LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, N. C., AUGUST 19, 1891

Captain Isaac Jennings, of Harvey Cedars, N. J., has four giant clam shells that weigh over seven hundred pounds. They came from California.

According to an eminent German statistician the world has had 2550 Kings or Emperors who have reigned over seventy four peoples. Of these 300 were overthrown, sixty four were forced to abdicate, twenty eight committed suicide, twenty three became mad or imbecile, 100 were killed in battle, 223 were captured by the enemy, twenty five were tortured to death, 134 were assassinated and 108 were executed.

It is told of the late General Gordon that each morning, during his journey in the Soudan country, for half an hour there lay outside his tent a white handkerchief. The whole camp knew well what it meant, and looked upon the little signal with the utmost respect; no foot dared to pass the threshold of that tent while the little guard lay there. No message, however pressing, was to be delivered. Matters of life and death must wait until the little signal was taken away. Every one in the camp knew that God and Gordon were communing together.

A Cat Once Bitten Him.

KINGSTON, N. Y., August 18—Physicians in this city are puzzled over a case which has many symptoms of hydrophobia. George Cutter, a carpenter, employed on the West Shore railroad, was seized while at work on Wednesday with what was at first supposed to be an epileptic fit. He grew rapidly worse, and on Friday night acted in a very violent manner. He drove his wife and other persons from the room and locked the door.

Dr. Connelly offered Cutter some water to drink as a test whether he was afflicted with hydrophobia. He drank the water, but shortly afterward was taken with violent convulsions.

He barks like a dog, bites the pillows and bed clothing, and acts as though he would bite any one approaching him. Many who have seen Cutter are of the opinion that he is suffering from hydrophobia.

Mrs. Cutter asked her husband in one of his rational moments whether he had ever been bitten by a dog, and he replied that he had not. Afterward he said that several years ago he was bitten by a cat on one of his fingers.

Went to Sleep Last Spring.

MUNITH, MICH., August 18.—May White, the daughter of Thomas W. White, a prosperous farmer in this section, promises to rival Rip Van Winkle as a sleeper. May is fifteen years old and was one of the brightest girls in her class at school, and a very active and cheery girl. Early this spring her eyes began to show signs of weakness, and she was seized with a strong desire to sleep. On several occasions she failed to respond to the calls of her parents, and nothing but long continued and determined shaking would arouse her from her lethargy. She also lapsed into periods of sleep in school.

On the night of June 20 she went to bed as usual, but did not waken the next morning. Shaking, pinching, prodding with pins, and ducking with cold water were resorted to with no result, and a doctor was called. Since that time, with a few brief intervals of semi-consciousness, the girl has slept, regardless of determined attempts to rouse her. Nourishment has been administered in small quantities by forcing open her mouth.

Yesterday Dr. Robinson succeeded in rousing her and keeping her partially awake five minutes, when she relapsed into unconsciousness. It is thought, however, that this waking shows that she will soon come out of her sleep. She has not lost flesh, and her cheeks are as rosy with the bloom of health as when she fell asleep.

A Baby Pipe Smoker.

CHICAGO, August 18.—The Illinois Humana Society has decided to prosecute the parents of 2 year old Leonard Tucker, the tobacco smoking baby. Ever since the baby was 2 months old his father has been teaching him to smoke. The child has now become so accustomed to the weed that he cries for his pipe and tobacco.

The mother has had to work, and has been leaving the boy at a nursery. The matron of the nursery refused to allow the use of tobacco. Two physicians examined the child. He was found to be in a very feeble condition, already suffering from acute nicotine poisoning, and having what is known to physicians as the "tobacco heart."

Renewal of a Strange Phenomenon in an Indian River.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 16.—About a year ago a great eruption took place in Shelby county, near the Bartholomew county line, at the headwaters of Flat Rock River. The earth cracked, open all over a four acre tract. Some fishermen had left a fire burning, and a natural gas escaping was set on fire, burning for several days. At that time the water from the river shut off the flow of gas, and the fire went out. Since that time and until Friday night there have been no disturbance. But last night the near residents were aroused by a low, murmuring noise in that direction. During all yesterday and today there has been thrown high in the air from the fissure, water and stones.

It is not known how wide the fissure is, as it is the bottom of the river. So far the escaping gas has been prevented from being ignited. The inhabitants in that part of the State are alarmed.

Suing a Physician.

Philadelphia Times. The wife of Edward Washwell, of Camden, died in May last, three days after giving birth to a child. Washwell yesterday brought suit against the attending physician, Dr. Daniel I. Strook, of No. 818 Federal street, street, for $10,000 damages, alleging that his wife had not received proper attention. The summons was served on Dr. Strook in the morning, and is returnable on August 25.

Washwell is a carriage baby maker at the Caffrey works in Camden, and boards at Federal and Hudson streets, that city. He was deeply grieved over the death of his wife, and upbraided the doctor for what he thought was lack of attention at the time of her illness. The doctor declared that he had done all in his power for the woman.

Some weeks ago Washwell complained to the Board of Health that Dr. Strook had failed to record the birth of the child, but after the matter was heard the Board dismissed the case.

Dr. Strook is one of the best known physicians and surgeons in Camden. He was until recently President of the City Medical Society, is a member of the Executive Committee of the State Sanitary Association, and one of the visiting chief surgeons of Cooper Hospital. He said last night that he had merely been served with the summons in the case, and had not seen the plaintiff's bill of particulars.

"Until I see the bill," said Dr. Strook, "I scarcely know what to say. I certainly did not neglect Mrs. Washwell, and did all that an attending physician could do. Her death was due to causes very common in childbirth."

It is stated that Washwell alleges that Dr. Strook left his wife in a precarious condition while he attended a meeting.

The Book Trust Knocked Out.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

The price of the great Encyclopedia Britannica, $8 per volume for the English edition, and $5 per volume for the Scribner and the Stoddard editions in the cheapest binding—has been a bar to its popular use.

Our new reprint of this work is furnished at $1.50 per volume, the greatest bargain ever known in the book trade. We have sold over half a million volumes in six months; proof that the public appreciate so great a bargain. This reprint is not an abridgment, but a reproduction of the entire twenty-five volumes of the great Edinburgh ninth edition, page for page, with new and later articles on important American topics, and new maps, later and better than in any other edition. In all respects it compares favorably with the high priced editions, and in point of maps and durability of binding it is superior to them.

Heretofore we have sold only for cash. We now announce that we will deliver the set complete on small easy payments. SPECIAL OFFER.—In order that you may see the bargain we offer, and examine its merits, we will furnish Volume I, by express for 60 cts. a fraction of actual cost; add 40 cts postage if wanted by mail. Circulars and sample page will be sent free on application. R. S. PEALE & Co., Publishers, Chicago. je29 if
