

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL XXV.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1891.

NO. 33

A Grand Offer—Two Papers For the Price of One.

For the next sixty days we will give a year's subscription to the Weekly Philadelphia Times and the DAILY EVENING VISITOR for one year for three dollars in advance; or we will furnish the Weekly Times and the WEEKLY VISITOR one year for one dollar cash in advance.

The Philadelphia Times is one of the best weekly newspapers published in the country. It is a bright, spicy, newy 16 page paper.

The VISITOR is published in the interest of North Carolina, sparkling with news and interesting matter, either paper is worth double the price charged for both. Don't fail to avail yourself of this extraordinary offer. Two first rate papers for half the value of one.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The health of our city is as good as usual during this time of the year.

A large number of our people, including several ladies, have gone to the Chapel Hill Commencement.

A special meeting of the Raleigh Academy of medicine will take place tonight at 8 o'clock.

It is thought that the young ladies engaged in copying the stubs of the direct tax receipts will get through next week.

C. F. Von Herrmann, Sgt. of the United States signal corps gives the maximum temperature for Raleigh during May 1891, as 88; minimum temperature 88.

A portrait of Col. Wm. Johnston, of Mecklenburg county, was hung in the State Library yesterday. It is a fitting tribute to one of North Carolina's most estimable citizens.

We hope the Board of Aldermen at their meeting next Friday night, will hurry up the matter of an auditorium. Next to the street cars it is the most important subject now occupying the attention of our people.

Be sure and attend the Neck Tie party. It is for the benefit of our Hospital.

The new electric cars at Charlotte are named Vance, Jarvis, Albenarle and Swanannoa. As the street car system is purely a city business, we propose to name ours (when we get them,) Alf. Thompson, Tom Badger and—well, let somebody else name the others.

The remains of the late James E. Harris arrived here from Washington, D. C., yesterday afternoon, and were escorted to their last resting place by a very large crowd of colored people. A band of music playing solemn dirges headed the procession.

The Merchants and Farmers Bank of this city, a charter for which was granted by the last General Assembly, will soon commence operations. A committee of the incorporators were engaged yesterday, in discussing propositions for a suitable site.

Don't forget the neck tie party to be given by the "Strivers for the crown circle" of the King's Daughters at the store formerly occupied by the North State Music Co. tomorrow night. It will be for the benefit of St. John's Hospital and should be attended by a large crowd.

Has the proposition to re-organize and place on a lasting footing the Young Mens Christian Association, in this city, fallen through. It is a matter of the utmost importance to our people and should not be allowed to lag. We hope the matter may be pushed.

Mr. C. C. Campbell, of Campbell's Cotton Compress Co., city of Cincinnati, Ohio, writes: "Everybody finds relief shortly after using Bradycrotine for headache. June 6t.

Read the advertisement of sale of Real Estate by Thomas H. Briggs, commissioner.

Don't forget the Neck Tie party to-morrow night. It is for the St. John's Hospital that most worthy cause.

The handsome lithographic posters for the coming exposition, prepared by Messrs. Hoen & Co., of Richmond, Va., will soon be ready.

The catalogue of the University of North Carolina, shows most admirable for the institution. The law school specially, is increasing, having at the late session 197 matriculates.

Messrs. J. D. Turner, S. F. Telfair, Thos. Badger, Jr., H. W. Miller and Henry King, of this city, have been selected and accepted the positions of Assistant Marshals for the celebration of the 4th of July at Greensboro.

Let all go to the meeting in the Mayor's office this afternoon to make arrangements for the 4th of July celebration. Let us have a rousing time. It will be a fitting prelude to the grand exposition.

Go to the Neck Tie party tomorrow night and wear a Neck Tie like your best girl.

We learn that Wake county is among those selected by the Wilmington Messenger in publishing the names of persons who have paid the direct tax. The list will probably appear in a few days. Lookout for it.

The Neck Tie party will be held at the store on Fayetteville street, formerly occupied by the North State Music Company.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, in which our people, and especially the heads of families are interested. These gentlemen have one of the finest bakeries to be found in any southern city, and it is conceded by all who are judges of good bread, cakes &c., that they cannot be surpassed at any establishment of the kind in the country. They use the best material and produce the best of everything in their line. We advise the ladies especially to give them a trial. They will never regret it. Stronach's bread will put the most ill natured husband in a good humor.

The Strive for the Crown Circle will serve refreshments at the Neck Tie party tomorrow night.

Epworth League.

At the meeting of Epworth League last night, Mr. J. G. Brown resigned the Presidency, and Rev. Dr. Gordon was elected to fill the vacancy.

Died.

In this city, on the 3rd of June, Hattie Amanda, infant daughter of Chas. A., and Mamie L. Morris. The funeral will be held from the residence of its grand father, John T. Morris, at No. 548, east Jones street, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Friends and acquaintances invited to attend.

Tax Listing.

We are requested to state that the books for listing taxes were opened today in the grand jury room on the left hand side, first floor of the court house. It is earnestly desired that our people will not delay the matter to the last, as in that case, there is always a considerable rush. The law allows the first twenty days in June in which to list, and any extension beyond that time is for the matter of convenience.

Let there be a prompt response.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. tomorrow night at 8 o'clock sharp. The conferring of the Initiatory degree and other important business will be transacted. Candidates for the Initiatory degree will present themselves promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Every member required to be on hand. All Odd Fellows cordially invited.

THIEM, Sec'y.

Election Case.

Much interest centers in the case of the board of canvassers of Cape Fear township, New Hanover county, which it is probable will come up in the circuit court during the present week. They were indicted upon a charge of failing to properly receive and count the votes of that township in the election of November, 1890. The defendants are now in the city. There is a brilliant array of counsel on both sides.

Baptist Female University.

Rev. J. B. Boone, the Financial Agent of the above institution, which is to be established in Raleigh is now at work soliciting and collecting in our city. We hope our people will take hold of this important work, which is of far reaching importance to the city, that the pledge made to secure the location of the University here may be met at the earliest practical moment. Mr. Boone informs us that he cannot commence his labors outside of Raleigh until the city pledge is met. His address is 213 East Edenton street.

Chapel Hill Commencement.

The Richmond & Danville Railroad will operate the following special trains between Durham and Chapel Hill on June 3rd and 4th.

Leave Durham, 9:40 a. m.; leave University, 11:10 a. m.; arrive at Chapel Hill 10:50 a. m.; return, leave Chapel Hill 6:00 p. m.; University, 6:56 p. m.; arrive Durham 7:16 p. m. This train going will make connection at Durham with the 8:15 train from Raleigh and the early morning freight from Oxford and Greensboro. Returning it will enable parties to reach Greensboro and points beyond and Raleigh the same night.

Pic-nic.

The pic-nic at Auburn yesterday by the Central M. E. Sunday School was one full of enjoyment and from first to last a success. The children were carried away. The train left the Union Depot about 8:50 carrying over 200 young and old, large and small.

In a very short while we were at Auburn and the grounds, where we found everything in apple pie order. Pond with boats, grove with seats and swings, spring cold and nice with the old gourd, out of which water is always better. We were met by the Messrs. Watts and Thos. Johns, Esq., who deserve special mention and have the thanks of the Sunday School not only for their efforts, but for their success in making us happy. We only regret that more of the little ones could not participate with us.

After dinner, when everybody was in the best of humor and wore a smile, at the request of Mr. Kelly, Auburn's Photographer, the school were arranged on the bank, while others were in boats, and then the picture—girls and boys in profusion. We can see ourselves at the pic-nic by sending Mr. Kelly 37 cents at Auburn.

On Friday Next.

We sell misses 25c hose for 10c per pair—one day only.

On Monday next we sell those oil curtains at 50c each—one day only. Now don't make a mistake—"Hose Friday," curtains on Monday."

These hose are now on exhibition in our store room and the curtains are on exhibition in our carpet room, and any one who feels interested can see the goods in advance but cannot buy them at these prices till the appointed day. The curtains are the most beautiful things mortal eye ever looked upon and are complete with all the fixtures and spring rollers; are new goods just come.

Our dress goods are still being sold at wholesale cost prices and the entire stock is being sold at much lower price than any one else is selling. You can save money by trading at SWINDELL'S.

St. John's Hospital.

On Friday night next, the beautiful play of Esmeralda will be presented at Metropolitan hall by the amateurs of this city, for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. These amateurs are some of the best known of our people. Each character will be beautifully and artistically presented and we predict a great dramatic success. Aside from the merits of the performance the object should ensure a full and enthusiastic attendance. Box sheet now open at John Y. MacRae's Drug store. Reserved seats 75 cents; general admission 50 cents; gallery 25 cents.

White Goods.

Every one can buy a nice white dress, because it will cost so little. Think of it, a nice white lawn dress at only 5 cents per yard; then a fine sheer plaids only 7½ cents. Large sheer plaids only 7½c. 8½c. and 10 cents better goods than these at the prices we have never shown. A beautiful fine check nainsook at 8½ cents, a pretty dotted Swiss at 15 cents. These are only a few of the many great values we give our customers every day, and we have just as many as you wish. All new fresh clean stock, and at prices as low and lower than you can get the same goods anywhere. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Have your lace curtains done up at the Oak City Steam Laundry in first class style. L. R. Wyatt's special horse and cow food going like hot cakes. A trial will convince you that it is the best on the market. mh19 1f
