

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL XXV.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1891:

NO. 24

A Grand Offer—Two Papers For the Price of One.

For the next sixty days we will give a years' subscription to the Weekly Philadelphia Times and the DAILY EVENING VISITOR for one year for three dollars in advance; or we will furnish the Weekly Times and the WEEKLY VISITOR one year for one dollar cash in advance.

The Philadelphia Times is one of the best weekly newspapers published in the country. It is a bright, spicy, newsy 16 page paper.

The VISITOR is published in the interest of North Carolina, sparkling with news and interesting matter, either paper is worth double the price charged for both. Don't fail to avail yourself of this extraordinary offer. Two first rate papers for half the value of one.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

A. Dugh's ice cream freezer freezes 11 gallons of ice cream in 20 minutes

We hear that there have been several applicants for the abandoned baby.

The First Baptist Sunday school will go on a picnic excursion, probably to Winston, about the middle of June.

Rev. Dr. John S. Watkins is absent at Oxford by appointment of Presbytery to install the new pastor for the church in that place.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall will occupy his pulpit tomorrow, and is desirous of seeing every member of the church at the morning service. Preaching morning and night.

Mr. P. P. Babcock, son of Dr. P. Babcock, who has been in business in New York for some time, is here visiting his father, and in all probability will remain. Like other genial Southerners, he likes the South best.

In the opinion of Judge Whitaker rendered yesterday in the matter of Miss Edwards, whereby she was discharged from custody, the Judge decided that NO FURTHER ACTION BE TAKEN AGAINST HER. This seems to cut off any subsequent proceeding.

The notice published in the VISITOR stating that the attendance at Central Church Sunday school last Sunday was the largest during its existence was incorrect. It was the largest attendance for some time, but not for all time. We gladly make the correction.

"Life has been a burden to me for past 50 years on account of great suffering from very severe and frequent headaches. Bradyrotine has done wonders for me. I am now a new man and shall proclaim the merits of your medicine to all I can reach."—Geo. P. Kowler, Attorney at Law, Palatka, Florida. may 18 6t.

The Flower Show.

The efforts of the ladies of the Isabella Circle of Kings Daughters were crowned with success at their entertainment last night. The attendance was large and the attractions came fully up to expectations. The receipts for the Oxford Orphan Asylum were quite large.

Personal Mention.

Prof. Pauli and others went down to Henderson today to officiate in the Episcopal choir services there tomorrow.

Mess. G. G. Spier, of Goldsboro, and C. George, of Wilmington, are at the Yorbore.

Mr. Robt. G. Carroll is in the city shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. Wm. N. Brockwell, of Washington D. C., is in the city.

Notice to Pic Nic Parties.

For Hams, Bologna Sausage, canned goods, Pickles, Oranges, Lemons and Bananas, go to C. O. Ball & Co., W. B. Mann & Co.'s old stand at 7 E. Hargett street. may 23—3t

History of a Biscuit.

Register of Deeds Mial and his efficient force of deputies have for the past few days been having a general cleaning up in their office. They have been overhauling old matters and renovating generally. Yesterday they made a discovery in the shape of a mouldering biscuit, which seems to have something of an ancient history. It was found in the vault of the office carefully stored away. With the biscuit was a note of which the following was a copy.

"This biscuit was deposited in this office late in 1888, or about the 1st of 1869. Look at it, and restore it to the vault" W. WHITAKER.

On the other side of the note is the following:

"This biscuit has been examined by the 'giant of despair' alias W. W. White and 'Kewback,' alias J. J. Lewis who is now overhauling the papers in the office, and placed back in the 'Archives of Gravity' for future generations.

Witness—J. J. Nowell, C. D. Upchurch.

Another paper was filed with the biscuit, of which the following is a copy:

June 20, 1883. Package this day opened, on the occasion of occupying new office of Register Deeds south end of new court house. All the persons named on the paper filed with this biscuit are still living except J. J. Nowell who died in August 1882.

M. V. B. GILBERT.

Also the following:—St. Patrick's Day 1880.

Package opened this day, the occasion of converting the office in which it was found into office for the sheriff. The editor of the EVENING VISITOR made a note of it in his columns. Many persons took a look at the biscuit, among them the court house officers, Armistead Jones and Rev. W. Wynne, a member of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly.

W. Whitaker, Esq. whose name appears on the paper first deposited with the biscuit, is, at this writing, employed in the office of Internal Revenue Collector in this city. W. W. White, named on said paper is still Register of Deeds; J. J. Lewis named with said White is on the police force; J. J. Nowell, one of the witnesses, is sheriff of Wake, and Chas. D. Upchurch, the other witness, is Clerk of the Superior Court and probate judge of said county.

Mr. Gilbert deposited the biscuit back to its original place with this endorsement.

"Make entry on the back, and then wrap the bread and paper together—'Give us this day our daily bread.'"

M. V. B. GILBERT. Register of Deeds Mial will carefully store the biscuit and papers away again to their old place.

One Day Only.

On next Friday, May 29th, we will place on sale a big lot of five, six, and seven cent figured challies at (1c) one cent per yard. We will not sell more than 10 yards to each customer. This sale will open in the morning at 10 o'clock and close in the afternoon at 6 o'clock. Just think of it a whole dress of figured challie 10 yards for 10 cents. Yours truly, D. T. SWINDELL.

After a hearing before Judge Whitaker, at Henderson yesterday, Miss Edwards charged with the abandonment of a child in this city, was released for want of sufficient evidence.

Now is the time and Hughes' is the place to get Refrigerators, Ice Cream Freezers and Fly Fans. may 22 3t.

Oranges and Lemons by the box or dozen at D. T. JOHNSON'S Querries About the S. S. Picnic.

J.—When and where is this picnic I hear so much talk about to be held?

B.—On next Tuesday at the beautiful city of Newbern.

J.—What will be the railroad fare? I am not in any way connected with the school, wish I was.

B.—For outsiders the fare will be $2.

J.—My greatest objection to excursions is that I suffer so much for water, I wonder if the managers will look carefully after this matter.

B.—There will be an abundance of good clear water, ample provision has been made already so you need have no fears on that line.

J.—How about being crowded to death on the cars?

B.—The managers have had an eye to this and have secured twelve regular passenger cars this being ample accommodations for the school with a limited number of seats for outsiders.

J.—Where can I secure a ticket?

B.—For the present at J. R. Terrell's grocery store, and at the Central depot on Tuesday morning.

J.—What hour does the train leave the depot?

B.—The train will leave the Central depot at half past six o'clock in the morning and returning will arrive at Raleigh about nine P. M.

J.—Will you be kind enough to purchase for me three tickets, but stop, are you quite sure that you have given me the correct information about this excursion?

B.—I am quite sure as I am one of the managers.

[We have made some enquiry about this excursion ourselves and find that the arrangements are so complete that we are "almost persuaded" to take it in ourselves and don't know but what we shall ED]
