NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Cotton still rules very low, but receipts quite heavy for the season.

The rain has proved a great lift to gardens in this vicinity.

Cool northeaster and overcoats not uncomfortable this morning.

Quite a number of the Kings Daughters came down on the train from the west this afternoon.

Strawberries plentiful and very fine variety now selling at 10 cents a quart.

The sheriff of Caswell county settled his taxes with the State Treasurer today.

A meeting of the Directors of the Insane Asylum took place yesterday afternoon and transacted the usual routine business.

We are under obligations to the senior class of Wake Forest College for a most beautifully gotten up invitation to attend the commencement exercises on June 8th to 11th.

Col. Wm. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson will deliver an address this evening at 8:30 o'clock. This will be an interesting part of the convention at which the ladies are invited to attend.

Mr. Patrick's assertion that he is more interested in the street railway than in the hotel, just now, shows the importance of an early commencement of the enterprise. The street railway will be the tocsin for the success of the Exposition. No doubt about that.

Only a headache cure. The only headache cure, but the infallible headache cure is Bradycrotin. M11 6t

We are sorry to learn from Col. J. D. Cameron, that Col. Nat Atkinson, of Asheville is sick and therefore will not be in Raleigh in attendance upon the Industrial Convention which meets today at 5 p. m., in the Hall of the House of Representatives.

Gen. F. B. Chilton, the General Manager of the Southern Inter-State Immigration Bureau has returned from his late home in Texas, bringing with him his children and their governess Mrs. Chilton having accompanied the General on his first arrival and remained while he went for the remaining members of his family. North Carolina may congratulate herself on securing, in the coming of Gen. Chilton, one of the liveliest Immigration men and general upbuilders to be found. He has had much to do with the boom that has attracted the hundreds of thousands of settlers into the State of Texas annually for several years. We extend to him and his family a most cordial welcome.

Died.

At her residence on Fayetteville street in this city this morning between 11 and 12 o'clock, Mrs. Mary E. Bretsch, wife of Mr. Chas. Bretsch, aged 27 years leaving a husband, two children and other relatives to mourn their loss, with whom we deeply sympathize.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock from the church of the Sacred Heart.

Something for the Farmer Boys

Mr. F. B. Chilton, General Manager, advertises in this issue for forty farmer boys to be employed in connection with the Southern Exposition for a period of several months during which they will receive good pay and be taught carpentry and music. This is a most unusual opportunity, with remarkable privileges, for the pay is good, and the boys are paid, instead of paying for their instruction. Every boy will come out at the end of his service better fitted to make his way in the world.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 61. I. O. O. F. tomorrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. Every member earnestly requested to be on hand. Business of importance to be transacted. Regular night for the conferring of the first degree. Candidates for the same will not fail to present themselves at 8 o'clock promptly.

St. Johns' Hospital.

We are informed that the Treasury of this noble Charity is about empty, although there are several patients under treatment. It should be remembered by our people that, at least, for a year or so yet, this will be the only refuge of the unfortunate in Raleigh, and it should, by all means, be sustained.

It has been suggested that the daily papers of Raleigh appeal to the citizens for contributions publishing the names of all who may contribute. The Visitor will enter heartily into this arrangement, and sincerely hopes that the scheme may meet with ample success.

Let the noble Institution be aided to all the extent possible.

A Young Adventurer.

Charley Vickers, a little fellow who says he is somewhere between the age of 13 and 16 put in his appearance in the city, yesterday afternoon. Charley was worn out having walked from Oxford on his way to Goldsboro where he says he has an aunt who will take care of him. He says he left the Oxford Orphan Asylum by running away some time ago, and since that time he has been working his way in the world as best he could. He says his latest employment was at a knitting factory in Oxford. Charley was taken in charge last night by a charitable citizen who furnished him with food and lodging and this morning reported the case to Chief of Police Hartt, who promised to aid the little fellow in the matter of transportation to Goldsboro. As it was too late for the 9 o'clock train this morning he was given the freedom of the city for a while. We think he left on the train this afternoon. He is a bright boy and we hope he may yet turn out all right.

Personal Mention.

Representative Pritchard, of Madison, is in the city.

Mr. E. Ross, of Chicago, is at the Yarboro.

Col. W. H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson, is in the city.

Capt. G. W. Charlotte, editor of the Asheville Courier, is in the city.

Mr. W. T. Dortch, of Goldsboro, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Dr. Nash is thought to be some better today.

Mrs. A. M. Powell is about the same except she is possibly more quiet to day.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall is much improved. His mother in law Mrs. Bartlett, is also a great deal better.

We are pleased to see our old friend John A. Williams, Esq., of Oxford, in the city, in attendance upon the Industrial convention.

Messrs. Samuel Crocker and R. G. Upchurch will in a few days commence the manufacture of candy at their place of business on East Martin street.

We note the following gentlemen in the city today: B. P. Beard, Salisbury; W. G. Egerton, Macon; Paul B. Means, Concord; Col. Thomas B. Keogh, Greensboro; J. A. Williams, Oxford.

The Wilmington Star says: The revival meeting at Fifth Street M. E. Church, closed Saturday night. One hundred and fifty professions of religion are reported as a result of the meetings.

Have your lace curtains done up at the Oak City Steam Laundry in first class style. L. R. Wyatt's special horse and cow food going like hot cakes. A trial will convince you that it is the best on the market. mh19 tf

Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Chamber took place last night in the Mayor's office. Mr. C. G. Latta, the President, being absent, Mr. W. G. Upchurch was called to the chair.

The matter of hotel accommodations for visitors to the coming exposition, was discussed.

Mr. E. G. Harrell said that the electric railway was in sight, and there was a prospect for an auditorium, but that the hotel question had not, so far, assumed a satisfactory shape. He anticipated a large crowd in Raleigh during the exposition and thought it probable that a thousand or fifteen hundred persons would need daily accommodations.

Mr. Raney, proprietor of the Yarboro House, stated that large additions would be made to the capacity of the hotel, and he thought all would be able to get accommodations.

Mr. Pogue thought the gathering would be very large, and the hotel matter was of the utmost importance.

Mr. W. N. Jones urged the establishment of a general intelligence office where all visitors could report and be looked after.

Mr. Patrick made a most encouraging speech relative to the prospects of the exposition. He said he had a large force of clerks now employed which would be increased during the months of August and September. The exposition will be largely advertised, and this will bring a great crowd. He did not wish to be held responsible for the taking care of the crowd, but if he failed to get the exhibit and the crowd here then it will be his funeral. He had done nothing as yet in heavy advertising, but in a short time he would put out $10,000 worth of lithograph. He had secured free transportation for all Northern newspaper correspondents who would in return write up the South. There can be no doubt but that there will be a large crowd. There will be a temporary building erected near the Exposition grounds which will accommodate 360 persons. He was more interested in the completion of the street railway line just now than the hotel question. Just as soon as the electric street railroad was ready for operation, he was ready to open the permanent exhibition, but until there was some other means of reaching the Exposition grounds than carriages and hacks, he could not risk running an excursion to Raleigh.

Messrs. W. N. Jones and J. E. Pogue were appointed as committee to co-operate with Mr. Patrick upon hotel accommodations. They will report at an adjourned meeting. Mr. Pogue was selected to look after an ordinance for carriage rates &c.

Forty Farmer Boys]

Eighteen to thirty years old can get employment at once, at the Southern Inter State Exposition, Raleigh, N. C., under competent carpenters, thereby learning a trade that will help them during life. Part of the number will be instructed in band music. Employment will last until December 1st, 1891. Wages fifteen dollars per month and one suit of regulation uniform. Comfortable quarters furnished free. No one who drinks or uses profane language need apply. Make application in writing giving full particulars as to education, &c., with a letter of endorsement from some minister.

Address. F. B. CHILTON, General Manager, Raleigh, N. C.

The Asheville Journal, in its local columns, says: "Rumor has it that the 'Immortal J. N., the Philosopher,' will lecture at the court house on Thursday evening, May 14th, on 'Truth vs Force, or reconciliation of Blue and the Gray.'" To one at a distance this seems a little mixed, and to one not in possession of what seems hinted at, it needs some explanation. What connection there is between the philosophy of "Truth vs Force," the reconciliation of the "Blue and the Gray" doesn't appear at a glance.

GENTS STRAW HATS.—A better line we have never shown. First and nicest of all are the Dunlap straw hats. They, like the Dunlap fur hats, cannot be excelled by any manufacturer in the country. Then we have men's stylish straw hats, which do not come quite so high in price, are good, and the styles are correct. In fact, we have now a stock of straw hats from which we can suit almost any one. We have a particularly nice line of not by styles for young men, showing the very latest city shapes. Come and choose your straw hat before the lot gets picked over.

Are Going.

We are going to move in our new store on Fayetteville street in August and we want to sell as much of our present stock as possible by that time, and in order to do this we have reduced the prices on many lines. Since we have made this great reduction we have had a very flattering trade. Every one who has seen the great bargains that we are now offering seems to appreciate their value, and avail themselves of this rare opportunity of getting more goods for a dollar than they ever bought before. Our trade on the big lot of dress goods that we have reduced to less than one half its real value, is increasing every day. Anyone wishing a nice dress will find it to their interest to examine our stock before buying. We are now offering greater bargains than ever before in men's, youth's and boy's clothing and in shoes and slippers.

Yours truly, D. T. SWINDELL.
