NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The thermometer today in the nineties.

Let us have music on the square—the city is getting mighty dull.

Storms are predicted every few days during the present month.

How about the new pump in the capitol square? It would be a great convenience.

A beautiful engraving of the late Professor Mitchell has been placed in the State Library.

It was dull beyond all comparison in the departments at the capitol today.

Let the Fourth of July Committee secure a good band for the celebration. It helps out wonderfully.

The work of stringing wire for the electric street railway commenced today.

The acts of the last legislature will make a volume of unusual size, probably over a thousand pages.

Acting Mayor Root is having a quiet time, as he had no cases on docket today.

Meet the Fourth of July collector with smiling faces and make prompt payment.

The turning point in the summer will soon be upon us, and, it has not been very hot, so far, either.

The Board of Charities are considering the matter of improving the Insane Asylum as recommended by the last General Assembly.

Tax collector Root is patiently waiting at the "receipt of custom" for all who are liable to give in their taxes.

A good scouring wouldn't hurt the statue of the "Father of his country" who stands bareheaded amid all the changes of weather. Let him be fixed up for the Fourth.

Are you going to Fayetteville next Tuesday with the Edenton Street Methodist Sunday School? A pleasant ride and a nice time is promised to all who go. Fare for round trip $1.50.

All the talk now is about the excursion to Fayetteville next Tuesday by the Edenton Street M. E. Church Sunday School. It will be a pleasant trip at a very small cost.

Don't fail to list your taxes. The time is fast going off. Remember it is an imperative duty and procrastination may cause you to forget it. Then there will be trouble.

In order to accommodate those who find it inconvenient to attend during the early part of the day the tax listers will keep their office open on Saturday afternoons until 7 o'clock.

It is now thought that the U. S. Circuit Court will adjourn either the latter part of this or the first of next week. All the important business has been gotten through with.

At the recent meeting of the Trustees of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, all the old officers of the Institution were elected. Most of the pupils have left for their homes, the session having closed.

Wannamaker and "Uncle Jerry" Rusk, of the President's cabinet will be with us during the exposition, and the President says he will come if he can arrange his business to do so. Let's get ready to receive them with old fashioned "Tar Heel" cordiality.

The "Spinning Jenny" has arrived and been put in position on the corner of Hargett and Blount streets, prepared to furnish the "little folks" and big ones too, if desired, a nice ride at reasonable rates. It is run by Mr. G. W. Brinkley, a Raleigh boy who is endeavoring to make a living by affording innocent amusement for the public. Give him a chance, and at the same time take a nice ride.

Prof. Geo. W. Green, of Wake Forest College, has been appointed a Missionary at Canton, China. He will leave September 1st, for the field of his labors.

The suit now pending in the Circuit Court brought by Mr. H. H. Cheek, against Mr. A. T. Mial, for $10,000 damages, is attracting much attention.

The continued wet weather has caused an unusual large growth of weeds in many lots and gardens of the city. These may occasion much sickness if not checked. Let it be looked after.

Mr. Raney of the Yarboro House thinks he can make room to meet all emergencies at the coming exposition. The building will be much enlarged, and, it is thought can accommodate about six hundred guests.

President Winston, of the State University, will spend much of his time during vacation in visiting the principal institutions of learning throughout the North thereby gaining much information of value.

Tickets on sale for Edenton Street Methodist Sunday School Excursion to Fayetteville next Tuesday, at the following places. Jones & Powell, J. Y. MacRae, J. C. S. Lumsden, Wyatt & Co.

Here's the way the Durham Sun puts it about the delegation to Washington. "They do say that Maj. R. S. Tucker carried Governor Holt's regards and a lock of his whiskers to the President, while Mayor Thomas Badger was armed with a rabbit's foot. They'll fetch him sure."

At all times, in all places, on all occasions, under all circumstances, for all headaches, use Brady's cure only June 8th.

Wanted, in our retail department a young lady. Make application through postoffice.

WOOLLCOTT & SON.

Base Ball.

The Raleigh base ball club will cross bats with the Fayetteville club on June 16th, at Fayetteville. The Raleigh club is in good practice and a good game is expected.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, tonight at eight o'clock sharp. Initiatory and 1st degrees will be conferred upon candidates who present themselves at 8:15 o'clock promptly. Other matters of great importance will be brought before the lodge, which requires the attention and presence of every member. All Odd Fellows invited.

Death of John H. Bryan, Esq.

This gentleman died recently in Rio Janeiro, Brazil, where he has resided for many years. Mr. Bryan was a son of the late Hon. John H. Bryan, of this city, and was for a long time prior to, and during the war, teller of the old bank of the State of North Carolina, of which Mr. Geo. W. Mordecai, was President, Mr. Chas. Dewey Cashier and Col. W. E. Anderson, Clerk.

A Good Appointment.

As heretofore intimated in the VISITOR the President of the United States has appointed Col. Thos. C. Fuller, of Raleigh, to the high judicial position of an Associate Justice of the United States Land Claim Court, which was established under a recent act of Congress.

In making this appointment President Harrison has honored North Carolina no less than Col. Fuller. As an eminent lawyer, patriotic citizen and true gentleman he will fill with the highest credit the honor conferred upon him.

5,000 gents hemstitched h'dk's, 10c, a great bargain. Gents gauze and merino undershirts 25c, 44c and 48c each. The best unlaundried shirt in the city for 50c and 60c at Woolcott & Son's.

A Great Excursion.

There is to be a large gathering of young people at the Christian Endeavor Convention to be held in Minneapolis, July 9th to 12th, and the railroads of the country are doing all in their power to give the people an opportunity to visit the great Northwest. One fare for the round trip has been secured from either Richmond or Norfolk, so that the entire trip from these cities will cost but $30.50. Anybody can avail themselves of this great opportunity to visit Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul, and as the tickets are good for several weeks one can see much of the Western States. If several persons go from Raleigh it is probable that special rates can be secured from this city for either Richmond or Norfolk. Rev. J. J. Hall will be glad to hear from any persons who would like to take this trip.

Personal Mention.

Mr. O. T. Smith, of Durham, is in the city.

Miss Kate M. Wall, of Durham, is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. H. A. London, Jr., of Pittsboro is in the city.

We regret to state that Mr. C. M. Busbee is confined at home from sickness.

Associate Justice Walter Clark will spend some of his vacation at his Halifax plantation.

The following gentlemen are at the Yarboro House: F. M. Edwards, Murfreesboro; J. M. Brown, Albemarle; J. K. Morrissey, Winston; C. C. McAllister, Ashboro; B. J. Powell, Henderson.

In Prison Bounds.

We believe we voice the sentiment of many in our community, in the belief that the State Senate should be called together for the purpose of re-electing a President of the body, who, in the absence of the Governor shall assume executive functions. It is absolutely ridiculous, in view of the constitutional provision, that the Governor of North Carolina, should be kept as it were, "in prison bound," within the limits of the State, not being allowed to go beyond its borders, no matter how pressing or urgent the necessity. There are numerous occasions, almost constantly taking place, on which the State of North Carolina, should be represented, in the person of her executive, and for him to be debarred, is almost approaching absurdity. Of course the assembling of the Senate will cost a little something, but not much. It would seem that they might meet and select a President all in one day. But even if the cost were more than it is estimated, it is a matter that should be attended to. Let the Governor be a free man as well as anybody else.

Complimentary Resolutions.

The resignation of our esteemed townsman, Dr. E. Burke Haywood, as chairman of the Board of Charities, is much regretted, as his experience was much valued in that important position. His private duties, however, were such as to render the resignation necessary. Upon his retirement the Board passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, This Board is desirous of giving expression to its appreciation of the work of its retiring chairman, Dr. E. Burke Haywood; be it

Resolved, That not only in the organization and putting in motion the operations of this Board, but also in the oversight and guidance of its affairs, he has exhibited marked executive ability.

Resolved, That in all relations with the members of this Board his dealings have been satisfactory to the full measure of every requirement.

Resolved, That in the retirement of Dr. Haywood from the duties of this Board, the object for which it was created, and the State of North Carolina have suffered a great loss.
