RALEIGH, MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1891:

NO. 51

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The condition of Mr. W. T. Mabry is much improved.

There is no favorable change in the condition of C. M. Busbee, Esq.

Very little, if any, abatement in the heat.

Governor Holt and Private Secretary Telfair have gone to Morehead City for a few days recreation.

Mr. John Bagwell, a former Raleigh boy, now engaged in traveling for a Wilmington firm, is in the city.

The programme for the Fourth of July is a grand one. Let everybody boom up the occasion.

All passing trains for the east are crowded with passengers for the Seacoast.

Mr. Wm. Simpson has been appointed Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Masons in place of Mr. D. S. Waitt.

The Citizens Bank is undergoing somewhat extensive repairs and when finished, will be one of the finest and most convenient places of business in the city.

We hope the members of the Board of Aldermen will fully make up their minds by next meeting, as to the site of the auditorium. Don't delay this matter gentlemen. It is one that calls for prompt action.

It is required that all births in the city shall be reported to the Local Board of Health, of which Mr. A. L. Ferrell is clerk; this is a matter that should not be over looked. Physicians and attendants should promptly see to it.

Can't some of our capitalists make a move in the direction of building more small sized residences. Such investments would prove remunerative beyond doubt. The demand for them is most urgent.

Are you going on the grand bonanza excursion to Norfolk on Tuesday June 30th? It will be one of the most pleasant occasions of the season and will return to Raleigh in ample time to see the celebration of the 4th. Fare from Raleigh and return only $2.50.

There are now only three persons in the county jail, and one of these will be sent to the work house. Mr. Mills Brown, who has charge of the jail, informs us that the criminal docket at the September term will probably be light.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. J. H. Gill took fright today and dashed off at rapid rate up Martin street. At the postoffice corner he came in contact with the curbing and upset the wagon, breaking it up terribly. The colored driver was thrown out but not seriously hurt.

Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218 A. F. & A. M., will meet in regular communication tonight at 8 o'clock. A Dispensation has been obtained from the Grand Master for the election of a Treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Bro. D. S. Waitt. The meeting is an important one and every member is urged to be present. Visiting brethren invited to attend.

"I have in my employ a man who has been a victim of periodic headaches for years, has tried all kinds of treatment, and I have tried various remedies on him. Your Bradyrotine helps him more than anything ever did." O. D. Kingsley, M. D., White Plains, N. Y. je15 6t.

I. O. O. F.—Attention.

There will be a joint meeting of Manteo and Seaton Gales Lodges tonight to take action in regard to the location of the Orphanage. Every member of the two lodges is earnestly requested to be present.

Married.

In this city on the 21st inst. at the residence of G. W. Bishop by J. C. Marcom, J. P., Mr. Lonnie Jones to Miss Leslie Watkins. All of this city.

Died.

Suddenly this morning of heart failure at the home of her daughter Mrs. J. M. Heck, Mrs. Anna Callendine, wife of the late Martin B. Callendine, in the seventy ninth year of her age. The funeral will take place at the First Baptist Church tomorrow evening at 5:30 o'clock. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

Mayor's Court.

A white man named Waddell, having imbibed an over dose of the ardent, attempted the Japanese plan of running "amuck" last Saturday night. He slapped a colored man in the face without provocation and drew forth a claw hammer as if for use. He also smashed several window glasses. His fun lessened his pocket $5 and cost.

The Direct Taxes.

We are informed by Mr. Phil. H. Andrews, who has the matter in charge, that books containing the names of direct tax payers are now being sent out and that payment of claims will be commenced in a few days. The Governor will no doubt issue a circular setting forth the modus operandi of getting the money. It is understood that arrangements have been made by which claims will be presented to Mr. Andrews, who will see to the matter of adjusting them. They will be certified to the Governor who will cause warrants to be drawn. Of course the identity of each claimant will have to be established. It might be well enough for those having receipts to gather them up, as it will save time in establishing claims.

Land of the Sky.

Every person in North Carolina should visit if possible the beautiful western section of North Carolina. There is no prettier scenery in the world, and it has been justly called the "Switzerland of America." An opportunity will be afforded on Thursday next, the 25th inst., to make this delightful trip at the trifling cost of $3.50. On that day Messrs. Moore & Isely, two enterprising gentlemen will run an excursion, and it will be in all respects a first class one. Remember the day, and bear in mind that you must be on hand at the depot at 6 o'clock a. m., as the train will leave promptly at 7.

East Carolina Farmers Alliance.

For above occasion the Richmond and Danville railroad will sell tickets to Goldsboro and return at the following rates from points named: Tickets on sale June 26th and 27th. Good returning June 30th: From Raleigh $2.75 Selma, 1.75 Rates from immediate points in same proportion.

A Drunken Man Sinks With Child.

PARKERFORD, Pa., June 17.—Jennie Knerr, aged ten, and several other little girls were wading in the Schuylkill last evening, when Fred Bixbie, aged twenty eight came along intoxicated, saying: "I'll show you how to swim." He seized two of the children under his arms and started in. One of them escaped, but with the other, little Jennie Knerr, he started to swim to the other side. He had not gone far when he and the child sank. The bodies were subsequently recovered.

Something new every day this week in BARGAINS, at MCGEE & MOSKLEY'S.

A Funny Game.

The game of base ball to be played at Athletic Park, next Wednesday, will be in many respects, the most interesting one of the season. It will be novel in many ways. As heretofore stated it will be a match game between some of the clerks on the north side of the market and some of the butchers. The proceeds will be for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. Several of the parties have not played ball in ten years and the sight will be a funny one. The game will be called at 4 o'clock p. m. We hope the attendance will be large.

Imperial Minstrels.

On Wednesday evening next Allen's Imperial Minstrels will appear at Metropolitan Hall. It is a splendid company and has gained a first class reputation.

The Roanoke, Va., Evening World says: "Allen's Imperial Minstrels were greeted with a large audience at the opera house last night, in spite of the unpropitious weather, and, as was expected from the character of the company, the program was a success in all respects. Each member is an artist in his particular line, and the result was the music, songs and dances elicited enthusiastic applause. The jokes were new and the end men kept the audience in a roar of laughter with their witticisms and comicallities. Tom Prosho made his violin talk, and R. G. Allen proved himself a master of the banjo. Harrie Ainslie and Ben Downie showed themselves able exponents of African eccentricities, and Harry T. Lenard, Harry Jefferson and Mr. Sheffer were all first class imitators of everything laughable and pleasing to African character.

The entertainment concluded with a side splitting farce, entitled, "Joining the Farmers Alliance," in which the versatility of the company was further demonstrated."
