Died.

At the residence of her parents, in Mark's Creek Township, Wake County, last night at 11:30 o'clock, Bettie, the little daughter of A. B. Marshburne, Esq., aged about two and a half years.

She was a sweet little child and the special pride of her devoted parents. May God give them strength to bear the sad loss. We most deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

A Severe Storm.

About 9 o'clock last Saturday night, one of the severest storms of wind, rain and hail passed over this section known to the oldest inhabitant. The hail stones were unusually large, and it is feared, did much damage not only to the crops, but to other property in and around the city. Trees were blown down, telephone fixtures injured, windows broken and the streets lined with limbs &c. Dry goods boxes were thrown around generally, while the electric display was awfully grand. It was a storm long to be remembered.

While it was no laughing matter, it was amusing to see the didoes of the crowd at our city market during the storm. As is customary on Saturday nights a large crowd of our colored citizens gathered at the market house making their usual Saturday night purchases, when all of a sudden the lightning flashed and thunder rolled, Cuffy made for the door when he was met by a blinding cloud of dust which almost paralyzed him with fear. In less than a minute the old building, although crowded, was as still as death, not a sound to be heard except the low muttering confessions of past sins by the awe stricken crowd. Strawberries fell from ten to five cents per quart in a jiffy. "Its an ill wind that blows nobody any good."

We are glad to note that so far as we have been able to learn, no loss of life is reported.

The Book Trust Knocked Out.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

Some six months ago we began the publication of our reprint of the famous Encyclopaedia Britannica in 25 Volumes, which we issued at $1.50 per volume. The price of the English edition always has been and still is $8.00 per volume, and the Scribner edition $5.00 per volume in the cheapest binding.

That the public appreciate so great a bargain is shown by the fact that over half a million volumes of this reprint have been sold in less than six months.

This elegant new edition we still offer at the same price, $1.50 per volume. This is the greatest bargain ever known in books.

Better still, we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments, to suit the convenience of customers.

Remember this is not an abridgement, but the great Edinburgh ninth edition, reproduced page for page, with important articles on American subjects rewritten to date by eminent American authors, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition.

SPECIAL OFFER.—We claim that our reprint compares favorably with the high priced editions in every respect, and in respect to maps, and strength and beauty of bindings is superior to them. In order that this claim may be tested by a personal inspection we make the following proposition: We will furnish volume 1. at 60 cts.—a fraction of actual cost — if sent by express. Add 40 cts. postage if wanted by mail. Amount paid for Volume I., will be credited on price of set when ordered.

It slacks quickly and is free from core, lumps and specks. For general use there is none better."

Another writes: "You ask for our opinion of your Lime, which we have been using for about a year. We take great pleasure in assuring you that we are selling all of the principal contractors and builders in our city, and shipping a good deal to neighboring towns, with entire satisfaction to all. We consider it the best Lime in our market. We find the barrels larger and in better condition than other brands we have sold, and have never had to pay out a cent for core or age on your barrels."
