue meeting and hid in New Orleans for two days after the lynching. I went first to Houston, Texas, and then to Corsicana, then turning about I came northward to Brinkley, Ark., and from that place to Memphis. It is my intention to return to New Orleans next Wednesday or Thursday. I will certainly expose the workings of the Mafia. I have been in the employ of the Matranga faction of the Mafia for six years and in my capacity as detective have plenty of information which I am sure no other man has."

O'Malley declined to say anything in connection with bribing the jury, except that he thinks they were bribed. He said in conclusion that six of the Italians killed were guilty of complicity in the Hennessy murder.

Hail-Storm in Florida.

ORLANDO, Fla., March 23.—A hail storm visited this city this city yesterday morning and the stones, some an inch in diameter, fell for five minutes. They drifted in piles on the south sides of the streets. Several horses ran away, but no one was hurt. One hundred windows were broken in the San Juan Hotel. Skylights suffered greatly, every pane being gone. Some windows in the Catholic Church were wrecked. The damage to fruit cannot be estimated yet, but is probably not great. Vegetables suffered more. The storm did not extend far south and was worst in the northern and western parts of the city.

There was a small cyclone at Wilcox, half way to Winter Park. Trees were torn up by the roots, etc. The hailstorm extended at least a mile and a half east and west. A man caught in the storm a mile to the west was beaten black and blue. There was no hail at Zellwood or Sanford. Rain fell in torrents. The streets are flooded. Old settlers say it was the worst storm in many years.

A Reasonable Precaution.

An English chemist places upon all poisons which he sells, directions as to the antidotes for such poison and how to use them. This is a capital idea and should be adopted every where.

The break in the levee, at Concord, Miss., is rapidly widening and much damage to property is anticipated.

Castoria

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and cures Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.
111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I use Castoria in my practice, and find it specially adapted to affections of children."
ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D.
1057 2d Ave., New York.

"From personal knowledge and observation I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Lowell, Mass.

THE SECRET OF OUR SUCCESS.

WE CLAIM that a combination of local and constitutional treatment is necessary to thoroughly eradicate Catarrh. Exclusively local applications, if made when the trouble first begins, sometimes cure, but more frequently drive the disease to other parts of the system, where it develops in a far more serious form. Blood purifiers may improve the condition of the system, but they seldom cure—for they do not reach the seat of the disease. Certain Catarrh Cure is the only preparation which combines local and constitutional treatment, and can consistently claim to cure Catarrh in all its forms and stages. It is cheap, easily used, purely vegetable, entirely harmless. By it, others, who had no faith, have been cured: YOU CAN BE, whether you have had the disease one year or fifty; whether it is in the head, stomach or bladder. TRY IT NOW.

DELAY IS DANGEROUS.

Past Failures Need not Discourage You.

Certain Catarrh Cure is mentioned so favorably, by our customers that we have great confidence in its merits.—Alexander Drug and Seed Co., Augusta, Ga.

Its Harmlessness.

Makes it entirely safe to try Certain Catarrh Cure for any trouble, without the slightest fear of injury. It is a purely vegetable preparation, and to the most delicate constitution, or organ of the body, can produce no bad effect whatever.

REMEMBER!

Certain Catarrh Cure is not simply a snuff or local application, to drive the disease from the nasal organs into the system; nor a blood remedy, to tone up the system and leave the nasal parts uncured; but it is a combination of both methods, and the only remedy which will give satisfaction in the many different stages of catarrh.

The genuine bears our Trade Mark. Take no substitute. Price, $1. Six bottles $5. Of Druggists, or by Express, prepaid, on receipt of price. Book of Information free.
