The Philadelphia Times is one of the best weekly newspapers published in the country. It is a bright, spicy, newy 16 page paper.

The VISITOR is published in the interest of North Carolina, sparkling with newsy and interesting matter, either paper is worth double the price charged for both. Don't fail to avail yourself of this extraordinary offer. Two first rate papers for half the value of one.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Another very heavy rain prevailed last evening in this vicinity.

Durham Superior Court is in session this week, with Judge Boykin presiding.

The Internal Revenue receipts for the month of May in this district were $74,305.53.

Regular monthly meeting of Rescue Fire Company tonight at the usual hour.

Dr. G. W. Sanderlin will deliver an address before the Knights of Pythias, at Greensboro, tonight.

The Sunday School of the West End Baptist Mission will picnic at Tuckers pond in the near future.

The State Medical Society has chosen Wilmington as the place of meeting next year.

Remember that the Musicales at the residence of Mrs. K. C. Badger takes place tonight. Public cordially invited.

The new auditorium for Raleigh is in full sight. The Board of Aldermen have decided to build it, and now the only question is a proper site.

Mr. Frank P. Robinson, son of Hon. Jno. Robinson, Commissioner of Agriculture, has been quite sick in Ansonville.

The receipts of cotton for this season, in Raleigh, up to last Saturday, were 37,997 bales against 21,155, for the same time last year. Receipts today light. Prices from 8 1/2 to 8 3/4.

The Federal Court will formally open tomorrow, Judge Seymour presiding. There are several important cases on docket.

The Atlantic Hotel, at Morehead City is now open for the reception of visitors. Ample preparations for the season have been made, and a very large crowd is expected.

The regular meeting of Litchford Encampment No. 26, I. O. O. F., will be held tonight at 8 o'clock, p. m. Every member is urged to be on hand. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

There is a considerable crowd of country people in the city today, drawn hither by the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners and Justices of the Peace.

The books for listing poll and property taxes, were opened at the courthouse today. Let all interested take notice. The law allows listing to be done during the first twenty days in June.

The Wilmington Messenger has made special arrangements to procure and publish the names of persons in nine of the most important counties in the State, who have paid the direct tax.

Over five thousand invitations are being prepared to be sent out to northern people who have settled in the south asking them to attend the Southern Exposition in this city in October and November next.

A party was before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct in a locality called the 'Bowery.' There not being sufficient evidence, the case was dismissed.

It is expected that the Charlotte Chronicle will change hands about the 10th of July. Mr. David Vance, of Asheville, will, it is understood, have editorial control.

We have talked with many of our country friends today, and are sorry to say that nearly all give the most unfavorable account of the cotton crops. The fruit yield promises about an average.

Among the important cases at the present term of the Federal Court will be one against the members of the New Hanover Canvassing Board against whom indictments were found at the last term.

Mr. C. C. Campbell, of Campbell's Cotton Compress Co., city of Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Everybody finds relief shortly after using Bradycrotine for headache. June 1st.

The meetings of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons on the 9th instant, and the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar on the 11th inst., will be two noted occasions at Morehead City. It will be a fine opportunity to visit the seacoast at a small expense.

Work has commenced in earnest on the road connecting the N. C. road with the site of Caraleigh Mills. A force of convicts began last Saturday to cut down trees at the point in the cut just beyond the penitentiary. The work will be proceeded with as rapidly as possible.

Hurrah for Vance.

[Special to VISITOR]

HENDERSON, June 1.—Vance county, today appropriated $200 to the Inter-State Exposition.

Attention Knights of Pythias.

There will be a regular meeting of Center Lodge No. 3, held this evening at 8:30 o'clock. As the Orphan Asylum matter will be discussed it is desired that every member will be present.

Musicales Tonight.

The musicale which was postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather will be held this evening at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Badger. A most enjoyable programme has been prepared and we hope to see a large attendance.

Railway Conductors.

The order of railway conductors now has a membership of twenty thousand in round numbers, and wields a great influence in the rail road world. After July 1st, all conductors becoming members must take $1,000 insurance with the privilege of $5,000 provided the applicant is not over 35 years old. Heretofore the insurance has been optional with the members, but the order has now practically resolved itself into an insurance society.

An Important Matter.

Under an act of the last General Assembly, the list takers in the several counties, are required to make a report of agricultural statistics. A report will be furnished in which farmers can give full information as to the products of field crops, fruits, vegetables &c., for the year ending June 1st, 1891. The number of acres in each crop, the total product and the value of each crop and of the whole. We hope that the matter may receive prompt attention as it is one of the highest importance.

Bargains may be had in zephyrs Rope Linen, Embroidery Silks, Fringes, Pompan's Stamped Linen and other goods that were partly damaged by the water during the fire of May 5th at the Singer Machine office. Respectfully,

E. KARRER.

June 1, 1891.—M.WandF.

Meeting of Magistrates.

In accordance with the provisions of law a meeting of the magistrates of Wake county was called to meet at the courthouse at noon today, for the purpose of electing two members of the Board of County Commissioners to fill vacancies caused by the resignation of Capt. B. P. Williamson and J. T. Hunter, Sr. The roll was called by Register of Deeds, Mial, and 77 magistrates were announced present. Mr. R. G. Dunn was re-elected chairman. The meeting then proceeded to levy the county taxes for 1891. Mr. chairman Norris, of the Board of Commissioners, submitted a report of the amount on hand now as follows:

In hands of Treasurer, $2,442.57; in hands of the Sheriff, $3,553.42; the whole taxes last year for county purposes were $81,034.23; road tax for Raleigh township, $4,987.63; graded school, $12,483.01; common schools, $23,521.58.

The following taxes were levied: for county purposes for 1891 twenty cts. income tax, same as State tax; schedule "B" tax, same as State tax.

Mr. W. C. Stronach was elected a commissioner to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Capt. B. P. Williamson.

Mr. J. D. Allen was elected to succeed Mr. Hunter. Mess. W. R. Womble, W. C. Brewer and H. C. Olive were elected as the Board of Education.

The Board of County Commissioners was instructed to take steps relative to the bad condition of the index book in the Register of Deeds office.

THE EXPOSITION.

The matter of the Inter State Exposition was taken up and the meeting agreed to an appropriation of $2,000 on the part of Wake county.

Our Next Special Sale will be on Friday June 5th.

On next Friday June the 5th, for one day only, we will place on sale a big lot of childrens and misses black ribbed hose, at 10 cents per pair. These goods are slightly imperfect but are richly worth 25c per pair. Will not sell more than six pair to each customer. We will also place on sale several lines of dress goods, which will be the greatest bargains ever offered on this market. We are offering our entire stock at greatly reduced prices. Some lines of goods we are selling at prime wholesale cost, and other lines at a little less than cost. Any one needing anything in dress goods will find it to their interest to examine our stock before buying. We expect to move in our new quarters on Fayetteville street in August, and we do not want to carry with us any more of our present stock than possible; hence the great reduction. Yours Truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

St. John's Hospital.

On Friday night next, the beautiful play of Esmeralda will be presented at Metropolitan hall by the amateurs of this city, for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. These amateurs are some of the best known of our people. Each character will be beautifully and artistically presented and we predict a great dramatic success. Aside from the merits of the performance the object should ensure a full and enthusiastic attendance. Box sheet now open at John Y. MacRae's Drug store. Reserved seats 75 cents; general admission 50 cents; gallery 25 cents.

Death of Ed Graham Haywood, Esq.

We regret to hear that this young gentleman died in Washington city last Friday.

Mr. Haywood was the son of the late Ed. Graham Haywood, and was a native of Raleigh, and has many relatives and friends here who will deeply lament his decease. He was a young man of fine intelligence, and for some time occupied a responsible position in the service of the National Government.
