NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Cotton is only bringing 8½ cents. The produce market is poorly supplied these days. Look-out for the street railway, four cars have arrived. Five mad dogs have been killed at Neuse this week. Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight. Rain yesterday, sunshine today and possibly snow tomorrow. Don't forget the minstrels tomorrow night.

See notice of Mr. Jno. W. Hinsdale incorporator.

The Raleigh wood market is getting to be immense. The streets are lined with wagons for two blocks.

Mr. W. S. Barnes the new Secretary of the State Alliance, has arrived and taken charge of his office.

The station house is full of emptiness today. There is only one prisoner in jail. Raleigh seems to be on her good behavior.

Mr. Joe Crowder captured the prize medal again last night. Joe is decidedly the best drilled man in Raleigh. He has challenged the State but can get no one to respond.

Attention is directed to the sale of valuable city property by Thomas H. Briggs, commissioner &c. This is a splendid chance for capitalists.

All men are most cordially invited to attend the young men's prayer meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, which will be held in the Bible class room of Edenton Street M. E. Church.

Messrs. Whiting Bros., announce shoes "for all mankind." By reference to their prices, it would seem that there is no excuse for anybody to go barefooted.

High Class and First Class.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead that he would not rather visit a genuine minstrel show than have his mother-in-law visit him, or words to that effect? If there is a panacea for the blues, a cure for melancholy, it is a high class minstrel entertainment. The plaintive songs, the nimble dance, the merry fun, are things that all can enjoy. The carping critic may find fault with the tendency of the dramatic stage, but he is a prudish person who can see anything to criticize adversely in refined minstrelsy. An evening of mirth and music is good for soul and body, and the famous Guy Brothers Minstrels will appear at Metropolitan Hall Saturday evening, April 4.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

At Edenton Street M. E. Church Sunday School Room next Sunday afternoon promptly at 5 o'clock, continuing one hour. The opening address by Rev. J. J. Hall, of the Baptist Tabernacle. Dr. Hall is in sympathy with this move, and his earnestness and ability will make the occasion pleasant and profitable to all. The older people are invited to attend. The officers of the association are young men, but they wish the cooperation of all. The ladies are invited and their prayers are asked with much earnestness. God is willing to make this work the beginning of a great revival. Let all pray and work to this end.

At Rest.

This morning about 8 o'clock the remains of the late Col. W. L. Saunders were taken from Christ Church and escorted to the train en route to their last resting place at Tarboro. The escort consisted of a delegation of State officers, a number of Confederate veterans, besides many relatives and friends. Expressions of sorrow were heard on all sides for the great loss the State has sustained. In accordance with resolutions of the Council of State the State house was decorated in mourning, special attention being paid to the office of the Secretary of State. The flag at the Rescue Engine House was hung at half mast.

The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. R. H. Battle, J. G. B. Grimes, T. S. Kenan, C. M. Busbee, F. H. Cameron and Col. A. B. Andrews.

The Biggest Thing of Its Kind in North Carolina.

In our rambles this morning, we ran up with Mr. Frank Stronach, one of the foremost business men in the city. In conversation with him he said something about shipping some buggies to Alabama. We had no idea that the carriage factories of Raleigh were shipping goods that far from home, but on looking through their warehouses to say that we were surprised, don't express it in the least. Their Wilmington street warehouse is 75x100 feet, two floors. All this space is devoted to road cars and harness. They have a stock of harness second to none in the State. Road carts in endless varieties. All can be suited. From there we took a stroll to their warehouse and factory on East Morgan street. There are few people in Raleigh who have the least idea what a building this is. It is of brick, four floors. In it, there are carriages, phaetons, pony carts, speeding sulkies, doctor's carts. There are over 400 vehicles in this building. Among the carts we noticed one with a single center spring patent by a North Carolina man, although the cart is manufactured in Michigan. It is a beauty. In the way of delivery and spring wagons, they have a large variety of their own make. In their wagon yards there are about two hundred wagons already put up; they present a handsome appearance. In their wood working and blacksmithing departments, numbers of skilled mechanics are working day and night to keep up with orders. Few people know what an immense business Messrs. Yancey & Stronach are doing in this line. They are hustlers from awayback.

Mass Meeting of Citizens.

Quite a large meeting of the democratic citizens of Raleigh called for the purpose of considering the best means of nominating city officers, was held at the Court House last night. Mr. N. B. Broughton was selected as chairman and explained the object of the meeting.

Mr. W. N. Jones made a few remarks saying that he believed the people should have a free voice in electing officers. He favored a committee to formulate plans to be reported at another meeting.

Mr. J. C. Marcum said he signed the petition readily. He thought the best manner to get the sense of the people, was through the primaries.

Mr. J. H. Enniss said he hoped the meeting would formulate some plan for a free expression of opinion.

Mr. W. G. Upchurch thought the best men to elect as Aldermen should be to choose those who were not so aggressive in seeking office.

Dr. R. H. Lewis saw no reason for the meeting. He defended the city administration against the charge of being a ring. Paid a compliment to the democracy of the city clerk, and said that Mayor Thompson had made a faithful servant. He saw no necessity for changing the plan of nominating and electing officers.

Mr. Josephus Daniels moved a committee be appointed by the Chair to report a plan and report at some future meeting—adopted.

The following were appointed: 1st ward—F. O. Moring. 2d " Josephus Daniels. 3d " W. N. Jones. 4th " Rev. F. L. Reid. 5th " J. C. Marcum.

The question of a milk and meat inspector was taken up. It was advocated by Dr. Lewis and Mr. A. D. Jones.

Mr. C. B. Edwards offered the following resolution which was adopted: RESOLVED, That the committee appointed recommend to the adjourned meeting what officers, if any, should be voted for by the people.

The meeting then adjourned to meet next Tuesday night, on motion of Mr. J. H. Enniss, at the same place.

We learn that, for good reasons, Rev. F. L. Reid declines to serve on the committee provided for above and the chairman has been so notified and will put some one in his place. Mr. Reid was not present at the meeting last night.

You Know We are Right.

If you are to buy any spring goods and you are like all mankind, you are anxious to know where your money will buy the best values. Now there is one truism: If you do not try the different stores you will not know where the best values are to be had. Listen: Swindell claims to sell goods for less money than any one else in Raleigh. Now, because he claims this you need not go to his store only and then part with other stores. Try all. Don't go right to Swindell's and nowhere else. Some one else may be offering baits. In that case go to them and get the bait; by this means you are benefitted. Now, if you have been trading at Swindell's ten or twelve years, it is time you made a change. All wise people and nations make changes every two and four years. Thus the President of the U. S. must step down and out after four years. Same with the Governor. Same rule holds good with you.—Change your place of trading frequently. If you want a suit of nice tailor made clothes, get it from Swindell. If you want a nice trimmed hat, get it at Swindell's. If you want a nice dress, get that from Swindell's. Also get shoes from Swindell's.
