

The Races on the 4th of July.

The feature of the celebration of the National holiday in Raleigh will undoubtedly be the great horse show and the accompanying races, for which will be entered probably the finest horses in North Carolina. The improvement in blooded stock is confined to no one part of the State. Raleigh will contend with Wilmington, Winston, Tarboro, Oxford and other places all of which places possess fine horses. Perhaps seventy five horses will be entered, some as trotters, others under the saddle, with such numbers, and under such tests of speed as will give unusual interest to the occasion in which comparative merit is to be tested freed altogether from mercenary interest, therefore elevated above those practices of the jockey which have some times brought horse racing into disrepute with some who otherwise recognize its value as the agency through which good breeds become substituted for bad breeds. The turf is the best test that can be applied to prove speed, endurance, kindness and intelligence; qualities that every man who uses a horse desires and which long breeder of horses should seek to obtain.

Capt. B. P. Williamson, of Raleigh, who takes great interest in the Fourth of July race, is an example in his own success what can be done to improve the stock of horses in this section. Others in this and other counties of the State do not fall behind. The race will be of such deep general interest that it seems scarcely necessary to do more than to remind the public that it will take place at the time appointed, will be fairly conducted, and from the number of horses to be entered with probably be the most animated series of races ever run in North Carolina. Mr. E. H. Lee will be the manager of the races.

The Covenant.

The Covenant is organized with absolute safety, the feature of paramount importance. The securities are held by three National Banks, who are appointed under the by laws its permanent trustees, and these securities cannot be withdrawn except to return to the borrower upon repayment of his loan. The general officers, and officers of local branches, who handle any money, are all under heavy bonds. In addition to these safeguards is one which appeals to all members alike, and that is, all the officers and employees in its home office and branches and on the road must be members in good standing of the great order of Odd Fellows, and all employees and officers are pledged, upon their honor as Odd Fellows, to watch over and protect the interest of the Association. Thus every man is a trustworthy sentinel, ready to give warning of any danger that menaces the Association. Such complete and absolute safeguards were never thrown around any other Association.

White Goods.

Every one can buy a nice white dress, because it will cost so little. Think of it, a nice white lawn dress at only 5 cents per yard; then a fine sheer quality for only 7 1/2 cents. Large sheer plaids only 7 1/2c, 8 1/2c and 10 cents better goods than these at the prices we have never shown. A beautiful fine check nainsook at 8 1/2 cents, a pretty dotted Swiss at 15 cents. These are only a few of the many great values we give our customers every day, and we have just as many as you wish. All new fresh clean stock, and at prices as low and lower than you can get the same goods anywhere.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

A Wild Man.

A Texas farmer, living near San Antonio, on the Salado creek, caught a veritable wild man a few days since after a long chase. The man presented a horrible appearance. He was but skin and bones, was bareheaded and barefooted, being clad only in the remnants of a shirt and trousers. His face was covered with shaggy black beard a foot in length, while his hair hung down his back in disorder. His toe and finger nails were three inches long. The man was captured while lurking about the farmer's place in quest of food. After being made a prisoner he became docile, but declined to reveal his identity.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Covenant Building and Loan Association,

—OF—

KNOXVILLE, TENN.

AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, $25,000,000

Managed solely by Odd Fellows, but membership open to all. The Covenant is one of the best known and most successful Building and Loan Associations before the public. The business of this company in all departments is conducted with rigid economy. The proportion of payments by shareholders SET APART FOR EXPENSE FUND IS smaller than many other companies.

The following are endorsements from the Knoxville Banks, where the Home Office is located:

"A thoroughly solvent and reliable institution. Its officers—are first class business men, capable, honest, and of that character who could not afford to connect their names with any but a successful and reliable business."—City National Bank.

"The officers are all men of good standing here, and some of them are wealthy men in very high social and commercial standing."—East Tennessee National Bank.

"The officers are among our very best citizens and are gentlemen of honor and credit."—Third National Bank.

SPECIAL BARGAINS, BONE FIDE SALE.

Owing to continued sickness, from the first of the year to the present time, I must change my business and will now sell my whole stock of goods at cost, for cash, consisting of fine clothing, straw hats, soft and stiff hats, white and colored dress shirts and everything usually kept in a gents furnishing store. These goods must be sold as it is absolutely necessary I change my business. They will be sold in lots to suit purchasers Country merchants would do well to look to their interest; would prefer selling the entire stock as it is. Goods will be sold without reserve and no goods will be taken back after being paid for and delivered.

CARSON & SON'S RIVERTON WOOD BURN LIME, EXTRA FINE QUALITY, EXTRA HEAVY BARRELS.

It slacks well, is very white and valuable for building purposes; tanners, paper makers, &c.

For sale at retail or by the car load as low as any standard quality.

One dealer writes to the manufacturer as follows: "We have been handling your 'Riverton' Lime for the last four years at the rate of from 3,000 to 10,000 barrels per year, and consider it the best we have ever handled. It slacks quickly and is free from core, lumps and specks. For general use there is none better."

Another writes: "You ask for our opinion of your Lime, which we have been using for about a year. We take great pleasure in assuring you that we are selling all of the principal contractors and builders in our city, and shipping a good deal to neighboring towns, with entire satisfaction to all. We consider it the best Lime in our market. We find the barrels larger and in better condition than other brands we have sold, and have never had to pay out a cent for coaling on your barrels."

Write for prices and testimonials from dealers, contractors and manufacturers. JONES & POWELL, Sole Agents, Raleigh, N. C.

The Philadelphia Weekly Times,

A handsome Weekly Journal, filled with richly illustrated articles on every subject of contemporaneous interest, including Fiction, Literature, Travel, Adventure, Society, the Drama, Sports and Home Life, the Farm and Garden, with all the Current News of the World.

A feature of the Weekly Times is a department devoted to

Our Boys and Girls

This feature of The Times has aroused more interest among young people than any other Juvenile publication, not only because its stories, sketches, chat, puzzles and problems are so entertaining and instructive, but because every boy and girl that reads it is a member of the famous eight o'clock club. The crimson and gold button of the club is sent free to every one of them.

There are no fees of any kind. You can find out all about the club and the hundreds of prizes it distributes among boys and girls by sending for a free copy of the Weekly Times, the subscription price of which is only 50 cents a year.

It will cost you only a postal card to get a specimen copy, and then by sending fifty cents, which we are sure you will do, it will be sent to you for one year.

Subscriptions may begin with any number. No continued stories. Address for all particulars THE TIMES, Times Building, Philadelphia, Pa.
