NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief

Huckleberries, peaches and apples in abundance in market to day.

Quite a considerable crowd of country people in the city to day.

Sunday night Rev. J. J. Hall D.D., will begin a series of sermons on the Bible and the morden attacks upon it.

Trains on all roads are crowded with persons for the Sea-shore and mountains.

The flag on the capitol was displayed at half mast today, in respect to the memory of ex-Governor Reid.

Several cases of drunk and down constituted the main features of the Mayor's docket this morning.

The swimming pool at Brookside Park is now open to the public and a good bath can be had for ten cents. Boys under fifteen 5 cents.

Gov. McKinney, of Virginia, will ask the next legislature to establish a system of separate coaches on railroads for whites and colored.

The receipts of cotton in Raleigh for the season up to last evening were 38,723 bales against 21,241 for last season.

Mayor Badger is going to have this city kept clean. He is not trifling about the matter. Do you understand? The Sanitary laws will be enforced.

Our people are seemingly asleep on the hotel question, but the time is fast approaching when they will wish they had not slept so soundly. It will be too late then.

Our friend Raney is pushing ahead the extension to the Yarboro House. It will present a fine appearance when finished and will prove a vast convenience to the traveling public.

Posters are being put up to day for the appearance of the Imperial Minstrels at Metropolitan Hall next Wednesday night. It is said to be one of the best companies on the road.

What a pity we have no canning factory in this vicinity. The market from present indications, will be glutted with fruit. There is money in the business, and some enterprising person can make a good thing of it.

The R. & D. Railroad has decided to extend the limit for selling tickets to Morehead City and return on account of the Teachers Assembly now in session. Tickets will be sold each day until and including June 27th, 1891.

The grandest display of fire works ever seen in North Carolina will take place in Raleigh on the night of the 4th of July. The committee of arrangements are making preparations for a grand celebration. Let everybody come and bring their wives and children. It will be twenty four hours of fun and enjoyment.

Tomorrow morning will be the occasion of the third quarterly conference for Edenton Street M. E. church, Rev. Dr. Cuninggim the Presiding Elder, will preach at 11 a. m. and the pastor, Rev. Dr. Cordon at 8:15 p. m. Love feast will be held from 4 to 5 o'clock p. m.

In view of the new electric system of street railway, it looks like a better bridge over the railroad on Hillsboro street would be a necessity. The present concern is entirely too flimsy for the constant wear and tear of the cars. To be candid, we do not think it altogether safe. A new bridge of iron would be the proper thing, and it ought to be built at once.

"I have in my employ a man who has been a victim of periodic headaches for years, has tried all kinds of treatment, and I have tried various remedies on him. Your Bradycrotine helps him more than anything ever did." O. D. Kingsley, M. D., White Plains, N. Y. je15 6t.

We are rather sorry that the matter of selecting the site for an auditorium was postponed at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night. It is a matter of most pressing importance to the people of Raleigh and should be attended to as early as possible.

D. T. Johnson, Esq., has been elected collector for Raleigh Council Royal Arcanum. Assessment No. 151 must be paid on or before the first day of July. Also one quarter dues. Members will find books at Mr. Johnson's store, 16 Hargett street.

Rev. J. L. Foster will preach the annual sermon to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Workingmen's Relief Association on Sunday next at the Christian Church at 11 a. m. Every member is earnestly requested to be at the R. & G. reading room at 10 a. m. prepared to wear badges.

We do not desire to appear too importunate about the matter, but really the painting of the market house should be ordered at once. Gentlemen of the Board of Aldermen, the people are anxious about it. The Exposition is coming on and we ought to put on as respectable appearance as possible. Don't delay the matter any longer. The building looks mighty shabby in its present condition.

The announcement that Col. A. B. Andrews had been appointed and accepted the position of first Vice President of the R. & D. system, seems to have been premature. While we would hail with delight any promotion of our popular fellow-citizen, we would regret that he should accept any place which would involve his removal from Raleigh. He will continue with us in the discharge of his present duties.

He Takes a Bride.

General John M. Schofield, commander-in-chief of the United States army, was married to Miss Georgia Kilburne, of Keokuk, Iowa, on the 18th. As far as consistent with the prominence of the groom and the high social standing of the bride, the marriage was without display.

Funeral.

The funeral services of little Pansy, daughter of Mrs. S. R. Glennan, were held yesterday afternoon from Mrs. Banks boarding house, and were conducted by Rev. Dr. Marshall assisted by Rev. Dr. Smedes. The remains were interred in the Rayner family plot in the Old City Cemetery. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. H. E. Litchford, Dr. Harvey, Thos. Pescud and J. R. Brown.

Ordination Service.

The ordination service of Rev. Jonathan Wood will take place in the Baptist Tabernacle on Sunday morning. The pastor will be assisted in the service by the Revs. J. B. Boone and M. L. Kesler. It is especially requested that all members be present, and all non-church goers are pressing invited to attend this service.

The Asheville Excursion.

On Thursday June 25th, there will be an excursion run from this city to Asheville, and the fare for the round trip will be only $3.50. This is the best opportunity that will be afforded for a long time to visit the "Land of the Sky" and view the beautiful scenery of our mountain section. Messrs. Moore and Isely will have charge of all the arrangements and our people may rest assured that everything will be done to render the trip a most delightful one. Remember the day June 25th, and be at the depot on time. Train will leave at 7 o'clock sharp. All should be on hand by 6 so that they can have time to purchase tickets if not procured before.

Westward.

The work of extending the street car line from Major R. S. Tucker's residence to the Exposition grounds, has been commenced in the way of grading the road. We learn that it is intended to have a compact road-bed of gravel. The work will be pushed to completion as fast as possible.

For the Seashore.

Let our people bear in mind the grand bonanza excursion to Norfolk on Tuesday, June 30th. It should be remembered that it will be in charge of Messrs. Chavasse & Macy, two accomplished managers in that line. It will be an occasion rarely met with to visit the sights of the sea. Look out for it. Remember the time, Tuesday, June 30th.

Baseball.

A game of much local interest is announced to take place next Wednesday afternoon at Athletic Park for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. It will be a game of the clerks on the north side of the market house against the butchers. The game will be called promptly at 4 o'clock. Ladies admitted free.

Died.

At Suffolk, Va., on the 18th little Addie, the last child of Rev. and Mrs. J. Presley Barrett, of this city, after a lingering illness of 27 days. Dr. and Mrs. Barrett went to Suffolk for a short visit to friends; the little one was taken sick the next day after their arrival and continued ill till released from its suffering by death. The VISITOR extends to the sadly bereaved parents sincere sympathy, and assures them that many friends in Raleigh are sad for them.

Board of Aldermen.

The board met last night, Mayor Badger presiding.

The opening of an alley way from South to Cannon street was ordered.

The committee on the auditorium reported that three sites were considered and recommended a selection. One is the Masonic Temple lot, another the lot corner of Morgan and Wilmington streets and the other the lot adjoining the News and Observer office. The consideration of the matter was postponed until next meeting.

The police committee was authorized to purchase a patrol wagon.

The Park Committee was authorized to purchase six benches for Moore Square.

Our White Goods.

Our lines of White Goods are larger than any one else can show, the assortment greater, and our prices as low and lower than you can get the same goods anywhere. At 7c, 8c, and 10c. we have the show-st and nicest India Linen. At 7c, 8c, 10c, and 12c. You can see more styles, and get better values in large sheer check muslins than ever before.
