NO. 52

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

No break in the heat. The longest days are now at hand. Watermelons anxiously looked for. There are hustling times at the exposition grounds getting ready for the "big show."

Only $2.50 for the round trip from Raleigh to Norfolk. It is the cheapest trip for the enjoyment promised ever gotten up.

There will be a meeting of Raleigh Chapter No. 10 this evening at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of conferring the Royal Arch Degree.

Another rabid dog was disposed of yesterday by "Tobe Marshal" in his usual style. He was executed on South Person street.

Col. John N. Bunting, of Panther Branch township, sends us a cotton bloom picked the 22d June. This is the first we have seen.

The lightning yesterday darted around considerably. A house on Salisbury street between Johnson and North sts. was struck, tearing away the chimney.

There will be an adjourned meeting of the Albemarle Presbytery at the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock, p. m., to consider matters pertaining to the Blount street Presbyterian church.

The rush to the seashore, below Wilmington and at Morehead during the last few days has been greatly increased. At Carolina beach, the balloon ascension was quite an attraction on Saturday.

Don't forget the Bonanza excursion to Norfolk, on Tuesday, June 30th. It will not interfere with the celebration in Raleigh on the 4th of July and will be such a chance to visit the sea coast section as is rarely offered.

Mr. A. A. Wood, who has been in the employment of Mr. Dave Rosenthal, has accepted a position with Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell, furniture dealers on Exchange place, where he will be pleased to see his friends and the public generally.

Don't forget the funny game of base ball between the clerks and the butchers at Athletic park tomorrow afternoon. It will be for the benefit of St John's Hospital. Game to be called at four o'clock. Ladies free. General admission 10 cents.

The time for listing state and county taxes is fast running out. Unless this matter is promptly attended to, it will cause trouble. The law is imperative and will be enforced. There is no good excuse for neglect. Ample warning has been given. Attend to it at once. It will be better for you. Call at the room in the court house opposite the sheriff's office.

There is a little more money yet needed to get up a good celebration on the Fourth of July. Let everybody lend a helping hand be it ever so little. Mr. A. B. Stronach is doing his level best to have one of the grandest celebrations ever seen here, and he is never known to fail, if he can possibly help it. He ought not, however, be left to do all himself. Help him out, and he will "astonish the natives."

There is no prettier or more romantic country in the world than the mountain section of North Carolina, yet there are thousands who have never seen it. An opportunity is now given to see the sights of the "Land of the Sky" for a trifling sum. Messrs Moore & Isely are going to run an excursion to Asheville on the 25th inst. The train will leave the depot at 7 o'clock, a. m., sharp, and the trip will be made all the way through in the day time. Don't forget it. You may never have such another chance.

Fresh new eggs, at 17½ cents per dozen at Uzzle's, 219 S. Wilmington St.

The festive watermelon will soon be on hand.

There is no material change today in the condition of Mr. C. M. Busbee. Work on the road connection with Raleigh Mills, is progressing rapidly.

The health of the prisoners in the penitentiary is better than usual for this season.

Cotton receipts continue light in Raleigh and prices rule at about 8 to 8½ cents.

Don't fail to list your city taxes. C. W. Lambeth, city clerk, will wait on you.

The market was abundantly supplied with all the vegetables in season, and prices are getting reasonable.

There are forty one counties in the State in which the direct taxes were paid. The list for each county is being bound.

All the incoming trains to the city today were delayed. It is said that the Roanoke river at Weldon is up to the railroad bridge.

It is now understood that Thos. W. Mason, Esq., will deliver the oration in this city, on the Fourth of July. The selection is a most admirable one, and our people may expect a rich literary treat.

Y. M. C. A.

The regular business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held in Edenton Street Methodist church on Thursday night next at 8 o'clock. All the members are earnestly requested to be present.

Struck.

A colored man named John Malone while laying a hearth in a house on East Hargett street yesterday afternoon, was struck by lightning and for sometime rendered senseless. He is gradually getting over the shock.

Masonic Celebration.

A special communication of the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina will take place at Oxford tomorrow. There will be a grand celebration, and a special programme has been arranged. It is expected that Gov. Holt will be present and deliver an address. Parties desiring to attend can leave tomorrow morning by the Oxford and Keyville train and return the same evening.

Personal Mention.

Hon. T. J. Jarvis is in Philadelphia on business.

Mr. W. F. Kornegay, President of the North Carolina Railroad, is in the city.

We regret to hear of the continued sickness of Mr. J. M. Pugh, of Morrisville.

Mr. J. B. Foy, editor of the Twin-City Sentinel, was in the city yesterday afternoon on the way to Morehead.

Mr. G. G. Goodwin, of Richmond, Va., is in the city.

H. A. Gudger, Esq., of Asheville, is in the city.

Col. S. McD. Tate, of Morganton, is at the Yarboro.

Mr. J. P. Adams, of Clayton, is here.

Messrs. J. J. Fowles and N. B. McKay, of Wilmington, are at the Yarboro.

J. W. Lee, of Edenton is in the city.

Gov. Holt has returned to the city from Morehead.

The little son of Mrs. S. R. Glenna is still improving.

Collector E. A. White has returned from Morehead.

Capt. Peyton J. Brown has another child quite sick.

"Papa's pants will soon fit brother" is the first line of a new song and yet it is said that there is no literary or musical genius in this country—whether the pants fit or no, we make prices on Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines to fit. W. S. Uzzle 12 E. Hargett street.

Old Time Folks.

Postmaster Shaffer has received the following letter:
CEDAR JUNCTION, KANS.,
June 18, 1891.

MR. POSTMASTER:—I drop you a few inquiring lines. If old Rufin Tucker's sons are there, Rufus, Joseph Joel, William Henry Haywood Tucker; is there any Thomas J. Lemay's sons there, Leonidas Brook Lemay that use to print the Microscopian paper; his father use to print the Christian Advocate. Mr Postmaster the last postmaster that I knowed there was Mr. Tom G. Scott. If any of the boys are about there yet please tell all of them to write to me, as I use to be a servant of old Rufin Tucker. If uncle Alfred Craven or any of Mr. Billie Peace's black folks—or uncle Allen Freeman or Henry Patterson or uncle Billie Holmes or aunt Kitty Taylor. If any of them are there I will be freely glad to hear from them. I have not been there since the State house was burned down. I will bring my letter to a close by saying answer soon as received. From Ned F. Givan, Cedar Junction, Kansas

Exonerated.

Rev. W. P. Fife has been exonerated by a committee of investigation as follows:

Whereas, Rumors have been put afloat here and elsewhere, intended to affect the Christian character and usefulness of the Evangelist W. P. Fife just upon the eve of the meetings in this city, which has been done by evil and designing persons; and, whereas, the committee having in charge the said meeting, have (in two meetings) had a number of letters and testimony exonerating him from all such charges, and his open and full information of the circumstances in the case, corroborated by a gentleman in person, who knows all the parties; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we are clearly of the opinion that the charges and rumors are wholly without the slightest foundation, and we shall hold up his hands, by our prayers, and bid him God speed in the good work, not only here, but wherever his lot may be cast, in the Master's work.
