LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, N. C., AUGUST 8, 1891

Mr. J. B. Paschall, of Black Creek, Wilson county, lost about one hundred and twenty thousand feet of lumber by fire last week. His mill and machinery were not injured.

Charlotte Democrat.-Articles of incorporation were filed for a new corporation to be known as the Blakely Printing Company. The incorporators are R. E. Blakely, G. L. Doov ley, J. S. Drakeford, Thos. Ledwell. The amount of capital stock is three thousand dollars, divided into shares of fifty dollars.

In the little State of New Jersey according to the New York Sun, there are 18,487 acres of abandoned farms. The American farmer is being slowly but surely "protected" to death. No wonder the Alliance movement continues to move.-Boston Globe.

An editor of a Wyoming paper informs his readers that the Southern editors who attended the Editors' Convention at St. Paul, "treated the old flag with as much respect as their Northern contemporaries did." The fact that the editor thought it worth while to make a statement of this kind conveys the impression that there are some people up there who have mistaken ideas about the South ern editor, who is in fact about as peaceably disposed an individual as can be found anywhere. He is chiefly occupied in hustling for an honest living, and is incidentally trying to make this naughty world better, and is not frittering his valuable time away with nursing enmity to the old flag or any other flag. What he wants drill. Eva Booth thereupon called chiefly is more subscribers, those who pay in advance preferred.

An Actor Who Wants Death.

Philadelphia Record.

A well dressed, white haired man. apparently sixty years of age, walked into the Thirteenth street police station last night and asked the Sergeant what he could do to keep him from committing suicide. He said he was an old actor in hard luck, and he wanted to end his life. Sergeant Cooper told him he could lock him up until morning. The would be suicide said, that that remedy would not be sufficient, and he guessed he would take a turn around the block and try to work it off. With this he strode out into the night.

School Teachers Taxed.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Aug. 8 - Michael B. Dormer, one of the east Norwegin township school directors, who is charged with issuing illegal orders and defrauding the township out of a considerable sum of money, was given a hearing today. A number of witnesses were examined, and the hearing consumed nearly the whole day.

A lady teacher testified that she gave $40 to secure her appointment. Michael Kenney, it was said, received $15 for part of a day's work. Dormer gave bail for his appearance at court

Argonant.-The no fence question is being agitated here, and the county commissioners will probably be petitioned to order an election this fall in several townships to determine whether they shall be taken into the great that it must, become a great pe fence territory or not.

They Ciling Mount Pisgali.

WINDHAM, Aug. 5th .- People who travel through the Catskill seldom finish their tour without resorting to this charming village and making the ascent of Mount Pisgah. Although the ascent is exceedingly difficult, yet hundreds of picnic parties make their way to the plateau on the summit to obtain the magnificent view from the top. Early in the worning, while the sun is yet hidden behind the far off Berkshire Hills, people can be seen wending their way to the summit. It is a glorious sight when the great orb of day lifts his golden disc from behind the Berkshire Hills and illuminates the whole valley of the Hudson and the eastern watershed of the Catskills. Again at the sunset the gorgeous illumination of the clustered peaks thrown in bold relief against the western sky affords a fine sight.

Another beautiful spot in the land of Rip Van Winkle is the Big Indian Valley in Ulster county. Here every glen and mountain peak has its storied legend and tale of either Indian massacre or border warefare. Here lived Winnisook, the "Big Indian," from whom the Valley takes its name and hereabouts live his descendents, the Burrill family, so well known throughout the entire range.

No Advocation.

Here is a portion of the examination to which an old lawyer told me he was subjected when he applied for a license. The oldest member of the examining committee interrogated

"Are you familiar with any game of

"No, sir."

"Don't you know how to play any game of cards "

"No, sir." "Surely you understand euchre?"

"Never heard of it before." "It can't be possible you never indulged in a game of draw poker?"

"Yes, sir, it can. I am a member of the church and don't know one card from another."

"Well (after a long pause of astonishment), young man, we'll give you a license, but how in the world you're going to make a living for the first two or three years after you start to practicing law is a mystery to us."-Dallas News.

The Mayor Could Pray, Too.

In an English city, recently, an ordinance was passed refusing permission to the Salvation army to parade in the streets and go through their upon the mayor and tried to obtain a permit for the army to take its usual out of door exercise. Her arguments being of no avail she dropped on her knees in the mayor's parlor and asked the Lord to give him a new heart. Eva counted without her host, says the New York Herald. The mayor, a dovout Scotchman, had no objection to Miss Booth praying, but he had no idea of allowing her to be at it alone. He also fell on his knees and ferventa ly prayed that a new heart might be vouchsafed to "the law breakers" as he termed the Salvationists. Eva, finding her knee drill ineffectual, rose and left the mayor master of the situation.

North Carolina's First Coke Furnace.

Manufacturers' Record.

The first coke furnace ever built in North Carolina is under contract. The Cranberry furnace now makes coke iron, which it sells at a high price in Pittsburg for Bessemer steel purposes, but this furnace was not originally for using coke. It is a small furnace intended for charcoal iron. The new coke furnace, for the build. ing of which a contract has just been let, will be located at Greensboro, and will be owned by the North Carolina Steel and Iron Co., of that city. The Manufacturers' Record has often referred to this company and stated its intention to build a furnace to make Bessemer iron, but it had so long delayed the matter that many had forgotten the organization of the company. The building of this furnace opens the era of iron making in North Carolina on a large scale, for the iron ore wealth of that state is so iron producing section.

Tobacco Culture.

Tobacco growing seems to be going south rapidly. Mr. Shade Jackson of Lenoir county had cur'd five tarns of tobacco several days ago and was then curing several others. The drift of the tobacco culture seems to be south and east.

The Book Trust Knocked Out.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The price of the great Encyclopedia Britannica, ₹8 per volume for the English edition, and $5 per volume for the Seribner and the Stoddardt editions in the cheapest binding-has been a bar to its popular use.

Our new reprint of this work is furnished at $1.50 per volume, the greatest bargain ever known in the book trade. We have sold over half a million volumes in six months; proof that the public appreciate so great a bargain.

This reprint is not an abridgment, but a reproduction of the entire twenty-five volumes of the great Edinburg ninth edition, page for page, with new and later articles on important American topics, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition. In all repects it compares tavorably with the high priced editions, and in point of maps and durability of binding it is superior to them.

Heretofore we have sold only for cash. We now announce that we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments,

Special Offer.-In order that you may see the bargain we offer, and examine its merits, we will furnish Volume 1 by express for 60 cts, a fraction of actual cost; add 40 cts postage if wanted by mail.

Circulars and sample page will be sent free on application. R. S. Peale & Co., on application. Publishers, Chicago.
