NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE CITY.

What Our Reporters See and Hear Worth Giving to Our Readers—News in Brief.

The weather is still hot with little assurance of getting cooler.

Messrs. John M. Smith & Co., are having their place of business on Exchange place handsomely painted.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of W. C. & A. B. Stronach which appears in this issue.

Messrs. Hamill & Hunicutt are pushing forward the work on the buildings of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. and S. T. Smith.

The electric street cars will be in full blast next Monday (17th) in time for the Stronach watermelon feast at the Exposition grounds.

The office of the Signal Service observer at the Agricultural Department, is being enlarged. The increase of business in the service has rendered this necessary.

The overflow of water at the plugs where the street sprinklers are filled keeps an ugly place of mud on the street, which should be avoided if practicable.

There may have been hotter days this season, but there has been more general complaint than we have heard before.

Mr. James Barrett, an old Federal soldier, who has been living in our midst since the war, having become disabled from age, has been sent to the Soldiers' Home, at Hampton, Va., by the Grand Army post at Raleigh.

A large crowd left the city this morning on the excursion to Richmond, there were twelve coaches which the managers expect to be filled before they reach the Virginia capitol.

I. R. Branham, editor Christian Index, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have used Bradycortine with unflinching prompt, decided relief." Aug. 11 66

Register of Deeds Mial had no application for marriage license yesterday, but an old darkey gave him a call and asked him to untie the knot, by which he was married, stating that he was utterly disgusted with married life. He expressed his opinion that married life was a total failure (especially in his case)

We are not satisfied about this bridge business on Hillsboro street. This continual patching up of an old dilapidated structure, is unworthy a growing city like ours. We want a new bridge, and it should be of iron. Ninety-nths of the people of Raleigh agree with us. Just take a vote on it, and see if they don't.

Where is there a city or town in North Carolina, in which a man has to tramp his feet sore to look after a house to shelter his family, with the exception of Raleigh? Don't this show that our population is increasing at a wonderful rate, and don't it show, also, that some of our financial citizens are much in their own light in not investing in such property. It looks like it.

We heard of a young lad of this city going in one of our Apothecary shops on Saturday evening last to get a milk shake. He found on entering the shop, some young ladies after milk shakes too, he became confused, and instead of asking for his milk shake, he called for five cents worth of alum. He got his alum and left for his home where he delivered the alum to his mother.

The Railroad Commissioners have finished their work of assessing the railroads; and the Auditor has certified to the State Treasurer the amt. of assessed value and taxes thereon. There are 68 roads, including some branches, with two exemption. The total value is $18,441,048.28, and the total taxes assessed for general purposes and for pensions is $51,568.15, an increase of about $13,000 over last year.

Business in all departments have been very quiet today.

A good rain is much needed in the city and also in the country.

The pews for Central Methodist Church have arrived, and one of the men will be here in a few days to put them in the church. They were made by the Globe Manufacturing Company, of Northville, Mich. They are beauties.

Excursion to Wilmington.

A grand excursion to the sea coast will leave Raleigh at 6 o'clock; a. m., on Tuesday the 18th for Wilmington, and returning, leave Wilmington at 7 o'clock, p. m., on Wednesday Aug. 19th. Separate coaches for white people and for colored people. Ladies will be made perfectly comfortable. Persons going on this excursion will have an opportunity to spend a day and night at Wrightsville, on the ocean.

Politics.

Government, when defined in its simplest form is or should be a compromise adjustment of the conflicting interests and inclination of men, for the mutual good of all. But of late years it does seem that politics which is the theory and practice of government, is run for purposes of party supremacy almost alone.

Muzzle the Dogs.

Nearly every day we see an account of people being bitten by mad dogs, only two days ago two citizens of Henderson were bitten, and there is no reason to believe that they will recover.

In Goldsboro some time since a young man from this city died of hydrophobia, having been bitten by a mad dog, since that time every dog running at large is required to wear a muzzle, and we understand that the authorities of Henderson have ordered that every dog running at large there shall be muzzled.

Now let the board of Aldermen of the city of Raleigh at their meeting next Friday night order that every dog that is allowed to run at large, (whether taxed or not taxed) be required to wear a muzzle, and if caught without one on let him be killed by any one of the police officers, it is exceedingly dangerous both for children and grown people to have such a risk to run as being bitten by a worthless cur.

A Suggestion.

What is the objection to having the portraits of all our Mayors put in the "temple of justice" of Raleigh, provided it can be done without cost. No doubt by a little exertion all of them for years past could be obtained either from the living or representatives of the dead. Some people will ask what is the use of it. Well, just as a matter of municipal pride, if nothing else. The State Treasury, the Executive office and all other departments of our government pursue this course. Why not our municipality? It's a good idea and we would like to see it carried out. We North Carolinians need a little spurring up on the pride matter. Just a little bit of our Virginia cousins' pride wouldn't hurt at all.

A Prominent New Berne Man Found Dead in Bed.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Aug. 11.—E. M. Pavis, chief engineer of the New Berne fire department, and a prominent contractor and builder was found dead in his bed this morning. He had been in usual good health up to Sunday last but on yesterday was complaining some and consulted Dr. Primrose. Fatty degeneration of the heart was the trouble.

Base Ball.

Winston, 0
Too much credit cannot be given the Winston Blue Sluggers for their fine playing yesterday in holding the Washington Bicycle Club down to one run.

The Butcher Club of Raleigh would have been "in it" against Winston yesterday.

Why don't Winston play a team?

A Growing Business.

Mr. D. T. Swindell came to Raleigh three years ago, and began business on Martin street in a modest way, it soon became evident that he was a man of solid business capacity. He has steadily pushed to the front in our business community, without making any very special boast about it, until about the close of the spring business of the present year, he felt the need of more and better room as well as a better location. After quietly looking around for one, he fixed upon the building then occupied by Mr. S. B. Norris, and formerly known as Norris & Carter's. Mr. Swindell concluded this a good location and forthwith purchased the building and the lot running through to Salisbury street.

He has just completed an extension to the originally handsome store room which makes it one of the longest store rooms in the city, running through the square, and fronting on both Fayetteville and Salisbury St's.

Mr. Swindell's business has increased so rapidly, and has grown to such an extent that he will add ten more salesmen to his present force, by September, he says.

He proposes to make a specialty of the carpet business, and will carry one of the largest stocks of carpets in the State. He also proposes to open a strictly first class fine Dress Goods Department, having secured the services of salesmen thoroughly up in the fine dress goods business. With a beautiful store room 210 feet long, and the very many attractions that Mr. Swindell has added and proposes to add to his large and varied stock we predict for him a large business this fall, and he richly deserves it.

Personal Mention.

Mr. Jas. I. Johnson left yesterday to join his family in Louisville. He will be absent about ten days.

Mr. J. L. Prior the clever salesman for Antecephalalgim returned from a trip to the western part of the State yesterday.

Mr. C. D. Osborn, proprietor of the Osborn House at Oxford, is in the city.

Col. W. R. Richardson of the EVENING VISITOR, left for Richmond this morning.

Mrs. Mary W. G. Separk and little grand daughter Maud left yesterday for Franklin county to spend the summer.

Miss Ida A. Snelling will leave this afternoon for the Red Springs Fair and other points.

Gen. F. B. Chilton the General Manager of the Inter States Immigration Bureau returned to Morehead yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Spence of the firm of J. A. Spence & Bro., left today for Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to purchase their fall stock.

Mr. Jake Pope returned to the city yesterday from an extended trip to Richmond, Baltimore and other places.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Carpets, Curtains, Table Damasks, Napkins, Towels, Sheetings, &c.

Every one who has any preparations whatever to make in the line of house furnishings, should take advantage of the opportunity we now offer, to supply themselves, and not put off the purchase of these goods until the last weeks before the Exposition. Nothing can be gained by putting off buying carpets, curtains, table damasks, napkins, towels, sheetings, pillow cotton, &c., as many of these goods are now offered at prices lower than under the old tariff, and if bought now money can be saved, and the trouble and inconvenience will be over before the rush of the Exposition begins.

BLANKETS.

There are a good many of our blankets carried over from last season, which we wish to clear out, before the new fall stock arrives. Some of these are solid, but the prices one can buy them for, will fully recompense them for taking an article slightly shop worn.
