NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

There could not have been lovelier weather for the cattle show.

See specials of R. S. Uzzle's in this issue.

The directors of Greensboro Female College have decided to have the building lighted by electricity.

A match game of base ball between the Oak City and National teams is in progress this afternoon at Athletic Park.

J. S. Dillard, of this city, is the soliciting agent of the colored department of the Southern Immigration Bureau.

Our former townsman, Mr. Joseph A. Harris, has been elected Mayor of Hillsboro for the sixth time. Score another for a Raleigh boy.

There will be an important meeting of the "Progressive Benefit Order" tonight at the usual place. It is important that every member should be present.

S. F. TELFAIR, Secretary

The board of county commissioners have been engaged during today in investigating the poll tax insolvent list.

The indications are that there will be a large crowd in attendance at the Memorial services next Monday. There is a general desire to hear Gen. W. R. Cox who will deliver the address.

The health of the prisoners in the penitentiary is said to be unusually good. There are but few cases of sickness on the list, and these are not serious.

June is the month of all others which the average school girl looks forward to with delight. Dreams of commencement exercises and the "dear ones at home" are frequent.

Capt. Octavius Coke, Chief Marshal of memorial day requests that all Confederate veterans in this and adjoining counties who can do so, will procure horses and assist him next Monday.

A pile of wool weighing 1 1/4 pounds was on exhibition at the cattle show today. It was one clipping from an Oxford down sheep, owned by Maj. R. S. Tucker.

We hope the builders of the new electric street car system will take into consideration the plan of a belt railway around the city. It would be a grand scheme, and would add thousands of dollars to the worth of real estate in the suburbs as well as the city proper.

Ex-Mayor Thompson informs us that he received today rather discouraging news from his farm five miles from the city. He says that while the frost yesterday morning did not damage his cotton generally, yet it was hurt somewhat in streaks, probably rendering it necessary to replant.

Capt. W. H. Green, General Manager of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, has just emerged from a long siege of the grippe. It is useless for the disease to try to trip a man who has his "grip" on eight thousand miles of railroad.

A gentleman from the north on his way to Florida was sitting in the capitol square this morning gazing upon the surrounding scenery. He said Raleigh was the prettiest city he had seen since he entered "Dixie." He will go further and still entertain the same opinion.

A few days ago Mr. E. T. Whitehead's horse was eating fodder near a crack in the fence. A fine Jersey calf fourteen months old, reached its tongue through the crack for the fodder, when the horse bit the calf's tongue off, and it is supposed he ate it, as the piece could not be found. He had to have the calf killed.—Scotland Neck Democrat.

The Convention of Northern Settlers will meet in Raleigh on May 27th.

Mr. G. S. Baker, of Louisville, paid us a visit this afternoon.

Ex Lieut. Governor C. M. Stedman will take up his permanent residence in Asheville.

The educational conference at Durham closed yesterday. It is pronounced a great success.

We were pleased to see Dr. J. B. Dunn attending the cattle show today. He is fast recovering from his recent severe illness.

Evangelist Fife says that the conversions at his meetings in Salisbury numbered 200. He will commence his meetings in Charlotte June 2d.

The indications are now that the temperature will continue to rise until Saturday. A long farewell to frost.

There is a lady in Raleigh who danced at the ball given LaFayette at the "Governors Palace" in 1825. She was only seven years old then.

An effort will be made, we learn, to obtain the services of a celebrated band of music from New York for the coming exposition.

The democratic caucus for the selection of municipal officials is expected to take place tonight. Tomorrow night the new board of aldermen will meet when, no doubt, the officers will be elected.

The second story now being put on the building used for the officials of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Co., will soon be completed rendering it one of the finest of the kind in the south.

If the "Badger" administration will keep pace with those of their illustrious predecessors, the city of Raleigh in the next two years will be the prettiest and most progressive in the South.

John Moore, a colored man in the city of Greensboro, has a hen which is twelve years old, and every season for eleven years has raised a brood of chickens. She has been in the possession of the present owner for eight years.

Sensible.

P. T. Barnum, the great showman said—"I owe my success to a liberal use of printer's ink, judiciously distributed. I don't care what the newspapers say about me so long as they say something."

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of Raleigh Typographical Union held last night, the following officers were elected:

President—T. O. Faucette.
Vice President—George W. O'Neal.
Treasurer—C. E. Harward.
Secretary—E. S. Cheek.
Sergeant at Arms—Simeon Smith.
Reading Clerk—Robt. E. Lee.

Transferred.

A dispatch has been received in this city from Mr. F. P. Lewis, who is now in Atlanta, Ga., stating that he has been transferred for duty on the electric railway of Memphis, Tenn. Mr. J. G. McKenny will be in charge of the construction department in Raleigh. Mr. Lewis made many warm friends here who will regret his departure.

Horrible Murder.

An old man named Simeon Conoly was murdered a few days since, in Roberson county, and it has leaked out that the crime was committed by a nephew named A. Mc. Dougal, a prominent merchant of Laurinburg for the purpose of getting the amount of insurance on the life of his uncle, for his benefit. The murderer blacked himself with lamp black and going to Conoly's house called him out to show a pathway. Going along McDougal shot his victim. The murderer was afterwards seen in the act of washing his clothes in Lumber River. There is great excitement over the matter, and the commissioners of the county have offered a big reward for the criminal.

Died.

At his residence, 315 South McDowell street, at 12 o'clock today, Mr. S. T. O'Neill, in the 49th year of his age. Mr. O'Neill was city weighmaster, a position which he had held for several years. He was a native of Georgia, reared in South Carolina and moved to Raleigh in 1861. He leaves a widow and one son to mourn their loss, with whom we deeply sympathize.

The funeral will take place from the Church of the Good Shepherd at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Georgia and South Carolina papers please copy.

At Uzzle's, 219 S. Wilmington street, this p. m. Finest blue fish. Remember Uzzle.

The Cattle Show.

The fine weather today brought out a considerable crowd to see the seventh annual show of the Wake County Cattle Club, although the attendance was not as large as on some previous occasions. There is a fine display of horses and cattle but the entries are not so numerous as heretofore. The incoming trains this morning swelled the attendance considerably, and several additions were made today to the list published in the VISITOR yesterday.

THE PARADE.

At 12:30 o'clock the street parade of horses and cattle took place. The route laid down was up Morgan to Wilmington street, thence north up Wilmington to Edenton street, thence west to Salisbury street, thence to Morgan and from thence to Fayetteville street, down Fayetteville to Cabarrus street. The procession returned to the stables by the way of Wilmington street. A special feature of the procession were the horses of Capt. B. P. Williamson.

The procession was headed by the Raleigh colored band.

A large crowd of people mainly citizens of Raleigh, lined the sidewalks during the procession, among them many ladies who manifested the greatest interest in the occasion.

Uzzle will have this afternoon one barrel of fine trout. See him. Uzzle, 219 S. Wilmington street.

The Attractions at Headquarters for the Month of May.

One of the attractions at headquarters for the month of May is a big job lot of white goods that we bought very cheap and which we are selling at 25 per cent less than its real value. These goods are rare bargains and are selling very fast. If you need anything in white goods it will be to your interest to examine our immense stock before buying. Our big slaughter dress goods sale will continue until we move in our new store on Fayetteville street. These goods are marked down less than the wholesale price, and are going rapidly. If you want a fine dress you now have an opportunity of getting it at less than one half its real value. We are also exhibiting an immense assortment of ready made clothing and shoes and slippers which we are selling at a real bargain. In fact, our great emporium is packed from floor to ceiling with pretty new goods, all of which are great bargains.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
