NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Central Methodist Church is getting on towards completion. It will be a beautiful structure.

One case of disorderly conduct constituted the Mayor's docket this morning. A severe reprimand was the result.

Old 6 per cent bonds to the amount of $10,000 were exchanged this morning, at the State Treasury for the new 4 per cent consols.

A renewal of license was granted today by the State Treasurer to the B. H. & O. Sewing Machine Company of Philadelphia.

Let the objective point be the grand Exposition in Raleigh next fall. Let everybody talk it up, work it up, and whoop it up.

The next sensation in the near future is the municipal election. The excitement, however, is not above the average.

Put your shoulders to the wheels and whoop up the electric railway. Let the municipal election have a rest for a while.

The West End Baptist Mission Church has been completed and is a beautiful little structure. It will be of vast convenience to many of the denomination in that suburb.

The hot weather of the past few days has had a good effect on the grippe sufferers. There seems to be a general tendency towards convalescence, but it is rather a slow process.

There was a noticeable deficiency in the crowd of country people in the city last Saturday caused, no doubt by the beautiful weather which required their attention at home on the farms.

The weather yesterday approached mid-summer. The thermometer ran high up in the eighties. The hot wave is said to be of unusual extent, prevailing nearly over the entire country.

Attention is called to the Progressive Endowment Guild of America, the advertisement of which appears in this issue. Mr. R. D. Robinson is manager, with headquarters at 1134 Fayetteville street.

Everybody is watching and waiting to hear the result of Mr. George's visit to our city in connection with the street railway system. Let us all hope that matters may be soon placed in an encouraging shape.

We were informed today by Gen. R. F. Hoke that he was undecided as to whether or not he would accept the appointment of President of the N. C. Railroad made vacant by the resignation of Gov. Holt. He rather thought he would come to an adverse decision.

The weather is certainly enticing to those fond of piscatorial sports. Large crowds are everyday seen wending their way to the various ponds in the vicinity. Luck or no luck they will go.

Our people need have no fear about the rumor recently going the rounds that the work shops of the Seaboard Air Line System were to be removed from Raleigh. We hear that there is nothing in it. They are no doubt here to stay, and will continue a source of much advantage to the people of Raleigh.

We availed ourself of the first opportunity we have had of paying our respects today to Governor Holt, by a call at the Executive office. We were pleased to find him in the enjoyment of usual health. He says he will remove his family to the city, but not at a very early date, as Mrs. Holt intends making a somewhat extended visit soon.

Nice lot of ladies and misses Oxford Ties at 68c, 75c, 85c, $1.00 and $1.50 at Woolcott & Sons'.

At the morning service at Edenton Street M. E. Church yesterday, one person was received into the church by certificate.

There are now about one hundred and thirty telephones in use in Raleigh. Can't the connection with Durham, proposed some time since, be carried out? It would surely be a great advantage to the business people of both places.

The address of Mr. McKesson, of Morganton at Edenton street church, yesterday afternoon to a very large audience on the subject of preparation was a most earnest and impressive one. Its effect for good cannot be overestimated. He is a fine speaker and has a fine delivery.

Mr. John C. George, of Baltimore, together with Dr. Turner, Mr. J. A. Jones and others interested in the street railway, today made a tour of inspection of the lines. The outlook for a speedy building of the road is now splendid. It will be on a larger scale than heretofore mapped out.

The full moon this month which is proverbial for being the trying time on fruit, comes rather late for a frost. We can therefore hope for a reasonable good crop of fruit. With sugar at six cents, and plenty of peaches, cherries &c., wont our housewives be happy?

Now that it has been ordered by the Board of Aldermen that Morgan street shall be extended, we hope that due regard be paid to the erection of the bridge over the R. & G. E. Road, and that an iron structure instead of a wooden one be built. We also hope that the rickety affair over the road on Hillsboro street be taken down and an iron bridge substituted. We believe that it will be cheaper in the end, and it will certainly be a vast improvement in the looks.

Wake Superior Court.

The April term of the Superior Court of Wake county for the trial of civil causes only, commenced today, Judge Winston presiding. The docket is not an unusually large or important one, and the term will not probably last longer than one week.

Teachers' Assembly.

Most active preparations are being made for the next meeting of the Teachers' Assembly which takes place commencing June 18th.

Maj. Eugene Harrell, the indefatigable secretary is putting his time and wits together and when he does this, everybody knows it means success. Among the most prominent visitors will be Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, universally conceded to be the foremost divine of the country. Other prominent men will also be present, and the occasion altogether will be the most interesting yet held. It is expected that three thousand teachers will be present.

Revival Services at the Baptist Tabernacle.

Yesterday was a great day for the Baptist Tabernacle. Two extremely large congregations assembled both morning and night. The pastor Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall preached two most excellent sermons which were powerful and effective. At the morning service fifteen persons were received into the church, fruits of the revival now going on at this church. At night exceeding great interest was manifested and quite a number went forward as penitents while about seven professed Christ as their Savior. It was thought that the meetings would close with last night but the interest being so great the pastor and his people decided to continue them. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

The Sunday School of the Tabernacle is in a beautiful and flourishing condition. The attendance rounded up to an even 400 yesterday. A committee was appointed to look after the matter of the annual picnic excursion this school always has.

GREAT RELIGIOUS FEELING.

Large Crowd and Much Interest Manifested.

The meeting at Edenton Street M. E. Church last night was one of the most enthusiastic and interesting of the kind ever held in Raleigh.

Evangelist Fife delivered a discourse which for earnestness has never been surpassed here. There was a tremendous crowd present and the religious feeling was intense. Many went forward to the altar and religious manifestations were noticeable to a large extent. It was indeed an awakening rarely witnessed. The meetings will continue during the week. In the morning in Metropolitan Hall and in the evening at Edenton Street Church. Evangelist Fife has met with such favor that he is determined to pursue the good work until a grand success shall crown his efforts.

Personal Mention.

Hon. Josiah Turner, is in the city. Mr. C. B. Root is slowly improving. Mr. Hal. M. Worth, of Greensboro is in the city.

Mr. J. C. Birdsong, State Librarian has gone to Mississippi to visit relatives.

Dr. J. B. Dunn is convalescing about as fast as could be expected after so severe an attack of sickness.

Mr. John W. Jenkins, of the "Every Evening" newspaper at Henderson is in the city.

Mr. R. W. Wynn's condition is not much improved. He continues very ill.

Mr. Romulus J. Behamy, of the Western Union Telegraph office at Henderson, was in the city yesterday visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. John C. George, of Baltimore, a prominent bond holder in the Raleigh Street Railway Co., arrived in the city to day and is at the Yarboro.

The following gentlemen are at the Yarboro: G. W. Young and B. S. Weill, of New York; W. A. Slater, and T. D. Turner, of Durham; W. F. Alston, of Philadelphia; G. A. Shepherd, of Asheville; J. F. H. Hooker, of Baltimore; H. S. Hancock, of Va.

Straw Hats in all Styles.

We are now showing an endless variety of men's, youth's and boy's straw hats in all the new styles, and we are selling these goods at a big bargain. In our millinery department you will find the largest and prettiest assortment of new millinery goods to select from ever brought to this market, and the prices are lower than you ever heard of before. We have a tremendous stock of fine dress goods that must be sold, and in order to sell them out before moving in our new store on Fayetteville street, we have cut the prices down to one third less than their real value. Now, any one wishing a pretty new spring dress will find it to their interest to examine our stock before making a selection, we guarantee to save you at least 25 per cent on fine dress goods. If you want a nobby suit of men's, youth's or boy's clothing at a bargain you can always find it at our great emporium.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL

Won't it be delightful to board a street car in front of the market house ride out to Pullen Park, thence around by the Agricultural College, thence through Oberlin, thence through the Leveaux property to the northern suburbs and thence back to the city proper? And yet this is one of the plans talked about, constituting a belt line of electric railway. Raleigh's fast coming to the front.
