

Look Here!

Are you going to Richmond on the big excursion to come off on the 5th of August. If not, why not? Did you ever hear of so much pleasure for so little money. Do you know that an excursion to Richmond, the capital of Virginia is indeed a rare treat, and do you know that you will not have another such chance for a long time to come. Now Messrs. Lacy, King and Sherwood have gotten up such an excursion as will be far ahead of anything yet undertaken in that line. Every precaution will be taken to render all who go, most comfortable. Polite and special attention will be given to ladies, and there need be no fears that everything will not be conducted in a manner to make the trip desirable. We learn that arrangements have been made with hotels to secure board at reasonable rates.

Personal Mention.

Mr. R. L. Prempert is in the city.
Mr. W. T. Mabry is slowly improving.
Col. A. B. Andrews is in the city again looking as well as possible. He has no idea of leaving us.
Mrs. W. R. Blake left Saturday afternoon to visit her daughter in Lumberton, N. C.
The condition of Mr. Orrin Smith is, we are glad to hear, somewhat better today.
We had the pleasure of seeing Maj. J. W. Fry, of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Road, in the city last Saturday afternoon.
The little 12 year old son of Mr. O. W. Belvin, who has been complaining for several days was taken quite sick yesterday.
We had the pleasure of seeing Hon. Jno. Nichols in the city, this morning. He is looking the very picture of health.
Col. L. L. Polk arrived in the city last Saturday afternoon. He left this afternoon for South Carolina, where he is booked for an address in a day or so.
Col. A. W. Shaffer and Collector White have returned from Asheville, where they went to attend a convention of the Protective Leagues of the State.
Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, accompanied by his wife and Miss Genevieve Jordan, has returned from Minneapolis. They report a very pleasant time.
Mr. M. A. Parker is on a tour through the Continental cities, and British Isles. We heard of his safe arrival at Southampton, Eng., today; he will land at Bremen, Germany.
The following persons arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Wilmington and other places: P. W. McGowan, J. M. Broughton, Len H. Royster and wife, Miss Julia Frost, Mrs. M. King.
Rev. Dr. Jno. S. Watkins, accompanied by his family, left today, to spend his summer vacation during the month of August, at Morehead City. May they have a most pleasant time and a safe return is the wish of everybody in Raleigh.
Mr. A. Dughi has returned to the city from the north where he has been adding to his stock of the good things of life. He is now better prepared than ever to cater to the public.
Col. W. H. Lucas, the genial senator from Hyde was, in the city Saturday chatting with his friends. He reports the oyster business all quiet. His account of the crops in Eastern Carolina is not very good. He says there has been entirely too much rain.

THE GREAT
Panacea Springs
WATER

CERTIFICATE FROM DR. J. B. BOBBITT.
RALEIGH, N. C., June 5th 1891.

To the Panacea Springs and Hotel Co:

Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to state that I regard the Panacea Springs water the very best in the catalogue of mineral waters now in use for scrofula, and especially for dyspepsia. One year ago I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia and after spending several weeks near the springs and using the water daily, I was entirely relieved. Since that time I have had occasional returns of it, and in every instance I have experienced prompt relief by the use of the water. I would advise every sufferer from dyspepsia, who can do so, to use this water. It is what its name indicates—a panacea—for some of the worst, if not all, the diseases to which flesh is heir. I have known the water for a number of years, and I cheerfully recommend it. Respectfully,
J. B. BOBBITT.
