NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

C. B. Root, Esq., is fast recuperating from his recent illness, and will soon look as well as ever.

There are a large number of bales of cotton on the platform near the R. & G. depot and the compress is busy.

A new fence is being put around the First Presbyterian church and the premises will be otherwise much improved.

The wagon belonging to the Rescue Fire company has been sent to a shop, for painting. It will be ready for further use by June 1st.

The regular meeting of the Township school committee took place at the Mayors office at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. James McKimmon will give a reception at her residence tomorrow afternoon in honor of Miss Hamilton, of Baltimore.

The Raleigh Amateur Minstrels will repeat their programme tomorrow night for the benefit of the W. R. Womble Hook and Ladder Co.

Workmen are busily engaged in grading West Martin street preparatory for paving. When finished it will be one of the prettiest thoroughfares in the city.

The funeral services of the little four year old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. W. H. Johnston, will be held at the City Cemetery tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

It is reported here today on reliable authority that about 100 bales of cotton belonging to Burt Wilder and Bill Buffalo, on the farm of Mr. Geo. Stronach about 2 1/2 miles from the city, was on fire this morning and probably all consumed.

Several of the sheriffs of the State in what are known as the tobacco counties were given by the Legislature until May 1891 in which to settle the taxes due from their respective counties. Some of these sheriffs have not yet settled.

It is desired by the Board of Health that physicians send in at once reports of all contagious and infectious diseases, also birth reports. These statements should be sent in by tomorrow so that monthly reports may be promptly made out.

Mr. D. T. Johnson received yesterday a consignment of very fine strawberries from Eastern N. C. They were bought by Messrs. J. R. Ferrall & Co., and W. B. Mann & Co., two among the most enterprising merchants of our city who always like to have something nice, new and fresh to offer to their customers. Mr. Johnson expects frequent consignments of berries and will doubtless make satisfactory prices to the trade.

The first and most important thing for every family is a home. Do you want a home? Perhaps you do, but see no way to get it. Well, we are prepared to say that you can get it. If you cannot raise enough cash to pay a small margin on one of our houses and lots complete, you certainly can pay $5 to $10 per month for a lot. No interest added. When you have paid for your lot you can then get a house on it the same way. Every man who will, may own his home. We are offering some good lots on $5 per month. Some better ones on $10 per month until paid for. No interest added. If you don't want to build, it will pay you to buy as an investment and thus save your money. Send for our circular with full particulars.

Died.

Victoria Blanch, the little five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. O'Neill, yesterday afternoon, of diphtheria. The funeral took place this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence on the corner of Martin and Bloodworth streets. Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., officiating.

Dedication Ceremonies of the New Hall of Phalanx Lodge K of P.

A large audience attended the dedicating exercises of the new hall of Phalanx Lodge, K. of P. last night over the store of Messrs Julius Lewis & Co. There were many ladies present representing St. Mary's and Peace Institute. An address was delivered by Grand Chancellor, W. S. Cook, of Fayetteville and also by Past Grand Chancellor Thos. D. Meares, of Wilmington. Messrs. S. F. Telfair, Grand Vice Chancellor, Dr. J. H. Cordon, Grand Prelate, Dr. G. W. Sanderlin, Past Grand Chancellor and E. B. Engelhard, Grand Master at Arms, also delivered appropriate addresses. After the ceremonies a nice repast was served by Mr. A. Dughi, which was highly enjoyed. Taken altogether it was an event of the most interesting kind.

Personal Mention.

We regret to hear that Mr. D. S. Wait is very sick.

Mr. R. W. Wynne is reported as being no better today.

Mrs. T. R. Parnell and children have gone to Salem on a visit to relatives and friends.

Maj. J. M. Crenshaw, of Wake Forest was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. F. Ferrall, book keeper for Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., has returned from Philadelphia where he went for treatment of his eyes.

The following persons are registered at the Yarboro: J. S. Scott, New York; J. B. Walker, Durham; W. C. Wilson; Thomasville; E. D. Myers; Richmond, Va.; T. P. Boyles, Philadelphia.

A Nuisance.

There has been considerable complaint of late about two colored beggars who take their stand on Fayetteville street, and annoy persons passing by with importunities for alms. One of these men is blind and the other considerably afflicted, and of course, are objects of sympathy. Notwithstanding this it is not thought proper that they should be allowed to annoy the public.

We learn that there is no authority on the part of our municipal officials, to arrest them or to prevent them from plying their vocation. The County Commissioners, however, have power to send the men to the poor or workhouse where they can be put at some kind of work. We learn from Mayor Thompson that he will address a letter to the Board of Commissioners next Monday requesting their action in the premises. It certainly does not favorably impress the visitor to our city, to see persons soliciting alms on our street corners.

The Mayor had a short levee today. Hop Lee, a Chinaman, complained that a colored boy had broken one of his windows, and the Mayor promised him that he should have justice in the premises. A party for using profane language on the streets was fined $5.25.
