NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The shipment of grapes is still going on. Large quantities every day are being sent North.

The new building and Loan Association goes into operation to-morrow. Let all interested take notice.

Two more cars for the electric railway arrived this morning. This makes eight altogether on hand. Now for business.

Paint up the market and let us make a good show for the exposition. This is our advice to the Board of Aldermen, and it is good advice. The people want it done.

There is rumor of a change of schedule on the R. & D Railroad commencing next Sunday. We are not so far informed as to the extent it will effect the N. C. Division, if at all.

When the new Union depot is finished, and we are on a great through line from New York to Atlanta, we will begin to realize in fact that we are a progressive community. And it is in the near future.

We hope the scheme to build a chapel at Oakwood cemetery for funeral exercises will not be allowed to die out. All cities of any size have such a convenience, and surely we should not be behind in so essential a particular.

Rev. James H. Gordon, pastor M. E. church, Wilson, N. C., says: I have used Bradycetine and never in a single instance failed to obtain immediate relief from headache when directions were followed. jy28 6t

In reply to a request from H. L. Farley, Adjutant General of South Carolina, Gov. Holt has granted permission for the Newberry rifle company to enter the State of North Carolina, armed and equipped, for the purpose of going into encampment at Hendersonville.

The man or men who can furnish a scheme to build an auditorium without coming in conflict with the State Constitution, are the persons now needed. Such a person or persons can find patient hearers at the next meeting of our Board of Aldermen.

Huge piles of mail matter are daily being sent off from the office of the Inter-State Bureau. The receiving made is also very large. Everything is busy at the grounds and the notes of preparation are seen on all sides. There is a big time ahead for Raleigh.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, who call attention to the fact that anything in the bakery line can be found at their establishment, 128 E. Hargett street. These gentlemen never tire in serving the public, and the worst dyspeptic can be cured by using their bread. Let all our housewives make a note of this; nothing puts a husband out of humor sooner than bad bread, and the Messrs. Stronach can fix them all right. Read their Ad.

Are you ready for the grand excursion which takes place next Wednesday to Richmond, Va. Do you want a short respite from the cares of business, in a manner in which you can have a day or so of real solid enjoyment for a trifling sum. If you do, now is your chance. The capital of the late Southern Confederacy presents more attractions to the stranger than any other place on the continent. The excursion will be gotten up with a due regard to comfort in all particulars. Plenty of cool water in the coaches, and arrangements for board made at cheap rates. Let all who can, get ready and go; they will never regret it. Messrs. Lacy, King and Sherwood will look after you all right. Special attention paid to ladies and children.

And now the weather prophets say that we are to have a dry, hot August. Those who fail to pay their dog tax today may learn something "to their cost."

Work on the Baptist Tabernacle is rapidly progressing. It will be a beauty when completed.

Regular monthly meeting of the W. R. Womble Hook and Ladder Truck Company tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

Persons contemplating a trip to Wrightsville or Hammocks would do well to call at the VISITOR office before going. They can save money by so doing.

The Clerk of the Superior Court thinks that the docket for the next term of court will not be heavy. There are but few jail cases, and not many have so far been sent up by magistrates.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. C. G. Stone, manager, who tells some interesting facts in the bicycle line. Let all read it and take their choice. He has an endless variety of bicycles at such prices as are bound to attract attention. Call and see for yourselves.

Let all our people get up soon next Monday morning and go to Capitol square. At 5 o'clock, Will Wynne and Neill A. Spence will start on a bicycle tour, to the Northern and New England States. They will visit all the principal cities, returning by way of Niagara Falls and New York City. Let us give them a parting salute and wish them Bon Voyage.

What is to be done about the merchants purchase tax? Some of the merchants refuse to pay it, as we learn, until the law is declared constitutional by the Supreme Court. The commissioners will meet next Monday and will have to solve the knotty question.

Died.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her residence on Smithfield street, in this city, Miss Texana Womble, aged 27 years. The remains will be taken to New Hill, Wake county, this afternoon for interment.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr. Jno. W. Brown, undertaker.

Call Bells.

With his characteristic enterprise, Manager Brown, of the Western Union Telegraph Co. in this city, has had call boxes put in the offices of its patrons so that they can communicate with the telegraph office when a message is desired to be sent. It is a great convenience for which Manager Brown is entitled to many thanks.

The Dog Tax.

If there is one right more than another, that a great many people think they can enjoy without any cost, it is that of keeping a dog. For some reason or reasons best known to themselves, they seem to think that if a state or municipality, should think proper to impose a tax for indulging in canine devotion, it is a subject for rebellion. Such being the case, there are numbers of people who never pay a dog tax unless compelled to do so, and they will go to any extent to evade it; now this is all wrong. A dog is as much the subject of taxation as any other species of property, and in fact more so in some instances, because they are frequently a nuisance. A good useful dog ought to be paid for, because he is useful. On the other hand a mean dog should be taxed as an incubus. At any rate there is a tax imposed on dogs, and it will be well for all who own them to pay the tax required by law promptly and, if they do not, they may expect that the proper officials will see that they do.

A New Complaint.

We called on our usual rounds, at the mayor's office this morning. We found all quiet along the lines, but there was a shade of deep contemplation on the generally complacent face of Chief of Police, Heardt. We soon discovered that some weighty matter of municipal importance was interfering with the equanimity that was characteristic of the man. Our query elicited the following new phase in the official duties of the chief which is nothing, more or less, than the supposition on the part of some folks, that he must use his office for the promotion of connatal bliss. To cut the matter short, Charley said that last evening, as he sat glancing over the columns of the New York World, to while away the effects of the toil and trouble of the days business, a genuine specimen of Africa's sunny clime, by descent, came strutting into the office to lodge a complaint. He said he wanted the chief to interfere in a hymenial matter which seemed destined to become a failure. He said his daughter now sat at her domicile, robed and decked for a bridal ceremony, waiting in patience for the necessary annex of the bridegroom who had failed according to promise, to put in his appearance. He declared that he wanted the full penalty of the law inflicted, which by statute, was provided in special cases. In absence of any provision in the code, the chief told him there was but one remedy, and that was to get up a crowd of the bride's female friends and inflict upon the delinquent bridegroom forty stripes, save one, according to the Hebrew code of the days of Moses. The applicant left seemingly bent on carrying out the chief's recommendation, and the aforesaid chief is now disturbed, because he has just come to realize that he may before another sun sets, be arrested as an accessory in an assault and battery case. This would, of course, not look well, for one of Mayor Badger's cabinet.

Swindell's Carpet Sale.

The special sale of carpets at Swindell's store on Fayetteville street today has created quite a flurry. Many entire patterns were taken out this morning, but there is a big lot of it and there is plenty left for you. If you are to fix up an extra room for the exposition you will do well to get a carpet from Swindell's tomorrow. We have many patterns, in small pieces, as follows: 23 yards covers a room 12x16, and pieces to cover rooms 10x12 and 1 x15, &c. And these remnants can be bought very, very low. On the 10th August we move entirely; on the 15th our buyer goes to New York, and we will be prepared to show a grand stock this fall.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Notice.

Mr. I Winetrob having assigned to me for the benefit of his creditors, this is to give notice to all parties indebted to him to call and settle at once.

Another Industry.

Mr. W. H. Holloway is preparing a carriage and wagon factory at the old Knights of Labor tobacco factory building on East Davie street. Arrangements have been made to run all the machinery by steam. We wish him the most abundant success.

The Veterans.

There are about five hundred old soldiers in camp at Wrightsville, and from all accounts they are having a grand time. Today they are addressed by Senator Ransom, so that in addition to their physical wants they are being given an intellectual treat. May they enjoy themselves to the utmost. They break camp next Monday.

Wait for the grand excursion to run Aug. 12 by Hope for All Lodge, 2645, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, to Richmond and returning 14th over the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad. Fair for round trip $2:50.

Special arrangements will be made for ladies and children. Special cars for white people and special cars for colored people. Those who went to Richmond last August on the excursion run by the Odd Fellows, will remember the nice time and are earnestly requested to wait for Aug. 12, as this promises to be equally as good if not better.

For further particulars apply to Maurice Watts and Warren A. Alston, Raleigh, N. C.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A. Dughi has just received a nice lot of those delicious California pears.

To the Public.

This is to announce that I am again on the turf, somewhat reduced but still as spry as a young Morgan. Call and look at my stock of North Carolina Hams, Shoulders, Ribs, fresh egg and chickens, &c., &c.

Respectfully,

LYNN ADAMS,
Adams Building, 310 & 312, Wilmington Street.

Ice.

Ice may be had at our cellar under Barbee & Pope's confectionery store, near Savings Bank, tomorrow and every day hereafter. Those wishing it sent out in quantities will please send orders to JONES & POWELL.

Two Carpet Sales.

Our patrons will bear in mind that we have just opened a line of new carpets which we are displaying at the Fayetteville street door. Along with these carpets we show all kinds of goods pertaining to house furnishing. These have just been bought during the dull sea on North—bought for the cash, and our customers shall have all the advantages of the low prices. Every housekeeper intending any preparations for the exposition, should buy now. We have also a lot of passed patterns and remnants of carpets which we are showing at the Wilmington street entrance, and many of these remnants and passed patterns we are offering at prices lower than cost of manufacturer.

Embroidered Skirtings.

At the Lowest Prices Ever Known in this City.

This season we have displayed the greatest variety of styles and the handsomest line of Embroidered Skirtings ever shown in the State.

While our sales have been very large, yet we do not wish to carry a single pattern, and have now placed upon SPECIAL SALE all that remains of these Skirtings.

They are full 45 inches deep, and in none of them have we more than two alike, and many of the patterns we have only one of a kind, thus, to each purchaser, is assured, almost exclusiveness of design.
