NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

There was no news of any importance whatever, at the capitol today.

The great Farmers' Alliance Rally will take place August 8th.

Work on the dormitories will soon commence at the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Secretary Brown of the Railroad Commission is busy writing up the proceedings of the session.

State Treasurer Bain is much improved by his short trip to the western part of the State.

The reports of the cotton crop being daily received at the Agricultural department, are really disheartening.

Rev. J. J. Barker is holding a protracted meeting in the Methodist church at Clayton with good result.

The hill just this side of the exposition grounds is being graded for the electric cars.

Capt Rice "gin a treat," and "Alec" Stronach says he is going to do the same August 19th, at night will be a big time.

Turner's N. C. Almanac will make its appearance much earlier than usual this year. It is now in course of preparation.

Will Wynne and the bicycle trip to New York is now all the talk. We have not yet seen the schedule, but suppose it has been mapped out all right.

Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 18, A. F. & A. M., will meet in a called communication this evening at 8:15 o'clock, for work in the third degree. Visiting brethren invited.

The Asheville Evening Journal of the 27th says: "Col. John D. Cameron is looking hale and hearty. Raleigh air and fare undoubtedly agree with him."

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr. M. Rosenthal, Trustee of Mr. I. Winetrob. This is a rare opportunity to secure bargains.

Don't fail to call at once and examine and try on some of those nice fit suits which were made to order and which are now offered at very low prices by M. Rosenthal, Trustee of I. Winetrob.

Persons contemplating a trip to Wrightsville or Hammocks would do well to call at the VISITOR office before going. They can save money by so doing.

Mayor Badger said today that everything considered, he presided officially over the most moral community in North Carolina. True, every word of it.

A watermelon of pretty good size can now be had for a nickel, and the average colored person as well as the small boy of either race is comparatively happy.

It has been suggested that the next sale of lots in Raleigh be made during the exposition. This will give the people of the State an opportunity to judge the value of Raleigh dirt.

Justices of the peace should call promptly at the office of the Register of Deeds and get the laws of 1891 to which they are entitled. It is highly important that they should have them.

The bridge over the railroad on Hillsboro street shakes when an ordinary country wagon passes over it. Is such a bridge safe for the street cars which will pass over it every few minutes? Suppose it gives way, and a dozen or so persons are either killed or have limbs broken, won't damages have to come from some source? Better erect a new iron structure at once. It is much cheaper in the end and may save much trouble.

Smoke the Special Permit cigar manufactured by J. M. Norwood. They are the best cigars in the city. They can be found at all the dealers.

The new firm of Barbee & Thompson will be a "team" in the cotton market and no mistake.

Now let the Board of Aldermen at their meeting on the first Friday night of next month see to it that Morgan street is opened.

A dispatch was received here today announcing the death of Mr. Ed. Bennett, a printer and former resident of this city. We were unable to learn the particulars.

The cry for more buildings in Raleigh is getting loud. A large number of persons want to put up residences and no one to build them. This is a rare state of things, and should be remedied if possible. There is a fortune here for somebody, if they will only come and get it.

Workmen are engaged today is putting up what are termed the feeding wires of the electric railway. The work in all its departments is progressing rapidly, and, we hear that there is a bright prospect that the cars will be running about the middle of August.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Sallie H. Fleming took place this morning at 10 o'clock, at the First Baptist Church and was attended by a considerable number of relatives, friends and citizens generally. Rev. Dr. J. J. Ball officiated.

An observant gentleman said this morning that the laying of the street car track to the exposition grounds would no doubt necessitate the opening of another street to the western suburbs. He gives as a reason that horses, and especially country horses are afraid of the cars, and it will cause many runaways and smash ups.

"Well, it is an ill wind that blows nobody any good." We have been laboring for years to have Morgan street extended without result. Perhaps now, necessity may come to the rescue.

Dughi's parrots are mostly gentle, but he has one old fellow that has his liver out of order badly. He is as spiteful as "old Nick." Dughi says he has tried all he knows how to get him in a good humor, but he won't take kindness worth a cent. He is a regular Mexican growler.

Mr. Seth Jones, who keeps a boarding house on East Martin street, says an old ex Confederate soldier stopped with him a few nights since, while on his way to Wrightsville. He said he had not been to Raleigh since the attack on ex Governor Holden's office in 1864. He says it don't look at all like the same place, and he never would have known he was in Raleigh. Shouldn't wonder.

The rush at the office of the clerk of the Superior Court, for direct taxes, has not much abated. There is a stream of visitors all day, and the officiating clerk, Mr. Moye, is in his glory. He says that but for the fees of applicants the office might have been compelled to make an assignment, as business in other respects is awful dull.

Messrs. Lacy, King and Sherwood are much elated at the prospect for a very large crowd on their excursion to Richmond next Wednesday. It is going to be a "hummer" and no mistake. Never has there been a time when such a trip could be taken at so little expense, and everything has done to render it peculiarly interesting. Ample time will be given to see all the sights of the former capital of the Confederacy. Let it be a grand gala occasion. Special pains taken with ladies and children. All the comforts possible will be provided.

Rev. James H. Cordon, pastor M. E. church, Wilson, N. C., says: I have used Bradyrotine and never in a single instance failed to obtain immediate relief from headache when directions were followed. jy28 6t

Remember that the Special Permit cigar is manufactured by J. M. Norwood, on Wilmington street. They can be had at the dealers generally. All who desire a comfortable smoke should try them.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. to night at eight o'clock sharp. By special request of some candidates, the 2nd degree will be conferred and other matters of importance will come before the lodge which requires the presence of every member. Candidates will report promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Every Odd Fellow invited. THEM, Sec.

Say What You Will Do.

The committee of colored men appointed to solicit subscriptions to secure the location of the colored A. & M. College are at work and feel fairly encouraged, but they say too many put them off with a "Call again—will think about it." The time is short and we hope our people will make up their minds and respond promptly.

Let's have the A. & M. College for the colored people. Raleigh has a great future if her people don't get too stinky.

Grand Rally.

Rev. J. C. Price a colored orator of much note, will deliver an address to night at Metropolitan Hall in the interest of progress especially as regards the great southern interstate exposition. He has of late traveled extensively throughout the south, and everywhere has been greeted with large and enthusiastic crowds. It is desired that the white citizens shall be present to night, and reserved seats have been set apart for them. The presence of the ladies is requested and, no doubt that all who attend will be delighted. Let the hall be crowded.

July Crop Report.

We have been kindly furnished by the Commissioner of Agriculture with proof sheets of the crop report for the month of July. As to cotton the report is as follows: The average condition of the crop in this State is 52%. Last year it was at this time 120. The most sanguine estimate now gives about 50 per cent of last year's crops. This is the lowest average condition reported for this crop in years.

The prospect of tobacco in the general average is 85; this is five points lower than at this time last year.

As to Wake county there has been a scarcity of farm labor, consequently the crops have not been freed from grass; all crops are small and backward; too much rain has thrown them backward and the general outlook is anything else but promising, as crops are two to three weeks late, and, in many sections the stand of cotton and tobacco is poor.

Carpets and Carpets and Carpets.

We have a big lot of all wool ingrain carpets of beautiful patterns. Also a big lot heavy all cotton ingrain carpets and a few pieces Brussels carpets, and one or two hundred rugs. This is the remainder of our last season carpet stock; and we are specially anxious to sell all these carpets, and we are willing to part with them at a big sacrifice. Hence we have moved them to our Fayetteville street store, and for the next 12 days you can get bargains in carpets you will never get again. We are to have as complete stock of carpets this fall as money can buy. These carpets are put on sale this day at Norris & Carter's old stand.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL
