NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Messrs. W. B. Mann & Co. have a new and beautiful delivery wagon.

Cotton seed is in demand in consequence of the frost.

There was no news at any of the departments in the capitol today.

The new Board of Aldermen will meet tonight for the election of officers and other business.

A number of prominent persons from different sections of the State are expected to attend the Memorial services in this city, next Monday.

Two mad-dogs were killed near Cary yesterday. It is reported that there are several more in that section that need killing.

A caucus of the Democratic Aldermen was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of nominating City Clerk, Chief of Police &c.

The North Carolina Teacher for April is before us. It is a splendid number of special interest, prominent among which is an account of the teachers visit to Paris.

There will be a meeting of the W. R. Womble Hood and Ladder Company at their rooms tonight at 8 o'clock.

The Oxford Day says that Granville county will have a large representation in Raleigh at the Immigration Convention on the 13th inst.

The number of convicts received at the penitentiary this spring, so far, has been under the average. This speaks well for the improvement of the morals of the people in the several counties.

Ice cream and strawberry festivals will soon be in order. How would it do for our ladies to get up an entertainment for the benefit of the Soldiers Home?

The dedication of the Soldiers Home next Monday will be an interesting and imposing event. We look for a large crowd of ex confederates to be present.

"Tob" Marshall the faithful janitor of Metropolitan Hall caused a most beautiful bouquet to be placed on the desk of Mayor Badger this morning. "Tob" keeps his department in "apple pie" order.

There will be a meeting of the Retail Grocers' Protective Association tonight at 8 o'clock at the office of Mr. J. S. Wynne, over the store of Messrs. Mann & Co., corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets.

Among the visitors to Raleigh next Monday will be Mrs. Ramseur and Miss Ramseur, the wife and daughter of Gen. Ramseur, whose life and services will be the theme of the orator of the day. Mrs. Judge Schenck, also a daughter of Gen. Ramseur, will be in attendance.

Mayor Badger has started out on his duties with a determination that order shall prevail in Raleigh, and offenders may as well make up their minds that they cannot disturb the public peace with impunity. He is disposed at all times to be just, but at the same time justice will be so dispensed that the laws shall be vigorously enforced.

Merchants generally advertise for all the trade they can get and under ordinary circumstances Whiting Bros. do too, but in simple justice to their salesmen, they request their friends and patrons to try and do their shopping between the hours of 6 o'clock a. m., and 11 o'clock p. m., Saturdays. They want to give their employees time to go home and shave and take a nap before going to Sunday school. Last Saturday night they had to hustle out a crowd of buyers just as the clock was about to strike 12 p. m.

I have all the fishing tackle you are looking for. L. D. WOMBLE.

The New Depot.

We are much pleased to learn that there will be no break in the work on the new union depot, if no unforeseen circumstance takes place. In this event, we can reasonably hope that the building will be ready for the reception of passengers by the coming fall. It would be of the greatest convenience if the building could be in readiness by the time of the opening of the exposition in October, and we hope it will be.

Baptist Convention.

The following ladies and gentlemen from this section have gone to the Southern Baptist Convention at Birmingham, Ala: Miss Fannie Heck, Miss Vellie Page, Morrisville; Rev. Dr. C. Durham, Rev. Dr. Bailey, Col. Heck, J. C. Scarborough, Rev. Dr. Santerlin, G. W. Greene, Wake Forest.

Appointments.

The following gentlemen have been appointed by the board of county commissioners as delegates to the Real Estate Convention which meets in this city on the 13th: B. P. Williamson, P. H. Mangum, L. D. Stephenson, A. C. Green and Julius Lewis.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Raleigh District M. E. Church, South, will meet in annual session at Edenton street Sunday school room, on Saturday, the 9th, at 10 a. m. The members of Edenton street and Central auxiliaries and Bright Jewels, and all who feel an interest in missionary work, are invited to be present.

Dr. J. H. Cordon will preach a special sermon on woman's work in missions at 11 a. m. on Sunday, the 10th.

MRS. R. H. WHITAKER,
District Secretary.

The train from Greensboro will arrive in Raleigh at 1:25, as now.

The fast freight and passenger train will leave for Greensboro at 1:30 a. m., and will arrive in Raleigh at 7:15 a. m.

There is no change in the Keysville train leaving Raleigh, but arrives at 7:08 p. m.

The Real Estate Convention.

We hope our citizens will give their usual hearty welcome to this body which meets here on the 13th inst. It is something new for such an interest as that of real estate to meet in consultation. But the very novelty is one reason why it should attract pleased attention. The existence of such a body, and confident of its usefulness, is a mark of progress. It is safe to say that it is the real estate men who have aroused Southern towns from their habitual lethargy, who have thrived them up and put them in motion. It is the real estate men who have taught the citizens of towns and cities the value of their possessions and the extent of their resources; who have set in motion all the new springs of social and municipal life; who have urged and introduced the modern appliances and improvements essential to comfort, conveniences and safety of modern existence, and in doing so, have enhanced the value of the old parts of towns and cities, and in so doing have compelled them to enlarge their borders.

We therefore welcome this convention with unmixed satisfaction.

Sewing machines and organs at W. S. Uzzle's, 12 E. Hargett street.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Badger had quite a protracted levee this morning caused from the disorderly conduct of several denizens of a disreputable house on West Cabarrus street. The evidence was of a most shocking and disgusting character. A fine of $5 and cost was imposed, with a warning that if they again make their appearance before his honor they would not fare so well.

A colored boy named Alex Long was charged with being drunk and disorderly for which he was fined $5 and cost.

The Coming Exposition.

Everything points to the amplest success in the purpose to make the exposition in October and November the most striking event in our social, not to say industrial history. It is something for the people of Raleigh and of this section to reflect upon and prepare for. Think of it. For two months, not to speak of those which precede the opening of the exposition, visitors will be pouring into it from every point of the compass, from every part of this broad Union. Already this railroad of the far Northwest signify their purpose to facilitate the movements of their people in this direction. So do the authorities of the Northern roads; so do those of the West and South. From every quarter come expressions of encouragement and pleasant anticipation. Of course we will not suffer them to be disappointed. But we must not accept success as a matter of course. Like the attainment of every other worthy human aim, success must be worked for. Let us all keep our minds fixed upon it, and we will achieve it.

Important Announcement.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS!—It is a well known fact that we are going to vacate the store we now occupy and in order to close out as near as possible, our entire stock will be offered at a very close shave on New York cash prices. Profits will be sacrificed. Cost will not be considered in prices made to clear out every line of goods. Such an opportunity seldom occurs and such advantages will be harvested by the prudent, thoughtful and wise. Come early and make a tour of inspection. Let us quote you the prices.

This announcement is very important and concerns you. Our lines of dress goods, silks, velvets, white goods, laces, embroideries, hosiery, corsets, gloves, shoes, straw hats, parasols and wash dress goods of every description are especially inviting.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE.

Do You Need White Dress Goods

See what Swindell has in white goods before you buy, because it is your interest to do so. You have no idea what good values can be had at Swindell's in white goods. We have a very big stock of white goods, and we bought these white goods from a concern which is retiring from business and we got them for right much less than the goods cost to make, and we are selling them for right much less than the same quality can be bought elsewhere. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Now about our fine dress goods sale. We are still selling our nice dress goods at the exact wholesale cost of same; and from present indications we will not have any dress goods to move in our new store. This is no false alarm but a genuine sale. Do not fail to go to Swindell's when you go shopping. It will pay you handsomely.

Yours truly,
D. T. SWINDELL.
