The outing of the legal fraternity, in the shape of a barbecue at Milburnie last Saturday, was a great success.

From Bethel to Appomattox they sealed their devotion with their blood. Let us honor them to the last syllable of recorded time.

The new press ordered for the State Chronicle has arrived. It is said to be the best in all its arrangements ever brought to North Carolina.

A prominent lawyer said today that almost every day these times was non dies. Nothing doing in the lawyers' line.

The well on the capitol square has been thoroughly cleaned out and the water is now about as good as any in the city. It is the earnest desire of the keeper of the capitol that the utmost care should be taken by all who get water not to throw anything into the well. Such a course will be in strict violation of the rules governing the grounds and will not be tolerated.

OUR LAMENTED DEAD.

Solemn and Appropriate Services and a Large Crowd Present.

The ceremonies incident to memorial day were observed in this city today with unusual interest. There was a large crowd in attendance, the ladies turning out in force and gracing the occasion with all that energy and patriotic devotion that so characterizes the ladies of the South. The fact that it had been determined to dedicate the Soldier's Home, thereby evincing a commendable interest in the living as well as the dead heroes of the Confederacy, gave additional interest to the event, and brought to our city a considerable number of persons from the surrounding country.

METROPOLITAN HALL,

under the auspices of the Ladies Memorial Association, was decorated today in a most tasteful manner. Beautiful floral designs were arranged for the galleries and stage, presenting a scene of beauty unsurpassed at any other previous occasion of the kind. One of the most striking features is a finely executed and admirable oil painting of Gen. Ramseur, furnished by Hon. D. Schenck, of Greensboro, a brother in law of the distinguished soldier.

THE EXERCISES.

Promptly at 3:30 o'clock, in accordance with the programme laid down, the solemn exercises opened with music by the choir with the accompaniment of Prof. Paul's most admirable orchestra, after which a prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter. This was followed by some beautiful and appropriate selections rendered by ladies and gentlemen of the city. Hon. Wm. R. Cox then delivered a most beautiful, touching and masterly oration on the life, character and services of the distinguished Confederate soldier, Gen. S. D. Ramseur. The address is pronounced by those competent to judge to have been unsurpassed by any similar effort of the kind, and fully established the reputation of Gen. Cox as one of the foremost orators of our State.

At the conclusion of the address, a most touching tribute in song was rendered by Misses Mamie Robins and Mamie Cowper, after which the procession formed in front of the hall and proceeded to the Soldier's Home, at the eastern extremity of New Berne avenue, which was formally dedicated by a masterly address from Gov. Thos. M. Holt. The ceremonies at the Home were of the most touching nature and participated in by a very large crowd of ladies and gentlemen.

During the exercises at the hall the building was filled to its utmost capacity with people from the city and surrounding country, all seemingly anxious to pay just tributes to the memory of North Carolina's fallen heroes.

AT THE CEMETERY

the usual observances of decorating the graves took place, which, as we go to press, were still in progress. Altogether the event has been in all respects most creditable to our citizens and especially to the noble ladies of the Memorial Association.

The sale of building lots in northeast Raleigh has been an immense success. The number of lots sold has exceeded our most sanguine expectations. The purchasers are such people as any one will be pleased to have for neighbors. We shall continue the sale at present prices until June 1st. At that date the prices of all lots will be advanced 10 to 25 per cent. Remember that the lots are sold at very low prices now, and on small monthly payments; no interest added. Send for our circular of description and prices. No such opportunity for investment has ever been offered in this city. Buy one of these lots and thus put a small amount of money each month where it will soon double itself.

If War Should be Declared

by the Italian Government, against the United States, then the Italian army will be hauled across Uncle Sam's knee and receive a severe spanking, but this will make no difference with the big dress goods sale now going on at Swindell's; the sale will go right on, all of our dress goods are to be sold before we move and no more than wholesale cost will be asked for them. This dress goods sale is an opportunity rarely ever seen in a community, and all who avail themselves of the sale can but be benefited because the goods cannot be bought anywhere else as low. Now do not buy white goods till you first see what we have. We are positive we can sell white goods much lower than anyone else.

Yours truly, D. T. SWINDELL
