NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Only a few trivial cases were before Mayor Badger this morning.

There is a considerable exodus from the city to the Sea shore and mountains.

City taxes should be listed. The city clerk or collector Root will attend to you.

The street railway force are at work this afternoon on North Blount street.

See local notices of Uzzle & Co., 219 S. Wilmington street.

Peaches are getting more plentiful and of better quality. Prices, however, are still too high for the average pocket.

We are glad to note the selection of Mr. Chas. R. Park, of this city, as a assistant instructor of mechanics in the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

The best way to prize out of the dull season is to advertise, and the best medium is the VISITOR. There can be no doubt about this matter.

The crops are much in the grass caused from the recent wet weather and consequently but few of our country friends visit the city.

The can't-get-away club expect to organize in a few days. The grass widowers are getting restless and will soon form a protective association.

It has been decided by the North Carolina Press Association to hold the next meeting in Winston August 11th, 12th, and 13th.

It is now thought that everything will be ready for the opening of Trinity College at Durham, in September next.

An appreciative audience attended the performance of the Imperial Minstrels at Metropolitan Hall last night, and all were pleased. It is a splendid company and deserves success.

Preparations are on foot for another fair in Nash Square for the benefit of the Soldiers Home. It is a matter that should appeal to the sympathy of all our people, and we hope it may prove a complete success.

Mr. J. H. Estill, President Morning News Co., Savannah, Ga., says: A member of my family who has been a martyr to neuralgic headaches for twenty years, has found in Brady's tincture an infallible remedy. je24 6t

There are entirely too many young boys in this city doing nothing. They neither go to school or engage in any kind of employment. The consequence is they get into mischief sometimes resulting in serious consequences.

Arrangements are fast progressing for the grand celebration here, on the Fourth of July; we are going to have a splendid time and no mistake. The railroad rates are low and it will be a splendid opportunity for those at a distance to visit the Capital of the State. Let us have a rousing crowd and an old fashioned celebration.

The Railroad Commissioners are busily engaged in the matter of assessing the various railroad companies for taxation. Yesterday a modification was made in the rates on the Lynchburg and Durham railroad. It is now allowed 3½ cents for first class and 3 cents for second class passengers.

Don't fail to bear in mind that the great bonanza excursion to Norfolk will leave Raleigh next Tuesday morning, the 30th inst, at 8 o'clock. It will be the best and most enjoyable excursion to the sea-coast yet gotten up. The fare for the round trip will be only $2.50. Remember that it does not conflict, in any respect with the celebration in Raleigh. Plenty of water on the train and everything will be done to render all comfortable.

The excursion to Asheville left this morning at 7 o'clock. A number of our citizens took advantage of the occasion to visit the "Land of the Sky."

We call attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Island Beach Hotel at the Hammocks. This most delightful summer hotel is located on the ocean near Wilmington and offers many advantages to the health and pleasure seekers not found elsewhere. And our reasons for saying this is the following:

1st. The air is pure and healthful. 2d. The fishing is excellent and the sportsman has only to go about 100 yards to enjoy the sport.

3d. The boating is such that children and ladies may go out by themselves in what is known as the banks sound without any danger, as it is protected from the main waters by a bluff.

4th. The bathing is excellent either in still salt water or inside the banks sound, or in the surf amid old ocean's waves.

5th. There are fourteen trains daily to the city of Wilmington, allowing visitors to enjoy all of city life they choose.

L. O. O. F.

Seaton Gales Lodge meets tonight at eight o'clock sharp. Work in the 3rd degree. Election of officers and other matters of importance to be disposed of. Every member earnestly requested to be present. Candidates for 3rd degree will not fail to present themselves at 8:15 o'clock. THIRM, Sec'y.

Shameful.

Some person or persons have been guilty of shameful conduct in writing with indelible pencil on the walls of the rotunda of the capitol. Such persons are warned that the Superintendent of the building will cause the full penalty of the law to be imposed against all such offenders if found out. There can be no excuse for such conduct, and it will not be tolerated.

The Minneapolis Excursion.

The lowest rates possible have been obtained for all who desire this trip. One fare the round trip, taking in Cincinnati, Chicago, St Paul and Minneapolis. The Christian Endeavor Convention meets in Minneapolis July 7-12. Full particulars at the Richmond and Danville office.

Look at This.

Raleigh has a population today of about 16000. The estimated value of real and personal property is over $5,000,000. Capital invested in banking $440,000. These banks hold deposits amounting to about $1,000,000. More than 1500 persons employed in industrial pursuits. This is what Raleigh is now. Not what it proposes to be in the far distant and uncertain future. But if we take a look into the future, we see grand results coming, out of the exposition, the electric street railroad, the through line of the Seaboard Air line, Raleigh mills, &c. These are reasons why an investment in Raleigh suburb lots is certain to be profitable. At "Idlewild" there is to be an auction sale on July 8th. No such opportunity has ever been offered here before, and we hope it will prove a grand success. If our people will invest in lots and build up houses to accommodate them hundreds of families will doubtless locate here this fall. And the fact is we have not houses enough for the folks that are already here. These "Idlewild" lots are large, and beautifully located and no prettier suburb lots need be desired. The lots already sold by the company are sold to some of our best people. None will be sold to objectionable people, and this fact insures a good community.

Drink Coca cola at J. Hal. Bobbitt's. Another supply just received.

Mrs. M. A. Potter has received another fine lot of those fine tomatoes.

A Warning That May Profit.

The following, clipped from the Wilmington Messenger, indicates how other people look at the hotel question in Raleigh in connection with the coming Exposition. While we dislike to publish anything of this cast, we feel that our people need greatly to be stirred on the subject; then we shall be saved the humiliation indicated. The Messenger says: "The people of Raleigh are at last awakening to two things in connection with the approaching In'er State Exposition: First, that the hotel accommodation is very small. Second, that the people must open their houses or the crowd will have to camp out under the canopy of the skies. Unless this meagreness of entertainment can be cured and it is widely known that people can find grub and bed the visiting thousands will never come. We hope for the sake of Raleigh and the State that ample accommodations for all will be found. This ought to have been considered when Raleigh was chosen."

The Auditorium.

We hope there may be no impediment in the way of erecting a suitable auditorium in the city, and if there should be any seeming difficulty about the matter, it is the desire of perhaps all our people that it may be overcome. We are aware that there are some constitutional restrictions which put the matter in a somewhat dubious shape, but still the legal fraternity generally do not think these of such a character as to cause any serious delay. Let the Aldermen and the city authorities put their wits together, and we feel sure some way will be found out of the dilemma, if any exists. We believe the only real conflict is the right to run the credit of the city in bonded obligations, without the consent of the Legislature. If the city has cash, however, in our opinion this conflict can be avoided. A little shrewd financiering can find a remedy. Let it be resorted to. The people want the auditorium, they want it badly, and they want it soon.

As the Time Draws Near.

As the time of our removal draws near it makes us more anxious to reduce our stock all possible, and to do this we are selling our goods for much less money than any one else is selling them. Now where is the sense of you going to some other store to trade; if you really knew you would not do so. No longer than yesterday a lady came in our store, looked at our goods and would not buy, but insisted on looking around and go to some other store for it. Well, she went out and bought the very identical goods we showed her and paid nearly as much again money as we wanted for our goods. She began to show us what she had done. First thing she showed was a sateen which she paid 1½ cents for. We showed her the same goods and reminded her that we had offered her for 8 cents. When she remembered we had, then she went through all her goods and figured up what she had lost by not remembering our prices, lost the snug little sum of $9.78. People who do not know dry goods should not think they do. This lady thought she knew all about it.
