NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The mad dog scare is about over, at least for the present.

Watermelons have made their appearance in Asheville.

Only a few more days in which to list state and county taxes. Attend to it at once.

Complaint is being made on account of the cutting down of shade trees on West Martin street.

There will be a special race track for bicycles prepared at the exposition grounds.

We hope to be able in a few days to give a correct outline of the routes of the proposed electric railway. We have been promised it.

It has been suggested that a procession of the "D. Q. I's" would be a fitting annex to the Fourth of July celebration.

Orders having been received from headquarters, the work of adjusting the trolley wires of the electric railway, is being pushed.

The First Virginia Regiment is making extensive arrangements to attend the encampment at Wrightsville next month.

The work of altering and enlarging the Baptist Tabernacle is progressing rapidly; when finished it will be one of the handsomest and best arranged houses of worship in the state.

A horse attached to a buggy belonging to Hon. J. B. Batchelor ran away on Martin street this afternoon. The vehicle was smashed to pieces but no one hurt.

It is now understood that we are to have a grand 4th of July celebration. Let the people come from every quarter. They will receive a cordial welcome at the capital of the State.

We hope the suggestion to have a fair in Nash Square for the benefit of the Soldier's Home will be carried out. It would be a splendid addition to the Fourth of July programme.

The Masonic celebration at Oxford yesterday was an imposing event. Grand Master Gudger, Junior Grand Warden, Dr. R. J. Noble, Grand Secretary Bain and Grand Tyler Bradley were in attendance.

Work on the extension of the Yarrow House is rapidly going forward. In the absence of a new hotel many places in the city will be fixed up for the reception of visitors and no fears need be entertained about all who come getting accommodation.

Let every one remember the grand bonanza excursion to Norfolk on the 30th. There will not be another such a chance this season. Remember also, that the excursion is under the charge of those experts Messrs. Chavase and Macy, who will take special pride in seeing to it that everything is conducted in the best style. One drawback on excursions generally, has been the lack of good water; this will not be a difficulty on the present occasion as due precaution will be taken to have an abundant supply. The price for the round trip is only $2.50, thus rendering it an occasion on which all can enjoy themselves at a most reasonable price. Get ready and go.

Mr. J. H. Estill, President Morning News Co., Savannah, Ga., says: A member of my family who has been a martyr to neuralgic headaches for twenty years, has found in Bradycerone an infallible remedy. je24 6t

An effort is being made before the Board of Health to prohibit the second hand clothing business. A merchant who has considerable quantity of it on hand and will lose by the prohibition, thinks there is danger of infectious diseases and that the order should pass.

Buy your groceries at D. T. Johnson's.

There is an immense crowd at Morehead. It is larger than ever known.

The advent of the watermelon season is anxiously waited for by lovers of the fruit. They are due by regular schedule time on the Fourth of July.

A meeting of the Fourth of July Committee will take place at the Mayor's office tomorrow evening to perfect arrangements. A full attendance desired.

The matter of leaving teams standing on the streets unattended by drivers is receiving prompt attention at the hands of Mayor Badger. Parties who are guilty of the offence may expect to incur the penalty of the law. There is no excuse for it.

Don't let the 4th of July Committee overlook the Visitor's proposition to have all the bells of the city rung at sunrise on that day. Let us also have a salute of artillery if possible. Maybe the committee can borrow a cannon, if one is not at hand.

We publish today the statement of the Hanover Insurance Company of New York, of which our fellow citizen, Mr. W. S. Primrose is General Agent. It presents a most admirable showing, and the business in North Carolina is specially commendatory of Mr. Primrose's business skill.

Mr. A. B. Stronach who has in charge the matter of our Fourth of July celebration told us today that we would have the best display of fireworks ever seen in Raleigh. The celebration in other respects will be fully up to expectations. Mr. Stronach has taken special pride in this matter, and he should be encouraged in every way possible. Let all who can do so conveniently contribute something for the occasion. Leave it with Mr. Stronach at his store. Everybody should help out.

No stencil or inferior pianos and organs sold by us. Every instrument bears its maker's name and full guarantee. Absolute protection given purchasers. Please call on W. S. Uzzle, 12 E. Hargett street.

Excursion to Littleton.
The Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Workingmen's Relief Association will give another one of their delightful excursions—the fourth of the series—to the beautiful and healthy village of Littleton, on Thursday, July 9th. They propose to give everybody a good time. There will be a pavilion for dancing for all those who delight in that sort of amusement. A brass and string band will accompany the excursionists.

This will be the best chance for the "stay at homes" to go on a first class excursion, enjoying themselves, drink panacea and other fine mineral waters, and have a ride of 160 miles all for the small price of one dollar for adults and fifty cents for children. The managers are negotiating with some of the young men of this city and Henderson, who are up in base ball, to try and get up a first class game during the day.

The management of the excursion is in the hands of the following railroad men, who are successful in everything they undertake and they guarantee everybody a good time, plenty of fun, &c. They are Capt. John W. Horton, Capt. L. W. Renu, Messrs. C. C. Williams, Wm. C. Betts, W. Henry Cole, W. Lindsay Davis and Kim W. Weathers.

Why Delay?

If you had begun paying $10 per month towards a piano two or three years ago, you would now have it paid for. Why delay? Nothing completes the furnishing of a house so well. No present you could make your family would be half so acceptable. Start in at once and you will own the piano before you know it. Call on W. S. Uzzle, 12 E. Hargett st.

The best remedy for preventing the hair turning gray or falling out would be for you to buy a New Home Sewing Machine of W. S. Uzzle, 12 E. Hargett.

No Injunction.

We learn that there is no foundation whatever for the rumor that gained some credence this morning to the effect that an injunction had been sued out against the extension of the Electric Street Railway to the exposition grounds. No such action has been taken, nor is any expected, so far as we can learn.

Hands Full.

Our popular clerk of the Superior Court, assisted by his clever and gentlemanly deputy, Mr. Moye, will have their hands full, no doubt, in a few days attending to direct tax claimants. To use a common phrase, however, they will "get there all the same." For prompt attention to business, these gentlemen are hard to beat, while their urbanity makes ever one perfectly at ease in their transactions with them.

Blount Street Church.

It has been decided by the Commission of the Albemarle Presbytery after a full conference with the members of the Blount Street Presbyterian Church, that an evangelist shall be employed to preach at that church on Sunday mornings and conduct services during the week. He will also assist in the work of the mission of the First church and do other mission work in the city. The matter will be under the direction of Presbytery until the Blount Street Church shall re-organize so as to elect its own officers.

Personal Mention.

Register of Deeds Mial has gone to his farm for a few days.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. L. Harris, who has been quite ill, is some better.

The genial countenance of Senator Ransom appeared on our streets yesterday.

Ed. Chambers Smith, Esq., has returned from a northern trip.

The editor of the Pittsboro Record and Mr. Phillips of the Jonesboro Leader were in the city yesterday.

Mr. W. T. Mabry is much improved in health. We hope he may soon be fully restored.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Watkins has gone to Johnston county to ordain an evangelist with headquarters at Smith field.

Prof. W. J. Ferrell is in the city, visiting his brother on South Person street.

Mr. G. H. Alford, of Holly Springs, is in the city.

Hon. C. M. Bustee rested comfortable last night, and, it is thought there is a slight change for the better.

Col. John N. Bunting, of Panther Branch township, is in the city today. He is a familiar figure with our people who are always glad to welcome him.

Move the Racket Store.

Yes, on August 5th we will hang our sign above the door at 206 Fayetteville street. The store now occupied by Norris' dry goods store, will be transformed into the ever present, vigilant and sleepless Racket store.

What a change? What a waking up? What a shaking up of dry bones? Yes, we will all be there—there with a mammoth stock; there with our low prices. Yes, and if there is any trade in town that will be there. Our store will be 120 feet long, light and airy. On the second floor we will have a carpet room 100 feet long. Largest carpet room in the State; and we will fill this carpet room with best carpet made—moquits, velvets, Brussels, ingraids and rugs of all kinds.

Before we move we are endeavoring to sell all our stock by reducing price in many lines less than wholesale cost. Yes, the Racket store will be at 206 Fayetteville street by the 10th of August.

A Card to the Citizens.

I am pushing the Raleigh Gazette teer rapidly to completion. Every item and every name ought to be in hand by Tuesday night, the 30th of June. I have failed to find a few of the citizens—some were not at home when I called. I want every name, white and colored, in and around Raleigh. If I have not yet seen you about this matter please call on me at once or address me a postal card, giving the name of your family, also street and number. This book will be large and valuable—maps, cuts, &c., to ornament. See that your name is certainly put in. Don't delay the matter at all.
