NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Thermometer 92, and still rising—whew!

The people of Charlotte have given Evangelist Fife $1,000. He conducted services fifteen days.

A site for a power house for the electric street railway has been purchased, and soon the work "will go bravely on."

The exercises at the Agricultural and Mechanical College tomorrow will be very interesting. Rev. Baylus Cade will deliver the address. A large attendance is anticipated.

Every one pronounced the Fete Militaire a grand success last night. Go tonight and spend a pleasant evening and help our drummer boys.

A bunch of keys was lost on Saturday Light last. The finder will be kind enough to leave them at this office.

The officials of the Inter State Exposition have removed their headquarters to the fairgrounds, and now, the work of preparation will commence in earnest.

The Railroad Commission met today, and will get down at once to the hard task before them—that of assessing the valuation of the several roads for taxation.

Tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock will be for the children at the Fete Militaire. A beautiful programme is being prepared for them. No admission.

Messrs. Busbee & Thomas will perform on the trapeze again tonight at the Fete Militaire. They are as good as professionals.

A considerable crowd went down to Fayetteville this morning on the excursion of the Edenton Street Methodist Sunday School. There were six coaches pretty well filled. We wish all a pleasant time.

The ladies of the West End lawn party last night, desire to return thanks to their friends for the patronage bestowed, and also for the articles donated.

Charlotte is to have a new enterprise, organized yesterday, so says the Chronicle, in the shape of a gingham mill to be incorporated at an early day.

A large crowd attended the lawn party given last night by the ladies of West End Mission in Col. W. R. Richardson's grove near the city. The sum of $45 was realized after paying all expenses to be devoted to the Sunday School.

We understand that the drum corps entertainment was not very largely attended by the young men, but a large number of as pretty young ladies as are to be seen at any gathering. The entertainment will continue through the week.

"I have in my employ a man who has been a victim of periodic headaches for years, has tried all kinds of treatment, and I have tried various remedies on him. Your Bradycrotine helps him more than anything ever did." O. D. Kingsley, M. D., White Plains, N. Y. je15 ft

Look at Yancey & Stronach's "ad." of vehicles and harness in this issue. They sell tuggles, carriages, road carts and farm wagons of every style with harness to suit. Messrs. Yancey & Stronach, besides doing a large local business, ship a great many vehicles. They have two large storerooms, or repositories, which hold 500 jobs which are well filled at all times. Should you want to buy anything in their line they can make it to your interest. They advertise to sell at manufacturers prices, thereby saving you freight.

Mr. Tobe Marshall killed two more dogs this morning, said to be mad. "Tobe" gets away with them in short order.

The Bonanza Excursion.
Everybody is on tip-toe about the grand bonanza excursion to Norfolk, to be given on Tuesday, June 30th. Remember this is the "old reliable" trip which each year proves so agreeable to a large number of our people. It will be run as usual by Messrs. Chavasse & Macy, two as clever gentlemen as live in North Carolina. There will be every comfort necessary for the convenience of all who go. It is the grandest opportunity of the season, and should not be over looked. Remember you can get back to Raleigh in full time to participate in the Fourth of July celebration. Let all who possibly can, make up their minds to go. They will never regret it.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.
A 30 day sale, and every day a BARGAIN DAY. Specials, Jobs, Remnants, Trade Winners, Boomers, Flyers—will be offered. Our stock must be sold—High Tariff, Low Tariff, or no tariff. Free trade is what we indulge in today. Buy where you buy lowest, where your "Round Dollar" has most purchasing power.

Our low prices is the magnetic attraction. Our unremitting efforts bring about us a constant flow of trade. Busy all day yesterday, but our "closing out prices" would make the dull season gay. Our entire stock must be sold during next month—nothing reserved that can be disposed of—at this season of the year. There is a custom among merchants to get up all "Stickers," bad colors unsaleable goods, old style toughs, &c., and place them on a BARGAIN COUNTER. They are usually dear at any price. Not so with us. Everything in our store, the "freshest laurels" our newest, brightest and best goods. This summer's purchases go to make up that comprehensive term, BARGAINS which we claim rather of necessity than choice to make such inducements we offer are without profit to us. Our loss is your gain.

NORRIS' DRY GOODS STORE

Poem on Moores Square.
Jones.—Smith was it you I saw sitting on the side of the fountain in Moore Square with that young lady the other evening?
Smith.—Yes! because I could not find a bench in the whole square and by the way my girl ruined a nice ten cent chalice and she gave me the grand bounce besides.
Jones.—I would sue the city for damages if I was you old boy
Smith.—No I won't do that; probably by the time I get me another girl, they will have some seats made of the old fence.
Jones.—Well, I did really think that new Board of Aldermen were going to fix things up right. I wish you would call by and mention this matter to some of them. X.
