NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

One marriage license issued this morning.

The employees at the penitentiary were paid off today.

The telephone in Auditor Sanderlin's office was burnt out today during the thunder storm.

There was a severe hail and rain storm passed over the city today about two o'clock.

It is said that fish worms are plentiful this year. Cut this out and paste it in your hat.

Gov. Holt has offered a reward of $100 for the capture of John Stowe, of Rowan county. He is wanted for murder.

On yesterday a check for $3,000 was handed Mrs. M. Grausman, from the Royal Arcanum Insurance on the life of the late Mr. M. Grausman.

We were shown this morning the signature of a man 84 years of age. There are few men of 25 that can beat it.

Charlotte seems to be somewhat stirred up over the murder that happened there a few days ago. It looks like a young war would be waged there.

The railroads will give special rates for the cattle show to be held in Raleigh May 7th. We hope there will be a large attendance.

Much complaint is heard among the merchants about the dust kicked up by the street sweeping machine. It does seem that the sprinklers could be used freely before the sweeping act takes place.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Franck was held from the Baptist Tabernacle this afternoon at 4 o'clock. There was a large crowd of relations and friends in attendance.

The regular 10:30 services of the Fife meetings were held in Metropolitan hall this morning. There were about 400 persons present. Mr. Fife made one of his best talks. The singing was extra good.

Messrs. Ferrall & Co. seem to be in hard luck with their delivery teams. Another wagon was smashed in front of their store this morning by a pair of mules running into it and knocking their pony down.

The combined parade of the fire department and the Amateur Minstrels made a splendid showing yesterday afternoon. Chief Engelhard, Assistant Chief Ferrall and the hose teams appeared in full uniforms.

On yesterday a horse hitched to a delivery wagon belonging to Messrs. J. R. Ferrall & Co., became frightened at the R. & G. Freight Depot and did some lively running for a short while, but no damage.

In nearly all the relations of life in which our interests touch the interests of others, we are in danger of dealing unjustly. What is known as "the golden rule," is much more difficult of application to the every day affairs of life than most men imagine. Very few of us that do not condemn ourselves in practicing what we condemn in others. As one has expressed it,

"The faults of our neighbors with freedom we blame, But tax not ourselves though we practice the same."

Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen, can't you enlighten your constituents relative to the matter of the extension of Morgan street? Your honorable body has given it out that the street was to be extended, and the inference was that it was to be done soon. Has the matter been assigned to the "tomb of the capulets," and if so, why? Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen, please enlighten the public on this matter. It is a question that will not down.

This weather is getting something like summer time.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge tonight at 8 o'clock. Every Odd Fellow invited to attend.

The colored engineer at the cotton mill on the R. & G. Railroad had one of his arms so mashed in the machinery this morning that amputation was necessary.

The Fife meeting is daily growing in interest. About twenty five persons went forward for prayer last night; the church is crowded at each service. The singing is excellent.

A great deal of interest centers in the meeting of the Board of Aldermen tomorrow night. It is expected that something will be developed concerning the street railway, and everybody hopes it may turn out all right.

The Amateur Minstrels performance last night at Metropolitan Hall drew a large and appreciative audience. It was by far the best minstrel troupe that has played in Raleigh for five years. The play netted something over fifty dollars for the W. R. Womble, Truck Company.

The Richmond State says: The first class afternoon daily is a very popular medium of advertising in every city. In many cities it is far ahead of the morning paper in advertising business. But there are very few cities in this country that support more than one afternoon paper. Last year six afternoon papers suspended and in each case it was the new paper started to run out the old established paper that went under.

We are informed by a reliable citizen that this day—16th of April, 1819, forty two years ago, one of the most blighting frosts that was ever known fell Spring, our citizen says, was far advanced, the trees and woods were green with their foliage and there were fine prospects for large crops of fruit; but on the 15th it turned suddenly cold and the next morning appeared this killing frost. It destroyed all the wheat and fruits of all kinds. In a few days the trees, or leaves were perfectly black and withered. Perhaps many of our oldest citizens can remember this event.

Married.

At the residence of the bride, on the evening of the 15th inst., by J. C. Marcom, Esq., Mr. J. Frank Matthews to Miss Emma Jones, all of this city.

Elected President.

Thanks to Our Friend Dughi.

The VISITOR is indebted to Mr. A. Dughi for as nice a treat of as nice ice cream as it has been our privilege to taste in a long time. We predict a liberal patronage for Mr. Dughi during the heated season on the part of our people. His set out is quite tempting.

A Good Selection.

The Southern Immigration Bureau has engaged Col. Jno. D. Cameron, of Asheville, to come to Raleigh for the purpose of writing up the affairs of the Bureau; this is a most admirable selection. There is no better newspaper man in North Carolina than Col. Cameron.

Dr. Thomas Hume, of the University; Prof. W. L. Poteat, of Wake Forest; Hon. C. M. Cooke, of Louisville; W. N. Jones, Esq., and John C. Scarborough, Esq., of Raleigh. Prof. W. L. Poteat was elected president of the board, Col. L. L. Polk having resigned some time since, Mr. N. B. Broughton, the vice president, having served as president up to the present.

The board also elected Mr. G. W. Green, secretary, Mr. T. H. Briggs, treasurer, and Mr. W. N. Jones, auditor.

The following executive committee was elected:

Prof. W. L. Poteat, Messrs. W. G. Upchurch, W. N. Jones, J. C. Scarborough, Dr. J. W. Carter, Rev. B. Cade and Mr. N. B. Broughton.

The following were elected upon the finance committee:

Messrs. W. N. Jones, John C. Scarborough and W. G. Upchurch.

The board was engaged most of the time in discussing the proposition made by Raleigh to have the University located in this city. They desire to know when Raleigh will carry out the proposition made in the way of securing the site so that work can be commenced.

Mrs. Annie T. Powell, wife of Capt. R. H. Powell, of the O. & H. Railroad, is in the city, visiting at her father's, Mr. T. C. Williams on Oakwood Avenue.

Wake County Cattle Show.

The Wake County Cattle Show on May 7th, promises to be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in the State. The exhibit of blooded horses promises to eclipse anything of its kind ever attempted in this State. The show will take place at Mc. Mackins old stables on East Morgan street. There is ample room for all the stock that can be had. Space is already being taken, and much preparation being made to make it a grand success. All railroads leading into the city have made reduced rates, so that the fare will be within the reach of all. Every citizen should take hold of this fair and make it such a success that it will draw people from all over the country.

For Aldermen First Ward.

I beg leave to nominate the following gentlemen for Aldermen from the First Ward: Alf. A. Thompson, Wm. H. Dodd, W. W. Parish, Frank Stronach.
