NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

The next appointment of Evangelist Fife will be at Salisbury.

A little fire was not uncomfortable this morning.

Boom up the proposed new hotel. Talk about it, work for it, write for it.

See advertisement of lot of dry pine wood and shingles for sale.

All danger of frost seems to have passed, and the prospects for a good fruit crop are excellent.

"There is no such word as fail." Let these be the watchwords in connection with our electric street railway.

The woods now present a most beautiful appearance and an afternoon ramble is a treat.

Mr. Geo. Shellem the Wake County trucker had the freshest cabbages in market this morning. His lettuce and radishes were very nice.

After the municipal election will come the Wake County Cattle Show. Let us make it a grand success.

Call on Mayor Thompson and subscribe for some of the street railway bonds. Our best financiers consider them a good investment.

Secretary J. T. Patrick, of the Southern Inter State Immigration Bureau has gone to his home at Pine Bluff, on account of sickness.

The city today is literally packed with Chapel Hill and Wake Forest students all bent on victory at the base ball match game this afternoon.

The parsonage of the Church of the Good Shepherd is being repaired and will be made a most beautiful residence.

The hotel at Morehead will be run the coming season by the Foster Bros. This will ensure a grand success for the season.

Our genial clerk of the Superior Court reports that he is having an unusually quiet time today. He will have to hustle around again next Monday morning when court re-assembles.

The selection of General W. R. Cox as the orator for Memorial day, is a splendid one. The subject will be "Memoirs of General Rainsor" and it will be handled in a masterly manner.

The Railroad Commissioners yesterday fixed the rate for passengers over the different roads of the State at 3 1/2 cents per mile for first class and 2 1/2 cents per mile for second class.

In view of the primary meetings in the different wards next Monday night, there is much caucusing going on today. All the candidates seem hopeful. Somebody will be disappointed, but such things will happen and can't well be avoided.

There is a family in Raleigh that has a colored female domestic who has been continuously with them for thirty six years. The mother of the servant served the previous generation of the family for about seventy years. Inducements of the most flattering kind failed to cause them to change their service. Such attachments are indeed rare.

We hope that none of our people will indulge in "the flattering unction" that even if the present opportunity should be lost, the Raleigh street railway will be built anyhow. Remember that "a bird in the hand is worth two in a bush." Let the present opportunity be pushed, as we are now confident it will be.

White Lawn, India Linen, check Nansook and other white goods at Woolcott & Son's.

The finest shad of the season at Uzzle's 219 Wilmington Street.

Dates 10 cents per pound at C. O. Ball & Co's.

Receipts of cotton today have been rather small. Prices rule about 8 1/2 cts.

The sales of street railway bonds yesterday ran the amount up to about $11,500 dollars. We are coming.

The suit against the rail road that was brought by Mr. Hodge has been decided in favor of the railroad.

Messrs Thos. H. Briggs & Sons tell in this issue some interesting facts. Call and see them.

New depot, new hotel, exposition, electric railway. These are the prospects for Raleigh during 1891. Good enough.

The attendance of our country friends in the city, has been today somewhat slimmer than usual on Saturdays. The farmers are doubtless busy at home.

First Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning communion service at 11 a. m. and sermon to the young and baptism of children by the pastor at 5 p. m. No services at night.

The receipts of cotton for the season in Raleigh up to April 23rd, have been 35,742 bales against 20,485, last year an increase of 15,257 bales. This is most gratifying, but we hope that the increase next season may be more.

Rt. Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, D. D. Bishop of North Carolina will administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation at Christ Church; tomorrow morning. In the afternoon the Bishop will make a visitation at St. Mary's.

The first and most important thing for every family is a home. Do you want a home? Perhaps you do, but see no way to get it. Well, we are prepared to say that you can get it. If you cannot raise enough cash to pay a small margin on one of our houses [and lots complete, you certainly can pay $5 to $10 per month for a lot. No interest added. When you have paid for your lot you can then get a house on it the same way. Every man who will, may own his home. We are offering some good lots on $5 per month. Some better ones on $10 per month until paid for. No interest added. If you don't want to build, it will pay you to buy as an investment and thus save your money. Send for our circular with full particulars.

A New Judgeship.

Under a provision of a law passed by the late Congress there will be several new circuit judges to be appointed. As we understand the matter they will constitute something of an appellate court, to meet at stated times in Richmond, Va. It is understood that Judge A. S. Seymour, District Judge of this State, is an applicant for one of the appointments, with a first class show of success. This will create a vacancy on the Federal bench in this State, which will no doubt be eagerly looked after by aspirants.

Cattle Show.

There is no good reason why we should not make a grand success of the Wake County Cattle Show, both in point of the stock on exhibition and the number of people in attendance. In order to place the expenses of a trip to Raleigh within the reach of all the R. & D. R. R. has given the following rates:

Charlotte,	$4 70
Greensboro,	2 85
Winston-Salem,	3 50
Durham,	1 20
Oxford,	2 15
Selma,	1 20
Goldsboro,	2 00

Rates from intermediate points in same proportion.
Tickets on sale May 6th and 7th, good returning May 9th.

Pig feet at C. O. Ball & Co's.

Order your fish of Uzzle; lowest prices in the city, 219 Wilmington street.

Election of President.

At a meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina Railroad held yesterday afternoon, Mr. W. F. Kornegay, of Goldsboro was chosen President in place of Gov. Holt, resigned. The selection is a most admirable one as Mr. Kornegay is justly regarded a gentleman of first class qualifications.

Ice Cellar.

Ice in any quantity, also fresh fish daily, at my cellar No. 223, S. Wilmington Street. Orders filled promptly.

U. T. E. SORRELL.

Memorial Services.

Memorial services will be held at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow evening at 5 o'clock in honor of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Garland Jones. The services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon assisted by the other clergymen of the city, who are invited to attend.

The Confederate Soldiers are requested to meet at the Supreme Court building at 4:30 p. m., and to proceed in a body to the hall.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Ladies' laced oxfords and slippers. We are showing just the newest and nicest things in ladies' low shoes and slippers that have been seen in this town. There are several new cuts that have been brought out for this season, that promise to be very popular. "Black Suede" will be more in demand than ever, and we have a large line of these desirable shoes now in stock. Our friends are cordially invited to visit our "Shoe Department" and see the choice line of goods we have provided this season.

A Good Investment.

If you have cash that you want to exchange for dry goods, and you want big value for your dollars, you should go to D. T. Swindell's great emporium; we guarantee everything that you buy there will be a genuine bargain and a good investment for you. We have reduced the price on all of our fine dress goods down to one third less than its real value; our customers are showing their appreciation of this great reduction, and are now availing themselves of this rare opportunity. We are now showing a big lot of figured challies which we are selling at 9c per yard; these goods are well worth 15c per yard; and we are selling another big lot of figured challies at 5c per yard that would be cheap at 7c. In fact our great emporium is chock full of pretty, new spring goods and each article is a real bargain.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Speaking of music, here is a true story of a well known and greatly esteemed Boston journalist to round out with:

The journalist is so far from being a musician that he is accused of being destitute of the sense of tune. One time he was rallied on this point by a lady of his acquaintance, who asked him point blank:

"Is it true, Mr. A., that you don't know one tune from another?"
"It is a fact," he said, "that I can't readily distinguish tunes apart. There are only two tunes that I really know well."

"What are they?"
"Old Hundred, and the long metre Doxology!"—Boston Transcript.
