WHY SUPPORT THE HOME PAPER.

The above question is one that can easily be answered. Because, if for no better reason, the home paper supports you. You wake up once in awhile, perhaps, and forsaking your private business in which for years you have been immersed you turn out and spend a day or an hour for the public good at the polls fighting against the re-election of a boodler, at a public meeting, talking for water works or some new enterprise, and then you turn to your pursuits, leaving the newspaper to clinch the victory or protect the retreat, as the case may be.

"If a railroad or a factory is wanted, the newspaper is expected to work for it. If a public meeting is called for any purpose, the newspaper is called upon for a free notice. If any of the societies have a supper of any kind, the newspaper is expected to give the necessary notice. The newspaper must puff the schools and everybody else to advance the interest of the business men of the place, and then give them a handsome notice when they pass away.

The newspaper man has been so long the watchman on the tower, or the man on guard, that his service in this line is taken as a matter of course, and the value of that service has fallen too far in public appreciation. "But the newspaper man is not whining. He cares not whether his service is appreciated or not—everybody who is anybody is sensitive to appreciation or the denial of it; but he knows what belongs to his guild, and knowing, he is going to continue his performance. Still when reasons are wanted for supporting the home paper it is fair to say that the newspaper should be supported because it is a public benefit, contending for the public good when the public itself is drowsy or slumbering deeply.

But that, you may say, is sentimental reason, and so it is partly. No self-respecting newspaper man would urge it alone. The strict business for supporting the home paper is that it pays, directly as well as indirectly. This is a true reason and the only proper one. Support the newspaper because it will pay you to do so. And you should give it your moral as well as your financial support."

Tunneling the Rocky Mountains.

Among the most gigantic of modern schemes may be ranked the very bold one of tunneling the Rocky Mountains. Such a project, however is said to be not only under consideration but actually under way. It is reported that the tunnel has already been driven in 300 feet on the east side into Kelso Mountains, and 1400 feet on the west side.

The two main objects of the enterprise are to obtain a direct railway route from Denver, Col., to Salt Lake City, by which the distance would be shortened 250 miles, and to strike and work the many rich ore veins are supposed to run in vertical lines through the mountains.

The number of mines expected to be tapped is more than 250. These veins are to be reached at depths varying from 1000 to 4441 feet below the tops of the mountains, thus enabling the miners to drive their workings overhead, instead of climbing to the summits and working downward. Great advantages are also claimed, both in taking care of the water and in bringing the products to the surface. The length of the proposed tunnel is to be 25,200 feet.—Iron Trade Review.

Mr. Clendenin, who married Miss Greeley the daughter of Horace Greeley, is a tall, slim, dark complexioned energetic young Episcopalian clergyman of High Church proclivities. His parish, St. Peter's, of Westchester, is one of the oldest in America, having been founded 200 years ago. He is the son of George Clendenin, of Washington, and a graduate of Columbia University and Princeton Theological Seminary. He has always been a High Church Episcopalian.

ANDREWS & GRIMES, Coal Dealers.

We call special attention to the Coal we propose to handle this season and which we are receiving daily. Kanawha, West Virginia, Splint.

Superior to any in the United States for grates and open fire places. NEW RIVER LUMP for grates and stoves. It is the equal of any and surpassed by no other (save Kanawha Splint), be it under any name whatever. It has been upon the market for the last ten years, this is the first season for Raleigh and North Carolina. We have the New River for steam also, which we will put by the side of any other coal and guarantee equal, if not better results.

We are the agents for this coal and can ship for domestic and steam users to Charlotte, Henderson, Durham, Winston, Oxford and other points direct from the mines. Give it a trial, is what we ask.

HARD COAL

We have also a very choice lot of Red and White Ash for grates and stoves, which we screen before sending to our customers. Buy now and save money. Write for prices. Oak, hickory and pine WOOD, wood, long or cut, on hand all the time.
