NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The new County Board of Education was sworn in today.

Keep both eyes on the Idlewild sale of lots Wednesday, July 8th.

The Masonic address will be delivered at Smithfield next Saturday by Justice Walter Clark.

The board of county commissioners were in session today and transacted the usual routine business.

Now that the 4th has come and gone let us all work for the success of the Exposition. It is the first event in the near future.

A base ball game between Durham and Raleigh last Saturday resulted in victory for Durham, by a score of 24 to 8.

Now that the site has been selected, let there be no delay in building the auditorium. We need it as soon as possible.

Col. Pete Akers, the celebrated land auctioneer of Knoxville, Tenn., is here to conduct the Idlewild sale of lots Wednesday, July 8, at 3:20 p. m.

The remains of Mr. Eaton Gales did not arrive yesterday afternoon as expected. They are looked for this afternoon, and the funeral will take place at 5 o'clock.

We hope the day is not far distant when we will have a first class building in our city for the Y. M. C. Association. Other cities in the country not so large or prosperous as ours have them and, why not Raleigh.

Mayor Badger had numerous cases of over indulgence before him this morning, the result of last Saturday's capers. The city treasury was replenished to a considerable extent. We are glad to note that there were no serious affrays.

The celebration at Guilford Battle Ground last Saturday was a grand success. Governor Holt made a most beautiful and patriotic address. A reunion of the "Blue and Gray" took place amid much enthusiasm. There were excursionists present from almost every section of Central North Carolina.

The funeral of Mrs. George T. Porter took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence in the north-western suburbs of the city. The services were conducted by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. W. Upchurch, W. C. Cooper, J. M. McReary, Mr. Gattis, W. H. Alford and Andrew Jackson. Mrs. Porter's death is a very sad one, which was sudden, on Saturday evening about 8 o'clock. She leaves several young children and an afflicted husband.

If you suffer from sick, nervous, neuralgia, spinal, bilious or dyspeptic headaches, Bradycerine will cure promptly. jy16t

Sad Accident.

A youth named James Smith, about 16 years old, was drowned near Auburn, in this county, yesterday afternoon. An elder brother, in attempting his rescue, came near meeting his death.

A Grand Excursion.

The excursion of the Relief Society of the Raleigh and Gaston railroad employees to Littleton will take place on Thursday next, the 9th inst. It promises to be an occasion of much enjoyment, and the fare has been placed at $1 for the round trip from Raleigh. The train will leave the depot at 6:15 sharp, arriving at Littleton at 9:50. A brass band will be along and dancing will be a feature. It will be a day of solid enjoyment. Refreshments of various kinds. Let everybody go.

It is a Beauty

The new magnificent hose wagon of the Rescue Fire Company, which was so much admired by all who saw it on the grand parade on the 4th is a combination of very superior workmanship and artistic taste and skill. The builders, Messrs. Evans and Martin of this city, have certainly done themselves great credit in the class of the work and the finish of this wagon. The Rescue Company is the oldest volunteer fire company in the city, it having been in active service for 22 years. It is composed of some of our best young men, who are exceedingly well pleased with their new hose wagon.

Schedule "B."

The time for giving in taxes under Schedule "B" will expire July 10th, the law requiring it to be listed during the first ten days of this month. In order to put the matter of fees right before the public the following section (2nd) of the chapter relating to revenue is quoted:

"For the services required of the clerk of the board of county commissioners in this section, he shall receive a fee of 25 cents, also a fee of 15 cents for the second return of each year, which last mentioned fee shall be allowed by the board of county commissioners and paid by the county treasurer."

We learn that merchants are unusually slow in listing their purchases this year. It is highly important that it should be done, and thus avoid the penalty of the law.

The Direct Taxes.

In order to avoid a great rush on the Executive Department, and to place the matter in its proper light before the people, we had a short interview this morning with Governor Holt on the subject of payment of the direct taxes. The State has not yet received the full amount due from the government, there being still $26,000 behind. This deficit arose from an error discovered in copying the lists at Washington. It was conceded by the auditor in charge, and it is hoped that in a short time the amount will be forwarded. Governor Holt does not feel justified in adopting any scale of the claims, which he would necessarily have to do, if he commenced paying them before the full amount is received. Due notice will be given when warrants will be issued. Let claimants be patient awhile.

The Fourth.

The celebration last Saturday was one of the greatest successes of the kind ever taken place in Raleigh. It reflected great credit upon all concerned, especially upon our friend, Mr. A. B. Stronach, in charge of arrangements. The programme was carried out in splendid style. At night the pyrotechnical display was witnessed by a tremendous crowd. Nothing to equal it has ever before been seen in Raleigh. The day passed off without any mishap and all were delighted. Much credit is due to our Chief of Police and his assistants, who, with "eagle's eyes," watched every point of the compass. The whole matter was well done throughout. Raleigh spread itself, as it always does when occasion offers.

Died.

Mrs. Sallie J. Lambeth, wife of Mr. C. W. Lambeth, city clerk, died at her home, No. 308 East Jones street, this morning at 3:30 o'clock, after an illness of six months; leaving surviving her a husband, two daughters and four sons to mourn their loss.

We deeply sympathize with the bereaved husband and family in their sad affliction.

The funeral will be held from Edenton Street Methodist church to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. In this city, at 1 o'clock p. m. to-day, Mrs. Helen A. Howard, relict of the late Mr. J. W. Howard, in her 67th year. Notice of the funeral hereafter.

Grand Sire Busbee.

It is gratifying to all of our people to know that this gentleman has a strong hold on the affections of the noble order to which he is the Chief. Not only in North Carolina but throughout the country. The following resolutions were recently passed by Richmond, Va., Lodge, No. 1

Whereas, the sad news has been imparted to us of the illness of our beloved brother, Chas. M. Busbee, Grand Sire of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the World, our Commander in Chief, who rules and governs an army of over seven hundred thousand Odd Fellows; and whereas, we the undersigned constitute a committee appointed by Richmond Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., of Richmond, Va., to draft suitable resolutions, commensurate of their sorrow, and expressing their sympathy and brotherly solicitude for his condition; therefore, be it

Resolved, That Richmond Lodge, No. 1, do earnestly pray with fervent hearts to God, individually and collectively, to restore our highly esteemed and honored brother, Charles M. Busbee, to his wonted health and immeasured usefulness. And that fully realizing his inestimable value and potential influence, as our chosen leader, therefore our hearts blend in an earnest invocation for his speedy recovery to Him who stills the storms of affliction, and dispels all gloom, and who can transform and radiate the darkest hour into the sunshine of peace and tranquil joy. Our only help is in the name of the Lord.

Resolved, That Richmond Lodge No. 1 do hereby express and manifest their appreciation of brother Charles M. Busbee's consecutive years of an unquestionable purity of character, whose record as a man, a citizen and a true genuine Odd Fellow has added prestige to our noble order, and has erected indelibly a monument of admiration and love in the hearts of his devoted brethren.

Resolved, That we extend to his family our sincere and heartfelt sympathy. That the above resolutions be published; that a copy be sent to our Grand Sire, and that they be spread upon our minutes.

Fraternally submitted in the bond of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Do you want clothing of any kind, and do you want them at the very lowest rates? If you do call at the establishment of the late D. S. Waitt, opposite the post office on Fayetteville street. There is a splendid stock of goods to be sold there, and they are to be sold as early as possible. Everything in the gentlemen's furnishing line can be had at rates which are truly astonishing. Call and be suited. This is an opportunity rarely witnessed in Raleigh, and it is a chance to obtain clothing such as will perhaps not be again in a long time to come. Don't forget the place. At Waitt's on Fayetteville street opposite the post office.

Rescue Company.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of this company tonight at the usual hour.

Ice.

Ice may be had at our cellar under Barbee & Pope's confectionery store, near Savings Bank, tomorrow and every day hereafter. Those wishing it sent out in quantities will please send orders to JONES & POWELL.

Remnants Straw Mattings.

We have taken from the regular stock, up stairs, all the short lengths of straw mattings, marked the number of yards upon each, and placed them just at the Wilmington street entrance, where our customers can find them during this week. Some of these remnants contain enough for a small sized room, while others have only a few yards. Prices have been marked in plain figures, and so low as to be quite interesting for our patrons. These remnants represent some of the best grades we have shown.
