NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Cotton today ruled at 8½ to 8¾ cents. Receipts light.

The ladies today are out in strong force beautifully attired in spring costumes.

Let everybody turn out to the meeting at Metropolitan Hall tonight. The welfare of our city is at stake.

Button holing is progressing in view of the primaries to be held next Monday night.

Pick-nic and school excursions will soon be in order. Then will come commencement exercises.

The drug store of Messrs. Williams & Hawood, has been closed during today for the purpose of taking an inventory.

The Mayor had one case of drunk and disorderly conduct before him today resulting in an addition of $1 to the city treasury.

The pump on the corner of Person and Morgan streets is badly in need of repair, also the pump on the corner of Smithfield and Blount streets needs repair. It ought to be attended to.

Remember that the completion of the electric street railway means increased valuation of real estate. Let property holders remember this and be on hand at the meeting tonight.

In consequence of the illness of his mother, Governor Holt has been compelled to decline an invitation from the Governor of Virginia to go upon a tour of inspection of the Eastern oyster beds.

We regret to hear that Mr. J. C. James, brother-in-law of Mr. H. M. Swan, Chief Clerk of the State treasury department, died in Wilmington last night of consumption.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall will deliver his lecture on Life in London at Oxford, Wednesday evening May 13th, during the session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows. It will be for the benefit of the Odd Fellows Orphanage.

The remains of Mr. Silas Morris who died in Goldsboro yesterday afternoon arrived here on the 4:33 train from the east today, and were interred in the Old City Cemetery where the funeral services took place. The remains were met at the depot by an escort of relatives and friends.

We know what we are talking about, when we say, that if our people exhibit a want of interest in the meeting at Metropolitan Hall tonight Raleigh will be in danger of suffering such a drawback as has not been experienced for years. Go to the meeting by all means.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. C. Harris, has accepted his old position as refreshment clerk at Morehead city during the coming season. "King" is about as well up to his business as any man in the State and his friends and the public generally will always find him ready to serve him. He wants the "boys" to give him a call during the season. He will leave for Morehead about May 25th.

Another glorious meeting was held last night at Eenton Street Methodist church. The house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and a large number went away unable to secure seats. Mr. Harris' discourse was on the "Marriage Supper" and the effect on the audience was of the happiest nature. Such a religious feeling has rarely, if ever, been seen here. Over one hundred persons last night asked for prayers; there were many conversions. There will be a meeting tonight at the usual time.

Lost.

Near 515 North Person street a paper cup, with the letters E. B. F. on the side. The finder will be rewarded by returning it to 515 North Person street.

THE HODGE CASE DECIDED.

Important Decision of the Supreme Court.

Sometime since Dr. W. T. Hodge entered suit to recover a penalty of $500 against certain railroads for failure to report to the governor an annual statement, etc. The Superior Court held that such money if recovered should go to the school fund, and this decision has been sustained by the Supreme Court. Argument was heard before Judge Winston to have the name of Dr. Hodge stricken out and the State substituted.

Personal Mention.

Gen. W. R. Cox was in the city yesterday.

Mr. C. B. Root is out again after a severe spell of sickness.

Mr. N. B. Broughton has gone to Morganton to attend a meeting of the directors of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum held to day.

It is with the deepest regret we announce the critical illness of Master Donaldson Stranach. He was stricken with paralysis yesterday. We sincerely hope he may recover.

The following gentlemen are at the Yarboro: R. W. Pritchard, Petersburg, Va., D. Eberman and W. A. Guthrie, Durham, B. F. Wyley, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. L. P. Sorrell, representative of A. M. Sorrell & Bro., left for Gulf, Chatham county this evening to attend the funeral of their brother, the late M. W. Sorrell, which takes place at Gulf, this p. m., at 4 o'clock. Mr. Sorrell was a former merchant of this city, as M. W. Sorrell, then Sorrell & Jackson and then Christophers & F. W. Sorrell. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him and was a gentleman in every sense of the word and more than this could not be said of any one.

The Canker of Credit will keep you pushed and hard run all your life. The man who trusts you and keeps you in debt is not your friend. Swindell, who sells you for cash only, is your friend. Why? Because he gives you more for a dollar than the credit man will. You buy a dress and the trimmings on credit at $10.50; you can buy the same goods from Swindell's for $6. Is this much difference? Yes; and often more. Do not run bills, you sell your living too cheaply. You go to Swindell's millinery and get a hat (cash) for $2.50; you go somewhere else (credit) $5.00 will be placed opposite your name. These timely hints, if you will profit by them, will, in two years enable you to buy a home.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

For Rent.

MEETING TONIGHT.

Shall we Have the Electric Street Railway?—This is the Great Question to be Solved.

There will be a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight at Metropolitan Hall for the purpose of conferring with Mr. John C. George of Baltimore, relative to the completion of the electric street railway. In addition to the members of the Chamber it is earnestly desired that our citizens generally should be present so that the plans of Mr. George may be well discussed and digested. It is understood that this gentleman comes to Raleigh with an earnest desire to do all in his power to give us such a system of railway as will be of advantage to our people and a credit to the capital of North Carolina. In doing this, however, he desires, and, in our opinion has the right to expect the hearty co operation of our citizens.

No one can deny, that the erection and operation of the road will be not only a convenience to our people, but certainly a benefit to the owners of real estate within the city limits and on the suburbs. We cannot allow this matter to fail. In doing so we would become the scoff and by word of the entire State. Let us have pride enough to prevent this. We do not know the nature of the proposition Mr. George will make, but we do know that he is favorably impressed with all the surroundings, and has a firm belief not only in the necessity of the enterprise, but an abiding faith in its success in a pecuniary point of view. And Mr. George is right. With the lines properly extended and under the liberal provisions of its charter it must be apparent that it will develop into a paying scheme from the start, becoming more and more remunerative as our beautiful city grows in population and wealth.

Now our people cannot afford to let this opportunity slip, nor do we believe that they will. We want especially to see our business men at the meeting tonight. Let them accord to Mr. George a most hearty cooperation, and the people can take our word for it that he will do his part. He comes among us with the intention of doing us good. His character is of the highest, his business abilities unquestioned and he asks nothing but such aid and comfort on the part of our people as will cause a local interest in a scheme that promises the grandest benefits to our entire population.

Fellow citizens of Raleigh. This is a matter of no slight importance to you. It is one that appeals not only to your business tact, but to your pride. Shall we make another rapid stride in the march of progress, or shall we by inertness suffer such a chance to go by default, thereby checking the growth of our lovely city.

Let there be such a meeting tonight as will cheer the hearts of all. Go to Metropolitan Hall tonight by all means.
