NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The Winston boys triumphed yesterday in the base ball match by a score of 8 to 2.

The excursion train will leave the depot at 7:05 o'clock sharp tomorrow morning.

Lots of people gone to Morehead and this may be termed a bonanza at our famous watering place.

What's the matter with our young folks? The matrimonial market is hardly paying expenses, and Register Mial looks disconsolate.

Clean up the back lots. This is a dangerous season, and every precaution should be taken to preserve the public health.

Considerably over half of the claims for direct taxes in Wake county, have been presented. At least, this is the estimate.

Now that our friend ex Mayor Thompson has returned, we have no doubt there will be hustling getting ready for the start of the Farmers and Commercial Bank.

We hope to see the day when more brick or brown stone residences will be put up in Raleigh. Such buildings would give us more the air of a genuine city.

Electric bells are being placed in the new addition to the Yarboro House, and we suppose, by the time the exposition opens the entire building will be furnished with the same convenience.

The watermelon picnic is booming; the floor managers have been appointed for the "light fantastic toe." They are as follows: Thos. Badger, Jr., Henry W. Miller, Byron Whitaker, John Stronach and Joe K. Marshall. A nice, clever set of young gentlemen would be hard to find.

The alarm of fire sent in at midnight last night was caused from the burning of a cottage on the corner of East and East Hargett streets, occupied by Mr. Coy Jordan. The house was nearly destroyed and the family had a very close escape. The house and furniture were insured.

The General Assembly meets again in 1893. Of course there will be patriotism enough to vote something for the Columbian Exposition which does not take place until that year. Can't our finances help out the old State on a venture. It might be a little risky, but then we must think the members would be ashamed to dodge the question.

The wire fence around Moore square was not put there for people to lean or sit upon, and the sooner they are made to realize this fact, the better. A person who so far forgets what is due to propriety as to injure property in this way, ought to be made to pay the penalty, and they will, too, if Mayor Badger or Chief of Police Heartt gets wind of it.

Messrs. M. H. Brown and James Leary who were hurt in the scuffle with the negro prisoner, Willoughby, are getting on very well considering. It is hoped that they will be all right again. In the meantime the scoundrel who committed the assault should be placed in the closest confinement, and, if necessary he should be put in irons. Such desperadoes should not be allowed a chance to commit harm.

An auditorium can be built without costing the people of Raleigh a solitary cent. The bonds, if issued would sell faster than hot cakes, and they would be at par or very nearly so. The rent of the hall would more than pay the interest and a sinking fund could be laid by to redeem the principal long before maturity. This is not merely a paper calculation. It is solid fact, and if any first class financier will examine the matter, he will find it so. It can be done, too, without Legislative sanction.

Don't forget to be on hand tomorrow morning. The excursion to Richmond leaves the Union Depot. Splendid band of music &c

I. R. Branham, editor Christian Index, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have used Bradverotone with unflinching prompt, decided relief." Aug. 11 6t

We suppose the Supreme Court will take up the test case of the merchants purchase tax, early in the coming term. This is, at least, the general impression.

Poles are now being put up on the western extension of the electric railway. Everything will soon be all right and in working order.

The time for mad dogs is at hand, but we hear of none so far, in this vicinity. Don't fool with dogs generally, they may be out of fix, and then there is "danger ahead."

The scorching season continues. But for the relief in the shape of cool nights and mornings, it would be almost unbearable. There is always a temper to the ill of life, if we do but realize it.

In our issue of yesterday we stated that old bonds to the amount of $15,000 had been exchanged at the Treasury for new 6 per cent. bonds. It should have read "new 4 per cent. consols"—the new bonds bear 4 per cent. interest.

Mr. Wm. M. Utley is engaged in making out a statement of agricultural statistics as returned with the tax lists. Mr. Utley will no doubt, get up the matter as nearly as it can possibly be obtained.

Don't forget the meeting of the County Commissioners tomorrow. It is another chance to look after the matter of assessments of real estate, and it may be the last. Look after it.

There are numbers of houses in the city that could be easily converted into temporary boarding houses. Energetic persons can no doubt make fair returns in such cases. In the absence of another large hotel, the outlook is that such business will pay handsomely during the exposition.

Let any person who has any curiosity or any thing else they desire to have exhibited at the approaching Exposition, send it to the Drug Store of Mr. John Y. MacRae. Wake county should not be behind in this matter. Ours is the metropolitan county and we should spread ourselves to make it foremost in the great show.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the New York Bargain House, to be opened on Saturday next which appears in this issue. Mr. Levy, the gentlemanly business Manager and Mr. M. D. Edwards, who will assist him in serving the public, are as busy as bees arranging their very attractive new store.

The Moseley House.

We are glad to state that the old Central Hotel, on the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, has been refitted, painted up and made to look nice and new, by Mr. N. S. Moseley, who has opened it up a real nice hotel under the name of the Moseley House. We wish Mr. Moseley abundant success. He is a good hotelist.

Returned.

Col. F. A. Olds returned to the city yesterday afternoon from Wrightsville, where he has been in constant attendance during the past month or so discharging his duties as Quarter Master General of the State Guard. He was during the veteran's encampment acting as Commissary General, by appointment of Gen. Robert Ransom. He has had a most laborious time of it, but with his characteristic energy, kept things moving all right.

The Colonel was especially delayed at the encampment for a week after it broke owing to the heavy rains, looking after the return of the tents and other property. He is looking remarkably well considering the hard work he has undergone.

Our Boys Abroad.

Mr. C. G. Stone to-day received a letter from our plucky bicyclist, Will Wynne, dated at Washington City, Aug. 9th, where he was resting over Sunday; that is he was enjoying himself as he never did before. He rode almost all over the National Capital, on the finest cycling streets in the world after having worked so hard over rough highways, mud and rain, enjoying the fruits of toil. He wrote that he would leave for Baltimore on yesterday morning, and arrive in Philadelphia tonight and New York on tomorrow (Wednesday) night. He expects to go to Boston, and probably to Canada.

In closing he says he feels "like circling the world." He said there might be good riders in Washington City, but he had not met his man yet. He wants the great "Three C" Club to spend a week in Washington at some future date.

New Design.

In our rounds this morning we peeped in as usual, at the establishment of Messrs. Jones & Powell, on Fayetteville street. We noticed in the window a curious article which rather surprised us at first, as we took a notion that a black hen had laid some black eggs in the window. We were soon told, however, that our unnatural surmises were not correct, but that, what had so impressed us, was nothing more or less than specimens of new fashioned fuel called 'Eggette' coal. This fuel is a manufactured article of French origin, and is made from the accumulated dust of Gayton coal. It is fuel of the best kind, and burns elegantly. In fact it is destined to become the best fuel for the price now in use. Messrs. Jones & Powell will handle this coal extensively, and the price is, at retail, only $6 per ton. We advise our people to call and look at it. We are sure they will be more than pleased with an experimental trial.

Personal Mention.

Manager Brown of the Western Union Telegraph Office, has returned to the city from a short business trip to Richmond, Va.

Mr. C. M. Harris, an old Raleigh boy, and his family, now of Wynne, Ark., are at their old home, shaking hands with their friends.

Mr. Thos. Denson is quite sick at the residence of his parents, Capt. and Mrs. C. B. Denson. We hope he will soon recover.

The following gentlemen are at the Yarboro House: W. M. Person, Louisville; J. L. Shell, Winston, D. W. Whitaker, Durham; T. D. Turner, Hillsboro.

Dr. L. N. Durham, the gentlemanly Senator from Cleveland county, passed through the city Sunday, on his way to Morehead. The Doctor is an enthusiastic Alliance man, and was enroute to the Convention at Morehead.

Remember that W. B. Mann & Co., keep Arbuckle's coffee all the time, and job it at factory prices, by the case.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Carpets, Curtains,
Table Damasks,
Napkins, Towels, Sheetings, &c.

Every one who has any preparations whatever to make in the line of house furnishings, should take advantage of the opportunity we now offer, to supply themselves, and not put off the purchase of these goods until the last weeks before the Exposition. Nothing can be gained by putting off buying carpets, curtains, table damasks, napkins, towels, sheetings, pillow cotton, &c., as many of these goods are now offered at prices lower than under the old tariff, and if bought now money can be saved, and the trouble and inconvenience will be over before the rush of the Exposition begins.

BLANKETS.

There are a good many of our blankets carried over from last season, which we wish to clear out, before the new fall stock arrives. Some of these are solid, but the prices one can buy them for, will fully recompense them for taking an article slightly shop worn.
