NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

Another heavy rain last night. Henderson, yesterday, voted unanimously for graded schools.

The new pump in the Capitol Square will soon be ready for use.

This has been one of the dullest days of the season, and no mistake.

Roasting ears and tomatoes have put in their appearance at reasonable rates.

Water melons of native growth have commenced to come in pretty freely.

Although the elements appeared against it, the entertainment at Stronach's warehouse last night was a complete success.

There was a large exodus yesterday from the city to Morehead. A friend tells us that the Raleighites down there are having a grand time.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says that the daily News and Observer of this city will soon appear as an eight column paper, with new type and other improvements.

The county commissioners will meet again on the 2d inst., when all persons having complaints to make relative to the valuation of property in Raleigh township will be on hand.

Has the proposition to extend Morgan street died out entirely? Is there no chance for a resurrection of the matter with a hope of success? Perhaps our city fathers can tell.

Mr. Geo. E. Gill, of Wake Forest, who has been appointed to look after the exhibits of Wake county at the approaching Exposition, will enter at once upon his duties.

The drum corps will meet tonight promptly at 8:30 o'clock to arrange for the encampment at Wrightsville for which place the corps leaves on Friday. All who contemplate going down will be present.

It is truly gratifying to announce that Grand Sire Busbee continues to improve. He now readily recognizes friends and acquaintances, and partakes of a moderate quantity of solid food. It is good news to thousands throughout the land.

Commissioner Robinson, of the Agricultural department is having his office repaired, repainted, &c. It is now a nice business office, occupied by one of the most courteous gentlemen in North Carolina.

Mr. Geo. E. Gill, who was appointed yesterday to take charge of the Wake county exhibit at the Exposition, is a gentleman well qualified for the place. He will do his full duty in the premises.

The Governor's Guard seem to be in a streak of unusual luck. In addition to the sum of $150, recently appropriated by the Board of Aldermen, the County Commissioners have given them a like sum. This will enable them to go to the Wrightsville encampment in tip top style.

There is considerable work to be done at the Agricultural and Mechanical College between now and the next session. A large lot of Machinery is to be put in the mechanical department, and the new dormitories are to be erected so that an anticipated increase of students may be provided for.

Mr. C. D. Payne, publisher of the Union Signal, Chicago, Ill., writes: I never saw anything that would cure headache like your Bradycrotine. July 14 6t.

Now let some enterprising capitalists put up small residences. They are very scarce in Raleigh. In fact, a house for a small family is hard to get. It will pay handsomely. Better than mortgages at 8 per cent.

See notice of lost spectacles by Mr. J. C. S. Lumsden.

Receipts of cotton continue small and prices low.

There are very few inmates now in Wake county jail.

Surry county is making much preparations to be represented at the Southern Exposition.

Remember the lawn party at the corner of Wilmington and Davie Sts. to night.

Cantaloupes in market today, but a nickel was the price of one about the size of a Buncombe county apple.

The Friends yearly meeting will take place at High Point on August 4th. A large attendance is expected.

The encampment at Wrightsville will open next Friday. Gov. Holt will go down on Monday. It will be a grand time.

Evangelist Fife is going to Massachusetts for the purpose of prosecuting his studies in ecclesiastical matters.

If you want to encourage a deserving cause and spend a pleasant evening attend the lawn party corner Wilmington and Davie streets to night.

Let every county in North Carolina come to the aid of the Inter-State Exposition. It should be a great success, and as it takes place in the capital of North Carolina, she should aid all in her power.

Help out the committee for locating the colored Agricultural College in Raleigh. We lost the Odd Fellows Asylum by inertness. Let us rouse up. Raleigh is the place for the college.

The corner stone of the new building for the colored Orphan Asylum at Oxford will be laid July 27. Reduced rates will be given on the different railroads.

We are under many obligations for courtesies from Prof. Von Hermann, of the weather crop bureau. The Professor seems to know and appreciate the wants of a newspaper man.

The walk around the capitol square should be paved. After this, the old unsightly building used as an arsenal should be pulled down. It is an eyesore and spoils the look of the square.

Mr. D. T. Swindell has purchased the stock of the Norris' dry goods establishment and today has been busy taking inventory. Tomorrow the establishment will be open and the public will hear something to their advantage.

Let everybody in Wake county who has anything queer or curious get it ready for the exposition. Let us make Wake the banner county in the way of exhibits. Report to Mr. Gill who will see to it.

We have seen a most beautiful album of Greensboro, issued by the Chamber of Commerce of that city. It contains a most complete "write up" of the "City of Flowers" with pictures of the most prominent citizens.

Manager Brown of the Western Union office, in this city, has returned from a short trip to Morehead City. He says he saw a considerable number of Raleigh boys there who appeared to be enjoying themselves well.

Bank Changes.

In view of the selection of Mr. B. S. Jerman, to become cashier of the new bank to be started in this city, here have been several changes and promotions in the citizens bank. Mr. H. E. Litchford becomes teller, Mr. F. P. Haywood, individual book-keeper, Mr. W. H. Bain and H. J. Young assistant book-keepers, and Mr. Irwin Jones collector. These are all clever and popular gentlemen, and in all respects worthy of the positions to which they have been assigned. To Mr. Jerman we tender our heartiest congratulations. No better business man or cleverer gentlemen lives in our city.

For Richmond.

There will be a grand excursion to Richmond, Va., on August 5th, under the auspices of Messrs. King, Macy and Sherwood. It will be one of the most pleasant as well as the cheapest excursions yet given. Just think of it, you can go to the former capital of the southern confederacy and return for $2.50. It will be a most instructive trip in all respects. A chance will be given to visit the battle fields and see the sights of Virginia's noble and beautiful chief city. Let there be a grand turnout.

The Auditorium.

We hope the matter of an auditorium will not be allowed to slumber longer than is absolutely necessary. No city of the size of Raleigh should be without a place suitable for large gatherings. We have been sadly deficient in this respect for a long time. In fact, Raleigh has on some occasions been deprived of the opportunity of some first class entertainments, because no hall suitable could be obtained. It is a great pity that this matter had not originated sometime since, so that it could have been ready by the exposition. Better, however, late than never, and we hope it will be pressed forward energetically by our City Fathers.

Rumored Deficit.

The air was full of rumors yesterday concerning a deficit on the part of the late Republican Sheriff, J. Rowan Rogers, Esq. The shortage was placed at between $8,000 and $10,000. The VISITOR made no mention of the fact because it did not desire to do any injustice in the premises, and preferred to await such developments as an examination on the part of the properly constituted authorities might bring to light. It is claimed by Mr. Rogers that the shortage is the result of his being charged with insolvent claims for back taxes, which he alleges he was unable to collect. It appears that the bondsmen of the ex-Sheriff express a willingness to settle the matter without litigation, but claim that the amount of shortage alleged is in excess of what an examination will reveal. It is understood, however, that an amicable adjustment will be arrived at and that the bondsmen will pay the sum of $5,000, the first of next week.

Personal Mention.

Rev. F. L. Reid has returned to the city.

Mr. S. H. Duet, jr., of Eufaula, Ala., is in the city.

J. C. L. Harris, Esq., has gone to Washington City on business.

Col. Benahan Cameron, of Stagville, is here.

Judge James E. Shepherd is in the city.

Major J. M. Crenshaw, of Wake Forest, is in the city.

Miss Loula Riddle is on a visit to Durham.

Col. W. A. Ailoright, of Durham, is in the city.

Mr. W. J. Young, Principal of the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, has gone to Connelly Springs for a short recreation.

Auditor Sanderlin has returned from a big Alliance rally in Wilson county. He is looking much better than when he left the city.

Lieut. Allen G. Rogers, of the United States Navy, a Raleigh boy and son of the late Sion H. Rogers, has been ordered to Fort Townsend, in the State of Washington. He is now in San Francisco preparing for his transfer.

Miss Lula Theim, who has been on a pleasant visit to her aunt and cousins in Georgia, having a good time for about six weeks, returned home yesterday evening where she was received by her many friends with much joy.

Native watermelons fresh and ripe at D. T. Johnson's.

Alliance Rally.

There will be a grand Alliance rally in Durham on the 28th of August. The farmers of four counties will be present and a great time is looked for. A number of good speakers will be on hand.

The Virginia and Carolina District.

In reviewing the state of trade for the past six months, Dun's circular gives the following from the Richmond, Va., office: Leading authorities throughout this district report business the past year to have been larger than for many years, excellent crops being raised, and good prices obtained, this being particularly true of tobacco. Collections everywhere are reported to have been from fair to good, with money easy for legitimate business requirements. In some localities, however, considerable stringency has prevailed, and still exists, owing to speculation in real estate, but it seems to be generally conceded the "craze" has about died out.

DRY GOODS

OFFERINGS

— TO THE —

PEOPLE.

TWO weeks ago we began a special sale of WHITE GOODS,

These were placed upon tables near the Main Entrance, and offered to the people of Raleigh at lower prices than the same goods had ever been offered before.

IN THIS special sale of

WHITE GOODS

All kinds were included, not a few pieces selected from the regular stock to close out, but full lines of the most desirable styles, and the prices were no more than those, oftener paid for soiled pieces and remnant lots.

Now, to our friends and patrons, who have not yet supplied themselves with all the

WHITE GOODS

They will need this season, we wish to say that the special sale will be continued during the week, and, though a great many have taken advantage of these offerings, there still remains some of the best values.
