

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL XXV.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, MAY 29, 1891:

NO. 29

A Grand Offer—Two Papers For the Price of One.

For the next sixty days we will give a year's subscription to the Weekly Philadelphia Times and the DAILY EVENING VISITOR for one year for three dollars in advance; or we will furnish the Weekly Times and the WEEKLY VISITOR one year for one dollar cash in advance.

The Philadelphia Times is one of the best weekly newspapers published in the country. It is a bright, spicy, newsy 16 page paper.

The VISITOR is published in the interest of North Carolina, sparkling with newsy and interesting matter, either paper is worth double the price charged for both. Don't fail to avail yourself of this extraordinary offer. Two first rate papers for half the value of one.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Capital Club will give a program at their hall tonight.

Mr. E. M. Cheek had the first snaps of the season in market last Tuesday.

Gov. Holt has recovered from his indisposition and is now in attendance at the Executive office.

A barbecue was indulged in at the water works pond yesterday by several of our business men. It was an enjoyable affair.

In consequence of the heavy rain the great land sale of real estate has been postponed until Tuesday next, June 2nd. Preparations are being made for a grand reception of all who may attend.

Let it be remembered that the subscription list of the VISITOR is daily on the increase, and that there is no better medium of advertising in the city. Our advertising patrons all bear testimony to this.

The "Cross Bearers Circle," of the Kings' Daughters, of this city, remitted to Mrs. W. S. Black, at Oxford, for the orphan asylum, thirty dollars instead of twenty as stated in our issue of yesterday.

On Sunday next, Elder L. I. Bodenheimer, of Kerrersville, will preach the funeral of the late THOMAS WILLIAMS, in the Primitive Baptist Church of this city at 11 o'clock A. M.

Mr. A. Dughi has had a new roof put to his fruit stand on Fayetteville street, and it is now a most comfortable and well arranged establishment.

We hope the County Commissioners at their meeting next Monday will take prompt steps relative to the coming exposition, in accordance with the resolution of the Real Estate Convention and Gov. Holt's proclamation. It is a matter of the utmost importance to the county of Wake as well as the entire State of North Carolina.

Great hopes are based on the newly created Geological Survey, the work of which will commence next month. Two things are to be sought after specially—coal and phosphates, of iron there is a great store. The Cranberry and Chapel Hill iron is in the lead. We have no doubt that there is in North Carolina a large quantity of unrevealed bituminous coal in the State.

"All my reports go with the modest truth. No more nor clipped but so." Bracyrotine always cures all headaches at all times. my25 6t

Mr. C. R. Harris will leave next Monday to take a position as refreshment clerk at the Atlantic Hotel in Morehead. Mr. Harris is a gentleman well versed in all the particulars of the business, and he will see to it that all his friends and the public generally will be well received. "Ring" is fully up to the times in all respects.

Tomorrow is Federal decoration day.

Young men's prayer meeting tonight in the Bible class room of E-ten-ton Street church at 7 sharp.

The Justices of the Peace at their meeting next Monday will elect a County Board of Education.

Sheriff Page informed us today that only two spans of the bridge over Crabtree creek at Morrisville have been washed away.

It is now understood that the laws of the last General Assembly will be ready for distribution between June 1st and July 15th. It will be a volume of unusual size.

There will be a meeting at Edenton street Sunday School room tonight at 8 o'clock to take steps in regard to a Sunday school picnic. All who are interested should not fail to attend.

Charley Heartt has received an invitation to attend the annual parade of the police force of New York city, which will take place June 1st. We want him to take in the occasion and see that he does our folks credit.

At a meeting held yesterday in the Executive office, Mr. Kornegay, President of the North Carolina Railroad was authorized to accept the offer of the penitentiary authorities for building the branch road to the Caraleigh Mills. The road will be built with good heavy rails.

We have received a copy of "The Living Issue," a weekly paper published at High Point, N. C., in the interest of prohibition. It is edited by Rev. C. M. Pepper is well gotten up, and an able exponent of the principles it advocates.

A special leased wire has been placed in the office of the State Chronicle, and that paper proposes, on and after the 1st of June, to receive and publish the united press dispatches up to 3 a. m., each morning. This is a rapid advance in North Carolina journalism and should be duly appreciated by the public.

We are authorized by Mr. Dughi to say that if the ladies will get up a festival for St. John's Hospital, he will cheerfully contribute five gallons of his best ice cream. Now let the ladies get up the cake, and all will be well.

It should be remembered that the Justices of the Peace at their meeting next Monday will have to elect two commissioners—one in place of Capt. Williamson and another in place of Mr. Hunter, both of whom resigned.

The railway commission today modified its order regarding telegraph rates in North Carolina, so it will read: For ten body words or under on all telegraphic messages having their origin and terminating within this State twenty five cents, over ten body words two cents for each additional word. To take effect June 15th next. The original order named June 1st.

The crowd at Swindell's store today was simply tremendous. At 10 o'clock they commenced to gather and soon, not only the store, but the street in front was one living mass of human beings—old, young, male, female, nearly all conditions of life. It reminded us very much of the ticket wagon at John Robinson's circus, only it was a dozen times more animating. Now say advertising is not the proper thing, specially in the VISITOR.

Fourth of July.

Although no arrangements for a general celebration of the coming 4th of July have been made, our people will not be without some excitement to remind them of the day. A programme for racing has been mapped out, and all lovers of the sports of the turf can look for an exciting time. The races will be open to all horses owned in the State on the first day of June.

Now, let our citizens get up a programme for fire works, so that a good time can be had generally.

Post Office Notice.

Tomorrow (Decoration Day) being a national holiday, the general delivery will be open from 9:30 to 10:30, a. m., and from 3 to 4 p. m. The letter carriers will only make the 8:30 a. m., delivery. There will be no registered letter or money order business transacted during the day.

Change of Schedule.

There will be a change of schedule on the Richmond & Danville Railroad Sunday, May 31st., but the change will in no wise, affect the arrival and departure of trains at Raleigh, except train No. 14, from Richmond, Va., via Keysville, will not reach Raleigh until 10:40, p. m.

Local freight trains, Nos. 62 and 63 with passenger coach attached, heretofore running daily except Sundays, between Selma and Greensboro, will hereafter run between Raleigh and Greensboro.

Personal Mention.

Rev. Barney Perkins, of Goldsboro, a preacher of the Society of Friends, preached this morning at 11 o'clock at the Yarburo street mission.

Mr. C. W. Lambeth is still quite sick.

Mrs. Miles Goodwin is quite sick with an attack of her old disease.

Mr. Geo. Taylor, of Durham, is in the city.

Mr. W. P. Mercer, of Toisnot is at the Yarburo.

Mr. W. F. Kornegay, of Goldsboro, is in the city.

Mr. Ed Pescud and sister have gone to Maryland on a visit.

Mr. H. Walters of the Atlantic Coast Line, is in the city.

Mr. M. J. Hawkins, of Ridgeway is in the city.

A Sad Accident.

On the morning after the recent excursion of the Tabernacle Church, of this city to New Berne, the dead body of an unknown young man was found a few yards from the water tank near Princeton. It was definitely ascertained that he was killed either by the night freight or the excursion train, but it could not be positively discovered which. It was afterwards learned that Eugene Hood a young man from this city had gone on the excursion, and had not returned with the train. This gave rise to the belief that he was the unfortunate person which has been confirmed beyond doubt today.

There are several theories advanced as to how the accident happened. At the place where the young man was killed there was no stop of the train, and he must have lost his balance and fallen while leaning out. His head is considerably crushed as are also a leg and arm. The face is not disfigured, and recognition by those who knew him is comparatively easy.

Mr. Louis Lougee, who had partial control of the matter of keeping order on the train, said he did not know the young man, but he had some difficulty in preventing several from leaning out and standing on the platform.

Several gentlemen left here this morning for the scene of the accident, and the body will be brought here for interment.

Ice cream on any day at A. Dughi's. Any kind to order.

Ice Cellar.

Ice in any quantity, also fresh fish daily, at my cellar No. 223, S. Wilmington Street. Orders filled promptly. T. E. SORRELL.

I have a nice lot of dry pine wood all sawed and split, ready to be used for stoves or fireplaces; also an assortment of shingles, all at my mill, west end of Hargett street on railroad. ap25 1m L. H. ADAMS.

Have your lace curtains done up at the Oak City Steam Laundry in first class style. L. R. Wyatt's special horse and cow food going like hot cakes. A trial will convince you that it is the best on the market. mh19 1f

A Pleasant Excursion.

We learn that the managers of the First Baptist Sunday school which will have a picnic and excursion to Winston-Salem on June the 9th, have made satisfactory arrangements with the Railroad company. This school will be doubly careful to throw around themselves every safeguard. They will not take a train of more than ten coaches. They will not sell tickets enough to crowd the cars so as to render everybody uncomfortable, and they are assured by the Railroad company that every possible precaution will be used to prevent any delay to or from Winston. They have given the school a schedule that will put the party in Winston in the forenoon and back to Raleigh not later than 9 o'clock, p. m. We learn that a limited number of tickets will be put on sale early next week and the friends of the school can go on this excursion for the small sum of two dollars, provided they buy their tickets before the day of departure. If bought at the train $2.50 will be charged. This is a rare opportunity for a pleasant trip.

The Sunday school Sup't. of Winston has written to a gentleman in this city, that the most elaborate preparations have been made to receive the excursionists, and all who go may expect a most enjoyable time.
