

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL XXV.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1891:

NO. 23

A Grand Offer—Two Papers For the Price of One.

For the next sixty days we will give a years' subscription to the Weekly Philadelphia Times and the DAILY EVENING VISITOR for one year for three dollars in advance; or we will furnish the Weekly Times and the WEEKLY VISITOR one year for one dollar cash in advance.

The Philadelphia Times is one of the best weekly newspapers published in the country. It is a bright, spicy, newsy 16 page paper.

The VISITOR is published in the interest of North Carolina, sparkling with newsy and interesting matter, either paper is worth double the price charged for both. Don't fail to avail yourself of this extraordinary offer. Two first rate papers for half the value of one.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

The market was glutted with cherries this morning.

The Internal Revenue receipts at Winston last week were $13,152.

The cases docketed so far, for the next term of the Superior Court are few.

The social gathering at the residence of Rev. Dr. J. S. Watkins last night, was an enjoyable occasion.

Ex-Sheriff Hoskins, of Guilford, has paid into the State Treasury $16,271.61 as taxes for 1890.

The Sunday School room of the Baptist Tabernacle is being entirely renovated to suit the growing attendance.

Mr. Patrick says there is more railroads co-operating for the coming exposition than ever before. This is good news and indicates complete success.

Several witnesses in the matter of the "abandoned infant" went down to Henderson this morning to be present at the trial of the habeas corpus case which came up this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All the privileges for the right of way for the railroad from the N. C. road to the Caraleigh Cotton Mills have been secured, and the route will be commenced at an early day.

Mr. Thomas Pence has fixed up a splendid refrigerator at his stall in the market in which meats can be kept in first class condition during the weather.

Matters are being pushed at the fair grounds getting ready for the Exposition. There are now about thirty carpenters at work and considerable lumber is arriving for the main building.

Col. W. M. Pickett, member of the House of Representatives, from Anson county, will leave about the 1st of June for a trip through Texas in the interest of the Southern Interstate Exposition.

There are no improvements more needed in this city, than residences for the accommodation of families of moderate means. The demand is very great, and the supply very scarce. Let some of our capitalists think of it. It seems to us that such investments would be of a profitable kind.

The Retail Grocers Association will meet, this, Friday evening at Wynn's office, over W. B. Mann & Co's., store at 8:30 o'clock sharp. It will be to the interest of every member to be present, as renting an office and room &c., &c., will be under consideration.

WAYNE ALLCOTT, Sec'y.

"Life has been a burden to me for past 50 years on account of great suffering from very severe and frequent headaches. Bradyrotine has done wonders for me. I am now a new man and shall proclaim the merits of your medicine to all I can reach."—Geo. P. Fowler, Attorney at law, Palatka, Florida. may 18 st.

Some of the Governor's Guard went out to Millbrook to day on a picnic.

Tickets for the Baptist Tabernacle excursion are on sale at Mr. J. R. Terrell's store.

The nights still continue cool, much to the disadvantage of the growing cotton.

The extension of west Morgan street hangs fire much to the regret of a large portion of the people of Raleigh.

Remember the lawn party tonight at the former residence of Mr. J. C. L. Haris, on the Hillsboro road. It is for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Our reporter, today, in answer to a question concerning the status of the electric street railway and the auditorium, was told by a gentleman to "wait till the clouds rolled by"—and the reporter is waiting.

We deeply regret to say there is a strong probability that the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad workshops will be removed from this city to some point further South. This will indeed be a great loss to our city, and we hope that there may be yet such inducements offered as to prevent the removal.

Died.

On Wednesday last at Wake Forest, Robert, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Royall, aged about one year.

A Nice Entertainment.

Last night a very pleasant ice cream and strawberry festival was given at Inwood church, by members of the Farmers' Alliance. There was a very large crowd, of whom many were from this city.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mr. N. A. Pool took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Miss Bettie Jackson, at whose house he died. The services were conducted under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which order the deceased was a member. Rev. Dr. J. H. Cordon officiated and the following gentlemen acted as pall bearers. Messrs. R. S. White, C. G. Koonce, E. B. Smith, Phil Thiem, Jr., J. H. Parham and J. B. Young.

A Card.

I desire to express my sincere thanks to the people of Raleigh for their deep interest in me and mine during the severe sickness which came upon us. The sympathy extended, so spontaneous and general, not restricted to class or creed has touched my heart. I feel unworthy of all this kindness. It is my joy to live for the good that I can do. May God's rich blessing rest upon the people of this goodly city. J. J. HALL.

The Flower Show.

The rose festival which will be held this afternoon and tonight at the stand formally occupied by the Stone Music store will be most interesting. The festival will open at 6 o'clock. A perfect bower of beauty will be presented to the eye. The entire management is under the control of the Isabella circle of the Kings' Daughters, and the festival is given for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. The masons of the city are specially invited to aid in the cause. The admission is only ten cents. The following ladies will have charge of the different booths.

Blue booth—Misses Carrie Murray, Mamie Robbins, Annie Hill and Dixie Murray.

Cream tint—Miss Fannie McPheeters, Mary Cordon and Nellie Murray. Red booth—Misses Laura Cordon and Florrie Jones.

Yellow booth—Misses Janet Fuller and Flora Creech.

Pink booth—Misses Mary Carroll and Florence McMackin.

"Nothing but Leaves"—Misses Nora King, Hattie Creech and Meggie Cowper.

A Pleasant Evening.

An entertainment will be given to night at the residence of Rev. J. L. Foster, No. 321, west Jones street, consisting of ice cream, strawberries and other refreshments. There will be music, solos, duets, recitations etc. No entrance fee. All desiring a pleasant evening should attend.

Col. Wm. Johnston.

At Watson's studio, on Fayetteville street, can be seen a most excellent oil portrait of Colonel William Johnston, of Charlotte, executed by Mr. W. G. Randall, of this city. It is a splendid work of art and is designed for the Dialectic Society Hall of the University of North Carolina, at Chapel Hill.

Col. Johnston is the father of that most estimable and highly respected lady, Mrs. Col. A. B. Andrews, and is one of the pure representatives of the old school North Carolina gentleman. If not already done, a copy of this most excellent portrait should be procured for our State Library. Col. Johnston is one of North Carolina's most noted citizens, and it can be truly said that "he has done the State some service."

Board of Health.

The local Board of Health met in the Mayor's office at noon today for organization under the ordinances of the city. Dr. James McKee was chairman and Mr. H. H. Roberts Secretary. Dr. McKee in a clear and concise manner recapitulated the duties of the Board. On motion, Mr. H. H. Roberts was re-elected Secretary of the Board at a salary of $15 a month to continue until such time as the Board might be provided with a special sanitary officer, who, by virtue of his office would become Secretary of the Board. A motion was then made and carried, that the Board of Aldermen be requested to allow the local Board of Health a special Sanitary Inspector.

Dr. McKee urged the appointment of such an official, stating that it was really needed for the proper carrying out of the sanitary laws of the city. In the course of his remarks he complimented Mr. Roberts for the faithful and correct manner in which he had discharged the duties of Secretary.

They Must go, the Greatest Inducement Ever Offered.

We are now preparing for the move. In August we will move in our new quarters on Fayetteville street, and we do not want to carry with us any more of our present stock than possible, hence from now on we will offer our entire stock at greatly reduced prices; a good many lines we will sell at prime cost, and some lines we will sell at a little less than cost. Perhaps you will never have another opportunity of getting such great bargains. Just think of it, we have a big lot of ladies straw hats, assorted colors, that we are selling at ten cents each, they would be cheap at 25 cents. If you need anything in the dry goods line you cannot afford to miss this great clearing out sale. Come and examine our prices.
