NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

We hear that there has been very little complaint about the assessment of property.

Only eight prisoners in the county jail. This is a pretty good showing for a county the size of Wake.

There seems to be little or no let up in the applications for direct taxes. The cry is "still they come."

The market and all the stores are just flooded with all kinds of fruit in season, with the luscious watermelon in the ascendant.

Dr. F. P. Hobgood, who was recently elected president of the Baptist Female college at Richmond, Va., has resigned on account of ill health. This is much to be regretted.

The judge's stand in the fair grounds is rather a rickety old affair, and should be prilled down to make room for a new one. We suppose, however, Mr. Patrick and his corps of able assistants will look after such matters.

We hope after the new electric railway gets into full operation and becomes a paying institution, as all of us hope it will, the matter of a belt road around the city will receive favorable attention. It will be a great bonanza in the shape of bolstering up suburban property, and a source of great convenience to the people.

The difficulty between the electric street, car and the telephone companies concerning the strunging of wires, has been satisfactorily arranged, so that no obstruction will be made in any case. This is all right. Now, go ahead.

We are glad to note that there was no foundation for the rumor about a fight or quarrel between any of our Raleigh boys and others at the encampment. Everything has gone on smoothly and all are having a good time.

The case of the State vs. Blanche Winfree, briefly noted in the VISITOR yesterday, was terminated late yesterday afternoon, by a decision that the prosecution pay cost there being in the opinion of the presiding justice, no probable cause for the action. Upon this, the prosecution took an appeal.

Work was commenced yesterday on the extension of the street car line from Maj. R. S. Tucker's corner, to the exposition grounds. A large force is engaged in laying down cross ties. The work of putting down the rails will begin in a day or so. The track runs on the right hand side of the Hillsboro road going west.

Is it sensible? Is it reasonable? Is it economy, to suffer yourself and worry others with a headache when Bracyerotine will relieve you in fifteen minutes. It costs only fifty cents a bottle. July 21 6t

Let it be understood that the dog tax is now due, and those who do not pay it during the present month may expect the penalty. The tax must be paid, as the officials are determined to carry out the law. Don't forget this matter. It is highly important.

Wait for the grand excursion to run Aug. 12 by Hope for All Lodge, 2645, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, to Richmond and returning 14th over the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Fair for round trip $2.50.

Special arrangements will be made for ladies and children. Special cars for white people and special cars for colored people. Those who went to Richmond last August on the excursion run by the Odd Fellows, will remember the nice time and are earnestly requested to wait for Aug. 12, as this promises to be equally as good if not better.

For further particulars apply to Maurice Watts and Warren A. Alston, Raleigh, N. C.

The Governor's Guard are expected to return to the city this afternoon.

Take away the extreme heat and this weather is much like April in the way of frequent showers.

"Tob" Marshall adorns the desk of the Mayor every morning with a beautiful bouquet. It sheds a rich fragrance around the temple of justice.

We have reason to believe that the matter of painting the market house will soon be considered. Glad of it; the matter has been overlooked too long already.

The advent of the fruit season usually puts up the price of paregoric. May it prove otherwise the present year.

Col. F. A. Olds has telegraphed that the story going the rounds about difficulties at Wrightsville, between any of the soldiers, is without the least shadow of truth. All the troops dwelt together in perfect amity amounting to brotherly love.

Great preparations are being made for the dedication of the new Baptist West End Mission next Sunday. Rev. Dr. Carter will preach the sermon. The new church will start out with a considerable nucleus.

A friend from the country told us today, that the rains were most disheartening to the farmers. The low ground crops were specially being damaged, while the grass was running away with the cotton.

Evangelist Fife has closed his meetings at Mt. Airy and gone to Carolina Beach where his wife is for the present. He says that there were two hundred and fifty converts as the result of his services at Mt. Airy.

We hear very little of late about the new road from Ridgeway to Petersburg. It would prove a vast saving in the travel between here and the north. Richmond would be put nearer distance by many miles.

The foundation of the new Union Depot is expected to be finished today. It is hoped that the work will be pushed with such vigor as to allow passenger trains to land there during the exposition. A temporary arrangement, at least, might be made.

This is nice weather to get under the shade of a tree and listen to our fellow citizen Rev. Dr. Bailey tell some of his bewitching yarns, and especially hear his comments on men and things in general. It always produces a breeze, and makes one forget for awhile the torrid surroundings.

All men are most cordially invited to attend the Young Men's Prayer meeting tonight at Edenton Street Church. Subject: Christian ambition as taken from the courage and ambition of Nehemiah when he purposed in his heart to build the walls of Jerusalem. Services commence promptly at 8 o'clock.

We are much pleased to note the return of our esteemed young friend, Mr. D. O. Blake, son of our fellow citizen Capt. W. R. Blake, who has been to Lexington, Kentucky. He has graduated with high distinction and is now prepared to enter in the active duties of life. We predict for him much future usefulness, and tender him a most cordial welcome to his home and friends.

Now let everybody boom up the Capital City Land Company. It proposes to do great good to our city, and it becomes every citizen to aid them in all respects possible. Speak for it, and work for it. It will be a mutual advantage. Remember it is a home enterprise in which some of our most progressive people are interested. Their interest is our interest. Let us pull together.

Watermelons for Sunday should be bought of Uzzle & Co. They buy fresh from country wagons every day. Uzzle don't sell melons pulled two or three weeks. You can place orders with Uzzle for Sunday's supply.

A Noble Lady.

We had the pleasure today of seeing Miss Kate E. Williams, of Atlanta Ga., who is in our city, in pursuit of a most worthy object. This young lady has a father who is paralyzed and was a brave soldier in the Confederate service. She is a most admirable artist, and is endeavoring to dispose of some of her pictures to aid her parents. She is in possession of first class references, among which is one from the late lamented Henry W. Grady the accomplished editor of the Atlanta Constitution. We hope our people will extend to her substantial encouragement in her laudable purpose. The painting she now desires to dispose of is at Watsons' store, but we learn, she has been tendered the use of a room and other courtesies shown her by our worthy mayor and chief of police. Let all extend to her a most cordial welcome.

Grand Picnic.

A grand Alliance basket picnic took place today at Old Liberty Grove, in Johnston county. The following was the programme which was carried out:

10 a. m.—Address of Welcome N. R. Poole, President of Clayton Alliance.

Response, A. D. Taylor, President county Alliance.

The Demand of the Alliance, James A. Wellons.

Our Trade System, W. R. Creech.

Should the Alliance Encourage a Higher Standard of Moral and Intellectual Development? E. D. Sneed.

What the Alliance Hopes to Accomplish, Bob Stafford.

The Educational Force of the Alliance, Hon. J. C. Scarborough.

Dinner.

The Benefits the Farmers from the Agricultural Department, John Robinson, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Relation of the Alliance to Politics, J. P. Cannady.

The Growth and Development of the Alliance, W. W. Cole.

How to Make Farming Profitable, D. T. Massey.

Do the Farmers Need any Special Legislation, Capt. J. J. Young.

The speeches were interspersed with music and songs, and all went off as happy as a marriage bell. The music was furnished by Mrs. Robertson at the organ, Mr. J. W. Cheek, cornet; Pool Bros., McCullers Bros. and Harris Bros., violinists. "The Old North State," "Ho! for Carolina," "The Farmer's Glee," and other songs were rendered in most beautiful style. There was a very large crowd in attendance. The picnic was under the auspices of the Clayton Alliance.

The Big New Store of D. T. Swindell.

This vast mercantile palace will soon be completed, and when completed there will not be a store in North Carolina equal in size and beauty and convenience. This store will be fitted with all modern improvements. This magnificent store will be two hundred and ten feet long, thirty five feet wide, has Lamson's Cash Railway, will be lighted by electricity and gas, has retiring rooms and toilet for ladies, is connected with the water works and sewer, and will be filled with goods to suit the masses in quality and price. Our second floor is one hundred feet long, thirty five feet wide. On this floor we shall carry a complete line of carpets and rugs, and all kinds of floor coverings. Our basement is the same size as second floor, and in this we will keep supply stock, domestics &c. We will occupy this store sometime the first part of August, and in the meantime we shall continue to sell at actual cost the Norris' Stock and the stock of the Big Racket Store.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Finest fresh country butter at Uzzle's. This butter is sweet and nice.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Mr. Orrin A. Smith, living at corner Hargett and Bloodworth streets, was stricken with paralysis in the left side this morning about 4 o'clock and is at this time in a very critical condition. We extend to the family our sympathy and sincerely trust Mr. Smith may be speedily restored to health.

Railroad Commission.

Secretary Brown of the Railroad Commission is very busy just now making out and sending to the several counties, statements of the amount assessed against the railroads running through their territory. The commission has about completed the assessment of the different roads in the state. The total being $19,800,185.47, a gain of about $7,000,000 over the assessment of last year. The amount assessed on Railroad property in Wake county is $377,795.17.

Personal Mention.

There is a slight improvement in the condition of Mr. W. T. Mabry.

Dr. J. M. Ayer has returned from a visit to Mt. Vernon Springs.

Mrs. J. W. Markham, of Durham, is visiting friends in this city.

Miss Alma, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. W. M. Jewell of Rand's Mill, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. K. B. Perkinson, of this city, left today for Wilmington, Wrightsville and other points of interest to visit relatives. Her many friends regret that her stay was short in the City of Oaks, but their best wishes attend her and may her trip be a most delightful one.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

For Saturday's trade Uzzle will have finest watermelons and cantaloupes. Prepare for Sunday. Uzzle.

Ice.

Ice may be had at our cellar under Barbee & Pope's confectionery store, near Savings Bank, tomorrow and every day hereafter. Those wishing it sent out in quantities will please send orders to JONES & POWELL.

Those Odd Curtains.

Those patterns of chenille curtains and portieres that we cannot duplicate, and the odd pairs of lace curtains which have accumulated during the season just passed, are now at the Wilmington street door, along with the passed patterns and short lengths of carpets. If you wish several pairs of curtains alike, then you will not find them in this lot, but if you wish a single pair of handsome curtains, then ask for those shown with the carpets at the Wilmington street entrance, for these are odd pairs and the prices are made accordingly.
