NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

The Register of Deeds issued one marriage license to day.

The people of Charlotte anticipated a large crowd in attendance to day.

About 10 o'clock this morning, quite a lively crowd of young persons went out to Rand's mill on a pic nic.

Commencement exercises are now all the talk, and will be for several months to come.

It is estimated that about five hundred persons will go on the excursion on the Baptist Tabernacle to New-Berne on the 26th inst.

The Railroad Commissioners are busily engaged in hearing the representatives of the various railroads on the subject of passenger and freight rates. Several days will no doubt be consumed in the matter.

The new machinery for the wagon factory has arrived, and, when put in operation there will be a turn out of fifteen wagons a day. Mr. Powell, from the Studebaker works at South Bend, Indiana, is the foreman.

The Oil Mills have shut down for the season, which has proven the most complete success. There have been 7189 tons of seeds pressed, yielding 42 gallons of oil to the ton. About 40 hands were employed.

It is expected that the encampment of the State Guard will commence at Wrightsville on the 18th of July and end on the 25th. It is expected that the entire brigade will be present.

The different railroads in this State, have generously agreed to give free transportation to all ex-confederate soldiers coming to Raleigh to enter the Soldiers Home.

Today is the one hundred and sixteenth anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, about which there has been so much discussion and division of opinion.

The game of base ball at Athletic Park, yesterday afternoon between the Raleigh and Durham clubs, resulted in victory for the former, by score of 23 to 5.

We hope that all our people who are able to do so, will give of their means to aid the Soldiers Home. Donations of the necessities of life, books, furniture, &c., will be thankfully received, and should be reported to Mr. W. C. Stronach, of this city.

The commencement exercises at Peace Institute in this city, will begin on Friday night, 29th inst. The sermon will be preached by Rev. T. P. Barclay, D. D., of Fayetteville. On June 1st, at 8 p. m., the regular exercises will take place and on June 2, the annual concert will take place.

The delay in the hanging of the negro Bradham who murdered the Italian lately in Charlotte, is caused from the fact that the papers from the Supreme Court have not yet been certified to the Governor. The execution will hardly take place before July.

The Clerk of the Superior Court was engaged this morning in sending out notices to guardians, &c., to come forward and renew their bonds and make annual statements. There has been much neglect in this matter, and, as the penalties of the law may be inflicted it would be well for all concerned to heed the warning.

"Life has been a burden to me for past 50 years on account of great suffering from very severe and frequent headaches. Bradyrotine has done wonders for me. I am now a new man and shall proclaim the merits of your medicine to all I can reach."—Geo. P. Fowler, Attorney at law, Palatka, Florida, may 18 6t.

Died.

At his residence in this city this morning, after a painful illness, Mr. Alfred N. Pool, aged about 25 years.

Special Notice.

Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 61, I. O. O. F., will meet in special communication, tonight at 8 o'clock, sharp, for the purpose of making arrangements for attending the funeral of our deceased brother Alfred N. Pool. Members of Manteo Lodge fraternally invited to attend. PH. THEIM, Secretary.

Funeral.

The last sad rites over the remains of the late Mrs. Lizzie J. Separk was held this morning from the First Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock, and was conducted by Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, assisted by Rev. J. H. Cordon. The interment was in Oakwood cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful, the following gentlemen acted as pallbearers: Messrs. W. J. Young, J. W. Cooper, L. S. Ellison, Chas. Kleuppeltburg, J. B. Jordan and J. F. Cordes.

A Pleasant Time.

On Friday night next, the young ladies Auxiliary of the Agricultural and Mechanical College will give a lawn party at the former residence of Mr. J. C. L. Harris, on the Hillsboro road near the fair grounds. Refreshments in the way of ice cream &c., will be served, which department will be presided over by Messrs. Addie and Maude Harris. All who desire to spend a pleasant evening, should attend.

An Inhuman Act—A White Infant Found in a Vacant Lot.

This morning early a colored boy was attracted to a vacant lot near South street, at a point near the North Carolina Railroad, by the cries of an infant. Going to the place, he discovered a white female child snugly stored away in a basket. The boy at once came to the station house and reported the case, when policemen were sent to look after the matter. They found the child as reported. It is a well developed handsome little girl apparently about two months old, clothed in good style with several other articles of clothing, &c., lying around loosely. The infant was wrapped up in a red shawl. It was taken in charge and given to a nurse who will retain it until some other arrangement can be made. In the meantime every effort will be made to ferret out the mother, and ascertain the parentage of the child. It is an act of the most inhuman kind, and we sincerely hope the vile perpetrators may be found out, and made to pay the penalty.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Last night a stranger made his appearance at the Yarboro House, stating that his sister would be up on the next train from Selma. He hung around the hotel for sometime and went off. When the train arrived the woman was aboard and was noticed to have a baby, a basket and a red shawl. The party left this morning on the 11:30 train over the R. & G. Railroad, purchasing a ticket to Portsmouth. Chief of Police Heatt had a warrant issued for assault, and telegraphed to have the woman arrested which was done. A later dispatch was received stating that there was trouble about the matter presumably about some technicality or defect in the warrant. A still later dispatch was received stating that the woman was about to get away, and asking that an officer be immediately sent to Henderson. The city attorney being absent, the Mayor and Chief of Police engaged Messrs. E. Chambers Smith and W. N. Jones, who were in consultation on the case when our report closed. The name of the woman is, for prudential reasons, withheld for the present. The man registered as Edwards and sister.

To Rent.

North Carolina Independence.

This is the 20th of May, a day on which it is claimed, one hundred and sixteen years ago, May 20th, 1775, the first regular declaration of principles, whereby the separation of the colonies from the mother country was announced, took place in Charlotte, Mecklenburg county. There are a few if any public events connected with our revolutionary history that have been more widely discussed, or been the subject of more diversity of opinion. We do know that on the day mentioned, there was a public meeting held at Charlotte, and we do know that resolutions were passed. We know further that these resolutions contained words and sentences almost identical with those incorporated in the National declaration as purported to have been written by Thos. Jefferson a year later. Now the Charlotte meeting in 1775 could not possibly have been copied from the Philadelphia meeting of 1776, and hence, if there was any copying the latter must have been copied from the former. At any rate as true North Carolinians, we will accept this view of the matter, and take it for granted that North Carolina was the first State to promulgate the patriotic ideas that animated the people of those times.

Let us all accept the situation, and conclude that old man Jefferson got his cue from tar heel inspiration.

A Great Removal Sale.

It is a well known fact that the Racket store is to be removed shortly to the Norris & Carter store, which will be one of the largest stores in the South when completed. It will reach from Fayetteville street clear through to Salisbury street, 210 feet long. The building has been bought by D. T. Swindell, and is now being rebuilt. In August we will occupy this mammoth store. We shall endeavor from this day on to clean out as nearly all of our present stock as possible; many lines of goods are being sold for a little bit less than cost. We have a very large stock, perhaps the largest stock in Raleigh, of such goods as the majority of people need. Now we mean business and the benefit is mutual for you and for me. A few startling prices will convince you.

All of our nice dress goods at actual cost; impossible to give prices of these, there are so many kinds. All carpets must go. All wool ingrain carpets, beautiful pattern, 55 cents per yard, a few better grades at a little more.

Cotton ingrain carpets as low as 17 cents per yard.

This is the time of all times to get white dress goods cheap. All pongee's satins, challies, outing cloths and every line of wash goods to be slaughtered. Many thousand dollars worth of shoes are included in this, clearing out sale. Many lines of shoes will be sold for some less than they cost. All of our medium weight clothing will be offered during this sale at right much less than cost.

On all pants goods the price has been greatly reduced.

We have a very large stock of straw hats for men and for women and children, and our straw goods will share the fate of all other lines, they must be sold. Our special line of ladies' straw hats, white, black, brown, and only ten cents each is asked for them. This sale touches every line of goods in our store, and if you are to buy any kind of goods we keep, you cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

Yours Truly,

D. T. SWINDELL
